AN ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE.

The Shooting of Express Messenger Willis Explained.

The shooting of George Willis, the United States Express Company messenger Wednesday evening, was found yesterday to have been an attempt at suicide.

Dear Mary—This will be a hard matter for you to bear, for I know you think everything of me, and I am truly sorry to cause you so much pain and trouble, and sincerely ask God's forgiveness and yours. I can stand this no longer. I am the victim of a cruel and despicable woman that placed confidence in, and thought her a good friend. She is to marry Thursday, and will be at 70 East Market street, Good-bye, and God bless you all, is the prayer of your loving,

G. WILLIS.

Coroner Nash also received a letter from Willis in which he said he contemplated suicide and giving instructions for the disposition of his property, and advising him that about $20 would be found on his person. He also asked that relatives be advised of the matter.

The woman referred to in the letter to Mrs. Rafferty is Mrs. Barney Willis, stopping with friends at State avenue and Prospect street. Mrs. Willis said Willis had several times asked her to marry him. She formerly rented a house belonging to Willis and he occupied a room in the house. Two months ago she gave up the house and Willis then went to live at 619 East Market street.

Willis died this morning at 2 o'clock at Dr. Russell's sanatorium.

THE ROOSEVELT TRIP

AUXILIARY SPEAKERS ASSIGNED TO VARIOUS CITIES.

Prominent Orators Will Entertain the Crowds Before and After the Governor's Arrival.

POSTMASTER GENERAL SMITH

HE PAYS A BRIEF VISIT TO THE CAPITAL CITY.

What He Thinks of the Situation Over the Country—Political Meetings and Gossip.

The State committee has practically completed the list of auxiliary speakers for the Roosevelt meetings to be held in Indiana on Oct. 11 and 12. In addition to the list given below there will be other speakers assigned to some of the towns mentioned. Some of the places which Roosevelt will visit are not given in the list because of the fact that the committee has not yet decided who will be the auxiliary speakers.

In many of the towns where the Roosevelt train will stop arrangements have been made to hold all-day rallies. For these places the State committee has undertaken to furnish orators who will entertain the crowds before and after the arrival of the Roosevelt train. In fact the committee will furnish speakers for the most of the towns where the train will stop, whether there is an all-day meeting or not. The list thus far completed is as follows: For Oct. 10, the first day of the Roosevelt tour, Mayor M. M. Dunlap, of Anderson, at Hammond; Senator Beveridge, at Lafayette; W. R. Payne, of Chicago, at Frankfort; Frederick Landis, at Logansport; M. L. Clawson, of Indianapolis, and O. A. Marsh, of Winchester, at Peru; J. Frank Hanly, at Warsaw; C. B. Case and M. A. Chipman, at Huntington; C. W. Miller, of Gosport, and A. C. Harris, at Ellettsville.

The list for Oct. 11, the second day, is as follows: Senator Beveridge at Marion, Warren Sawyer at Alexandria, W. R. Payne at Muncie, C. F. Griffin and M. L. Clawson at Winchester, Senator Fairbanks at Richmond.

Following is the list for Oct. 12, the last day of the tour: A. C. Harris at Plainfield, and speakers at Greensburg with W. L. Taylor, C. F. Griffin at Brazil, Senator Fairbanks at Terre Haute, J. Frank Hanly and M. M. Dunlap at Princeton, J. Frank Hanly also at Evansville with John E. Cockrum.

The special train will start from Chicago on the morning of Oct. 10. Hammond will be the first stop. It has not yet been decided just who will make up the Roosevelt party. It is understood, however, that Capt. W. E. English will go with the train.

POSTMASTER GENERAL SMITH, He Has Come Into Indiana to Make a Few Speeches.

Charles Emory Smith, postmaster general, who has come into Indiana to make a series of speeches in the interests of the Republican ticket, spent last night at the Denison. He arrived here yesterday evening from North Vernon, where he addressed a meeting in the afternoon. This was his first meeting in Indiana this year. Two years ago the postmaster general made some speeches in Indiana, traveling through the State in a private car. He is a logical and eloquent speaker and he made an excellent impression on his audiences. Mr. Smith is a warm personal friend of Representative Landis, and two years ago, during his trip through the State, Mr. Landis traveled with him.

The postmaster general came to Indiana this time to spend three days. He has just concluded a tour of Ohio, where he spoke to some large and enthusiastic audiences. At Elyria, O., on Wednesday afternoon, he addressed an audience of ten thousand people. His meetings at Cleveland and Toledo were the opening meetings of the campaign in these cities, and were large and enthusiastic affairs. To-night the postmaster general will speak at Frankfort, which is in Representative Landis' district. To-morrow he will make speeches at Logansport and Huntington. This will conclude his work in this State and he will then return to Washington for a week before going to the West Virginia district. To-morrow he will make speeches at Logansport and Huntington. This will conclude his work in this State and he will then return to Washington for a week before going to the West Virginia district.

The postmaster general is pleased with the general political situation. "It has improved in the last three weeks," he said last night. "Up to about three weeks ago there was a good many signs of indifference, but to a feeling of absolute assurance. People felt that the party would be successful without any effort on their part. Now they appreciate the fact that the success will come, but it must be attained by hard work. In West Virginia I find that our people believe we will carry the State by from 15,000 to 20,000 majority. Conditions in New York have also improved very much, and our people feel no doubt about the result."

The postmaster general thinks the improvement in the situation is due to the fact that Republicans are taking a greater interest in the campaign and are becoming more active. "The cry of imperialism," he thinks, has exploded, and he does not believe it has made any impression. People are interested in the people's look at the matter, is whether the country shall continue the good times it is having.

RAILROAD MEN'S MEETING.

Matters of Interest to Them Discussed by the Speakers.

About one hundred railroad men, members of the West Side McKinley and Roosevelt Club, listened to speeches last night by Frank L. Littleton, James A. Collins and Frank Alley, a member of the Railroad Engineers' Association.

The meeting was preceded by a parade of the club, headed by its drum and bugle corps. The clubrooms, at 1515 West Washington street, had been decorated with pictures of McKinley and Roosevelt and flags. Charles Nelson, president of the club, introduced Mr. Collins as the first speaker. He spoke for some time on the issues of the day and principally on the attacks the Democrats are making on the unfolding of the flag in foreign countries. The speaker's remarks were applauded by the audience.

Mr. Littleton, ex-speaker of the Indiana House of Representatives, followed and spoke on the Democrats' false issue of imperialism, which he showed clearly was but a myth in this campaign compared with the gigantic issue of 18 to 1 which Mr. Bryan is concealing. He also attacked the Democrats' reports from the national records that the Republicans have done more for the abolition of the evil than was ever done by the Democrats. In referring to trusts Mr. Littleton took for example the record of one of the Indiana senators, Mr. Frank H. Burke, candidate for representative from the Seventh district. The speaker showed that Mr. Burke was instrumental in defeating all bills introduced against trusts during his term as state senator. He also took up Mr. Burke's record on the labor question during his legislative career and showed him to be against all measures proposed for the betterment of the laboring man.

Mr. Littleton, at the conclusion of his remarks, called on Mr. Alley, who is a labor representative. Mr. Alley reiterated the remarks of Mr. Littleton as to the labor record of Mr. Burke and also showed the "Blue Book" which he compiled some years ago, in which he set out all the bills introduced for the benefit of laboring men during the legislative terms of 1888 and 1891, and the action of Mr. Burke on them. The speaker made a good impression on the members of the club, who warmly indorsed all that was said.

BRIGHTWOOD MEETING.

Charles A. Bookwalter and Harry Hubbard the Orators.

A Republican meeting held in the Republican clubrooms at Brightwood last night was well attended. The principal speech of the evening was made by Charles A. Bookwalter, who succeeded in arousing the keenest enthusiasm by his able exposition of Democratic fallacies and misrule. Mr. Bookwalter began his remarks by speaking of the good record made by the Republicans in the last four years in the management of the state affairs, showing wherein thousands of dollars had been saved to the taxpayers of the county through a wise and economic Republican administration. He closed his remarks with a discussion of the paramount issues of the campaign, and in response to a question, Mr. Bookwalter quoted from a speech made by John W. Kern in 1886, in which he said: "The collapse of free silver at the rate of sixteen to one is a menace to every workingman in this country. It means that everybody who has fifty cents' worth of silver can take it to the mint and have it coined into a dollar. It means that everybody who has a dollar in the bank or in a building and loan association, for which he has paid in honest gold, will be compelled to take a dollar change for it a dollar worth fifty cents, etc." The significance of the quotation was not lost on the audience, which responded with enthusiastic applause.

At the conclusion of Mr. Bookwalter's address, Harry Hubbard briefly discussed the issues.

CLEVELAND'S FRIEND.

He Sends a Bolt of Unfriendliness Into the Democratic Camp.

Republicans are calling attention to an interview recently printed in the New York Sun, in which E. C. Benedict, who is perhaps the closest friend of Grover Cleveland, has announced that he cannot contribute to the support of a Democratic campaign club at Greenwich, Conn. In a letter replying to request for money Mr. Benedict says he has been an earnest disciple of Democratic principles for the past forty-five years, and adds: "I regret to find no party in existence whose platform supports them to any degree. Four years ago our State sent delegates to the Chicago convention representatives of unquestioned Democratic principles. They were outvoted in the national convention which promulgated a platform of doctrines almost wholly at variance therewith and committed an unpardonable crime when they gave the name of a label. Therefore I would as soon think of contributing to a lot of Chinese who have captured our Christian churches, as the gospel and a painfully conspicuous loss to worship instead of the unseen, and without changing the names of the churches call themselves regular Christians."

IN THE NINTH DISTRICT.

Fred Sims Thinks Representative Landis is Gaining Friends.

Fred Sims, Republican chairman of the Ninth district, who spent last night in the city, thinks there is no doubt of the reelection of Representative Landis. He says the work of the Democratic manager does not seem to be as effective in behalf of Captain Allen. Mr. Landis' opponent, as it was ten days ago. It is noticed by Republicans in the district that some of the Democratic leaders are inclined to "lay down" on their jobs, and are not so enthusiastic for Captain Allen as they were. There is a certain element of Democracy in the district that is opposed to landis. There are some Democratic enemies who have become such, partly through a disagreement with him on political affairs and partly through business affairs. Chairman Sims says there may be some men who will vote for Captain Allen through the friendship for him who would support Mr. Landis with another opponent in the field. These men perhaps support Landis for the wrong reason. But there are no voters who supported Landis before who will not do so now because of any disloyalty on the part of Mr. Landis. He has made new friends in the district in the last two years.

Reports Good Conditions.

A. O. Reser, Republican candidate for the Legislature from Tippecanoe county, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Reser spoke very enthusiastically of the excellent organization of the Republicans in the Battle Ground domain. He said there are two thousand uniformed Rough Riders in Tippecanoe county. The Republicans of Lafayette will open the campaign Monday night with a speech by Hon. Francis Johnson, the veteran editor of the German-American. Mr. Reser speaks at Williamsport, in Warren county, last week. He expects Republicans will increase their vote in that county this year. The political situation generally the party is in splendid condition, determined, united and aggressive.

The Bryan Itinerary.

The Democratic state committee has announced the itinerary of William Jennings Bryan for Oct. 6. The special train will leave Indianapolis at 7 o'clock a. m. and will arrive at the different towns on the route as follows: Plainfield, 7:21 a. m.; Greensburg, 8:02 a. m.; Brazil, 8:43 a. m.; Terre Haute, 9:49 a. m.; Ellettsville, 10:20 a. m.; Washington, 1:10 p. m.; West Shoals, 2:20 p. m.; Mitchell, 3:06 p. m.; Salem, 4:15 p. m.; New Albany, 5:35 p. m.; Jeffersonville, 6 o'clock.

Mr. Bryan will not return to Indianapolis from Jeffersonville, but will go on to Louisville.

The Dolliver Meeting.

The Commercial Travelers' Republican Club is making every arrangement possible to make the Dolliver meeting to-morrow night a success. Most of the members are out on the road all week looking after the interests of their customers, but will be home to-night to complete the arrangements for to-morrow night's meeting. Members of other club organizations will meet with them and be assigned positions in the parade. Members of the secret committee are especially urged to be present, as matters of importance will be presented at the meeting.

Republican Meetings To-Night.

The Republican county committee has arranged for a number of meetings to-night. One of the important ones will be held at Lawrence, where William C. Thompson and W. E. Reagan will be the speakers. Frank L. Littleton will deliver an address at the O. P. Morton Club rooms, at Shelby street and Cottage street, at 8 o'clock. Thompson and Daniel L. Brown will talk at McKinley headquarters, corner of Arsenal and Seventeenth streets. Rev. H. P. Parker and E. W. Webber will address the Mendenhall Club at Oxford and Twenty-fifth streets.

Dr. Milburn for McKinley.

Dr. J. A. Milburn, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, has been a staunch Democrat in the past, but in 1886 he voted for McKinley and says he proposes to vote the same way again. Mr. Milburn shares Senator Beveridge's views regarding Cuba. "Cuba is so related to the United States," he says, "that she cannot exist as an independent political entity. What Ireland is to Great Britain Cuba is to America. Cuba must ultimately be a part of us, and that she is not ours now is one of the fatalities of statesmanship."

Col. Durbin in Town.

The Ninth district, accompanied by Auditor of State Hart, Colonel Durbin has visited a large majority of the counties in Indiana and is now looking for the man in line up the organization.

A Chance for a Bet.

Mr. H. Gillespie, whose office is at 27 and 28 Baldwin block, had his attention called to an article printed in yesterday morning's Sentinel, in which an alleged Big Four freeman offered to bet a "broad slice of his next month's pay" that Bryan would have a plurality of 20,000 votes in Indiana, and if he lost would give the man in order to get a part of the "slice." "It may be a bluff," said Mr. Gillespie, "if the fellow really in earnest will bet me $50 even that Bryan don't carry Indiana, and say nothing about the 20,000 majority."

Hamilton County Republicans.

John Owen, secretary of the Republican committee of Hamilton county, was in the city yesterday, and dropped into state headquarters. He says the Republicans of Hamilton county are getting ready for a big time next Tuesday night, when a new foundry building at Noblesville will be dedicated. Mr. Owen says it looks as if Hamilton county will give the biggest Republican vote of the year in the history of the county.

Not Very Enthusiastic.

There was something almost pathetic surrounding the efforts of Frank B. Burke to make a speech at Princeton last night. The hall was about one-third full when he was introduced and a weak applause was given him. Mr. Burke repeated his oft-told political harangue. Enthusiasm was at ebb tide and his remarks were not "punctuated with applause."

Old Age and Youth.

The town of Angola has a Fremont-McKinley club of 124 members, the youngest of whom is sixty-five years old. The oldest member is ninety-one years of age.

At Seymour there is a Lincoln League club, composed of twenty-six lads, who are from ten to twelve years of age.

A New Durbin Club.

An organization was formed in the Eleventh precinct of the Fourth ward last night that will be known as the Durbin Club. Neal Biby was elected president; Charles Cheatham, vice president; Elmer Thayer, secretary; Gus Sawyer, treasurer, and Henry Clay, marshal.

A Noon Meeting.

Charles N. Thompson, John McLaughery and James A. Collins addressed about thirty members at the Kramer Manufacturing Company's plant yesterday at noon.

Republican Camp of Veterans.

The regular meeting of Camp No. 1, of the Republican Camp of Veterans and their Sons will be held this evening at 7:30, in the Circuit Court room.

A Tenth Ward Club.

The Republicans of the Tenth ward will meet at 312 Virginia avenue, next Tuesday evening, to organize a club.

CARNIVAL PROGRAMME

IT IS FINALLY ADOPTED BY THE FESTIVITIES SOCIETY.

The Parades Will Be of Great Interest—The Other Features of the Week.

The programme committee of the Fall Festivities Society met at the Commercial Club last night, and with the approval of M. P. Barry, adopted a programme for the October carnival. Albert Lieber, chairman of the committee, presided. Gen. James R. Carnahan, who will command all of the parades, was present and submitted a report. He said that he had assurances that not less than 800 uniformed men, outside of the Red Men and other secret orders, would participate in the military and civic parades. There will be several bands, including the Indianapolis Military Band. The programme, as adopted, is essentially as originally announced several weeks ago, and is printed on advertising matter distributed throughout the State. As will be seen, there is no mention of "politics," the alleged "Roosevelt day" being a hoax. Major General Carnahan said that, inasmuch as there are parades on Tuesday and Wednesday, and practically the same men will participate, or rather lead, the parades, he considered it best to skip one day and give the other street attractions Friday. If rain should interfere the floral parade will be on Thursday, instead of the day announced. Tecumseh and his followers will be received at the Statehouse just before the military and civic parade starts, and the keys of the city presented to Tecumseh. He and his followers and the Red Men and others will fall in on the left of the military and civic parade and be escorted along the line of march. Following is the programme:

Monday Evening, Oct. 8.—General preparation for illumination of the Soldiers' Monument.

Tuesday, Oct. 9.—Morning: Grand water carnival at Broad Ripple Park; discovery of Rex Tecumseh; procession to the city and reception by Mayor Thomas Taggart; presentation of the keys of the city to Tecumseh and his followers, to be followed by the grand civic and military parade. Parade will form on West Washington street, east of White river, and move east on the south side of Washington street to East street, to march on the north side of Washington street to Pennsylvania street, north on Pennsylvania street to Vermont street, east on Vermont street to Belmont street, north on Delaware street and disband.

Evening—Opening of the "Magic Circle," with grand illumination, concerts and varied entertainment. Wednesday, Oct. 10.—Afternoon: Floral parade will form at 1:30 o'clock at North East street to Sixteenth street, move south on Meridian street to New York street, east on New York street to Pennsylvania street, west on Pennsylvania street to Washington street, west on Washington street to Capitol avenue, counter-march on Capitol avenue to Sixteenth street, north on Pennsylvania street to Vermont street, east on Vermont street to Belmont street, north on Delaware street and disband.

Evening—Grand allegorical float parade, will form on West Washington street, east of White river, bridge, move east on Washington street to East street, north on East street to Ohio street, west on Ohio street to Pennsylvania street, south on Pennsylvania street to Washington street, west on Washington street and disband. Concerts and entertainments in the "Magic Circle." Thursday, Oct. 11.—Afternoon: Fire run by the Indianapolis fire department, on North East street to Vermont street, west on Vermont street to Indiana avenue; grand racing event between five speediest racing machines in the world. Start at 1:30 o'clock on Capitol avenue, from Sixteenth street to Indiana avenue.

KETTLEHAKE IS GUILTY

HIS PUNISHMENT FIXED AT LIFE IMPRISONMENT.

The Jury Was Out Eight Hours Before Reaching a Verdict—Prisoner Joked.

The jury in the Fred Kettlehake murder case, after having been out eight hours, returned a verdict yesterday morning, finding the defendant guilty of murder in the first degree and fixing his punishment at life imprisonment. Kettlehake was present in court when Judge Neil read the verdict, but it did not affect him in the least. He maintained the indifference that has characterized his conduct throughout the trial. When taken back to jail he joked with his prison associates and said he did not care the snap of his finger for the sentence. He did not consider it a punishment, for the disease with which he is suffering would soon result in his death.

The jury experienced considerable difficulty in reaching an agreement. While but few ballots were taken, it was over six hours before they finally decided that the defendant was of sound mind when he shot Frederick Simon. Three insisted on acquittal. Then there were ten for conviction, and in a short time an agreed upon a verdict of guilty. When the question of punishment was considered, one vote was cast for the death penalty. However, the other eleven jurors considered this a fever, and a life sentence was decided upon without much trouble.

A scene in which Kettlehake participated, and the only time he spoke during the progress of the trial, was Wednesday evening just before Mr. Span closed the argument for the prosecution. The attorney for the defense, Kettlehake's divorcee case and the threat of the defendant, that he would clean out the Dutch gang that met in the Kneips saloon and plotted to ruin him. Making an effort to rise from his chair, Kettlehake vehemently denounced Attorney Span.

"What's the Time?"

A booklet with this title, just published by the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway, should not only be in the hands of every traveler, but should have a place on the desk of every banker, merchant or other business man. The four "time standards" which govern our entire time system and which are more or less familiar to most of the traveling public, but by many others little understood, are so fully explained and illustrated by a series of charts, diagrams and tables that any one who wishes can become conversant with the subject in question. There are also some twenty-four tables by which almost at a glance the time at any place being given the hour and day can be ascertained in all the principal cities of the world.

A copy of this pamphlet may be had on application to George H. Heatford, general passenger agent, Chicago, with 2-cent stamp in payment.
