SENATOR BEVERIDGE'S TOUR.

He Was Greeted by Enthusiastic Crowds Everywhere.

Lee G. Rothschild, land clerk in the office of the auditor of state, who has been making a ten days' tour through the West with Senator Beveridge, returned to this city yesterday morning, having left the Senator and his party at Chicago Wednesday evening. The "Baron" is very much elated over McKinley's prospects in the Western States, and is especially enthusiastic over the reception accorded the Senator on his itinerary. Mr. Rothschild says the Senator was greeted with big audiences at every place he stopped, and the enthuslasm displayed gave the Democrats something to speculate about. At Minneapolis the Senator was to have spoken at an afternoon meeting, but there was such a demand for him that the local committee decided to charter a special train to carry him to Columbus, Neb., and in this way succeeded in keeping him for a night meeting. It was the occasion of the opening of the campaign in Minnesota, and the Senator spoke in the big exposition building, which will seat 4,000 people. Mr. Rothschild said the meeting was so well attended that three or four thousand people were turned away and the local committee had to provide speakers to address the overflow. From Minneapolis the Sen-ator went to Columbus, Neb., on the special chartered for his accommodation, the train making an average speed of nearly sixty miles an hour without any stops The Senator addressed about 3,500 people at Columbus, the majority of his audience being Populists and Democrats. The Sen- Matters Relating to the Roosevelt ator delivered his trust speech at Columbus, and was agreeably surprised at its reception. Mr. Rothschild said his audience. larly designed for those who have ten- in the banner Populist county of Nebraska, was one of the most demonstrative and that greeted him on hi enthusiastic of any Western trip. There were great crowds at both Atchison and Leavenworth, Kan. At the latter place the senator spoke in the main theater of the city, and the crowd was so great and the people so densely packed in front of the theater that he had to be taken up a ladder at the rear of the theater in order to reach the stage. At Kansas City the senator addressed a crowd of seven or eight thousand people and the en-thusiasm was so great that when he had finished speaking the crowd carried him on their shoulders from the platform to his carriage. During his speech at the latter city Mr. Rothschild sald that some one in the crowd yelled at the senator that his party was in favor of using the shotgun. The senator replied: "Yes, my friend, wherever the American flag is subject to dishonor the Republican party is in favor of using the shotgun." The senator's reply was greeted with the wildest enthusiasm, and the unfortunate man who had addressed the senator was unceremoniously hustled away.

While at Kansas City Major Ray and a delegation of railroad men went all the way from Chicago to ask the senator to address a big railroad meeting that is to be held in that city the latter part of this month. The senator referred them to the Indiana state central committee. Senator Beveridge and Mr. Rothchild parted company at Chicago, the senator going to Peoria, Ill., and Mr. Rothschild to this city.

GOVERNOR MOUNT TO-NIGHT.

He Will Address Laboring Men in Tomlinson Hall.

The meeting at Tomlinson Hall to-night gives promise of being one of the biggest demonstrations of the campaign. The laboring men all over the city are manifesting a deep interest and will probably attend in large numbers. The meeting is to be in the nature of a laboring man's demonstration, and for that reason H. G. Harris, foreman in one of the departments of the Big Four Railroad Company, and president of the Joseph H. Clark Republican Club, which has a membership of fifteen hundred voters, has been selected to pre-

Mr. Harris is a recognized leader among the laboring classes and as chairman of the meeting he will be accorded an enthust-astic reception. Governor Mount, who is to be the speaker, will address his audience particularly on the question of state

The street parade before the meeting will he in the nature of an escort for Governor Mount, and no attempt will be made to make it a monster demonstration. There will be several of the regularly organized Republican clubs in line, two or three of the clubs from the manufacturing establishments and about a thousand or twelve hundred of the Rough Riders. Colonel Clark will be in charge of the column. The

FIRST VOTERS' CLUB.

Organization of Enthusiastic Young Men Formed.

A large and enthusiastic crowd of first voters met last night in the Criminal Court room, and perfected an organization for the coming campaign. About two hundred of the young men of the city who will cast their first presidential votes this fall were present, and a good spirit was displayed in the project. No one can truthfully assert that these youths are afflicted with apathy. A special effort is being made by the Republican State central committee to get the young men voters of this campaign interested in the issues and no effort is being spared to accomplish that object. Every young man in the city can feel that he is welcome to enroll himself as a member of this club, and all are cordially invited to do so. Cyrus J. Clark was present, and made an inspiring speech to the boys, and expressed the pleasure that he, in common with all older men, felt in greeting them for the first time as fellow-voters and fellow-citizens. A constitution similar to the one in force among the college leagues was adopted, and the following officers were elected unanimously: Sampsell Waite Mansfield, president; George Denny, vice president; Sears Hargreaves, secretary. The following ward captains were designated: Second, Sears Hargreaves; Third, George Denny; Fourth, E. V. Wagner; Fifth, Blanchard Pettijohn; Sixth, Horace Schilling; Seventh, George J. Langsdale; Eighth, Harry Hardie; Ninth, Frank Olive; Tenth, G. W. Lyons; Twelfth, Judson Mosehelle: Warren township, Charles Shot-well, Capital National Bank. All young men who desire to join should report their names to the county committee, Room 202, COL. CLARK'S STAFF.

Will Be in Parade To-Night.

Col. Cyrus J. Clark announces for the first time the following complete list of the officers composing his staff: Lieutenant colonel, Charles L. Bieler; adjutant, John A. Parker; surgeon, Dr. Franklin W. Hayes; assistant surgeon, Dr. Homer. A. Jones; second assistant surgeon, Dr. John V. Kyle; quartermaster, Charles N. Elliott; quartermaster sergeant, William Allen; chaplain, Dr. D. R. Lucas; sergeant major, Cass A. Connaway; chief trumpeter, Charles Eagle; three hospital stewards, Dr. S. A. Furniss, Dr. Norman Jobes and Dr. George Pendleton; color sergeant, Ivy C. Hadley. The Rough Riders are requested by Col. Clark to meet for the parade this evening promptly at 7 o'clock. The first battalion, in Vermont and Meridian; the second bat-talion, under the command of Major H. T. giving vent to a yell in Italian, which was Conde, at Michigan and Meridian, and the third battalion, in charge of Major A. A. Womack, at North and Meridian. The column will move promptly at 7:15 o'clock. Those who are on horseback and not in uniform are requested by Col. Clark to form in the rear of the Rough Riders. General Carnaban, Col. I. N. Walker and

. L. Bieler have been selected to act as lucky company to receive Col. Clark's flag of merit, and each member of the committee is requested to be at the place of forma-Charles N. IN THE NINTH DISTRICT.

Committeeman Sims Exposes a Disappointed Officeseeker.

Fred A. Sims, member of the State central committee from the Ninth district, was at the Denison last evening, having come to the city to attend the meeting of the committee. Speaking of the situation in the Ninth district Mr. Sims said: "Representative Landis is making a careful canvass of the district, speaking twice and sometimes three times a day, and his meetings are phenomenal. The situation in the district was never better and the majority will be larger than ever before." "What truth is there in the report that there is a disaffection among the soldiers against Mr. Landis?" Mr. Sims was asked. "No truth. The soldiers are practically a unit for Mr. Landis. It is generally admitted that no man has ever represented the district who has looked more carefully after the interests of the soldier than Mr. andis. The report of this alleged disafection arises from the fact that one M. C. Hockman, a disappointed officeseeker, is going over the district attempting to stir ip trouble. He thinks he is making a still hunt, a gum-shoe campaign, as it were. He registers a fictitious name at the hotels and plays 'Mr. Smooth' in every way. At Crawfordsville he tried to pass himself off as Dunbar. At Tipton he slept at the hotel as M. H. Cummins, and so on over the district. He has been thoroughly exposed and his work is nil. I understand that Thomas Bowles, of Hamilton county, who wanted to be custodian of the Statehouse. is also trying to do some work, but no one ever takes him seriously."

STATE COMMITTEE MEETS.

Tour Considered.

All of the members of the Republican state committee met in Indianapolis yester- end of the Court of Honor and at the enday. Chairman Hernly announced last trance to the "Magic Circle" will night that the committeemen are devising plans to make the Roosevelt trip in Indianapolis the most stupendous political demonstration known in the history of the State, Many of the committeemen witnessed the Democratic parade on Wednesday night and said the parade next Thursday night in honor of Roosevelt will eclipse it.

A Soldier Misrepresented. The Greenfield Democrat, speaking of a meeting at Eden, Hancock county, addressed by Hon. James E. Watson, says: "During his speech a young soldler who had just returned from the Philippines was called to the rostrum to exhibit himself in uniform, so that Watson's remarks to 'follow the flag and a full dinner pail' would have more effect on his hearers. After the meeting the young soldier pulled off his hat and gave three cheers for Bryan and implored his many young friends about him to vote for Bryan. He said that a majority of the soldiers in the Philippines, if they had the opportunity, would vote for Bryan with a view of stopping this war of oppression against the Filipinos, which is altogether wrong." The young soldier alluded to called at the Journal office yesterday and said that he did not call for cheers for Bryan nor urge his friends to vote for the Nebraska man The young soldier is an unequivocal Mc-Kinley man, will vote for him, and added the opinion that the Philippine insurrection would long since have been suppressed had it not been for the encouragement extended Aguinaldo and his followers by Bryan and his supporters.

Representative Landis Here.

Representative Landis came to the city last night from Jamestown, where he made a speech yesterday afternoon to a big audience. Mr. Landis has canvassed the counties of Tipton, Clinton and Boone in his district and says that wherever he has made speeches he has not found a hall that would accommodate the people. "Neither have I ever seen such reckless use of money on the part of the Democrats in the Ninth district," added Mr. Landis. Representative Landis will join the Roosevelt train in Chicago next Tuesday morning.

Mount Says Indiana Is Safe. Governor Mount addressed a large meetng at Veedersburg yesterday afternoon. The hall was crowded and the deepest interest was shown. The Governor has made several speeches, largely to farmers with whom he is intimately acquainted. Last night he said: "We shall carry Indiana; we shall get a farmers' vote such as the party has never polled in Indiana."

East End Republican Club.

Charles N. Thompson, John C. Ruckleshaus, Michael Jefferson and Charles Bookwalter were the speakers last night at the Indianapolis Fire Insurance Company. Washington street, west on Washington Club, with headquarters on Hamilton avenue. There were about 250 men present. east to Delaware street and north to Tom- | William H. Pierce presided at the meeting.

North Indianapolis Meeting.

A Republican meeting last night at the First Colored Baptist Church, in North Indianapolis, was addressed by the Revs. R. F. Hurley, Robert E. Gregory and G. W. Butterfield, and W. W. Richardson. Julius Blackwell was chairman. There were about 200 voters present.

Clermont Meeting. A large and enthusiastic meeting was held last night at Clermont. The Rough Riders were out in full force. Charles S. Wiltsie, Judge Alford, Marion Eaton, Thomas E. Stafferd, Joseph Minturn and Joseph R. Morgan were the speakers.

Club Members to Meet. The members of the Marion Marching Club are requested to meet at their clubhouse at 7 o'clock this evening. The members of the Ninth Ward Republican Club will meet at the Majestic building at 7 o'clock this evening. Good Meeting in Brightwood.

Frank Littleton and James A. Pritchard spoke last night at a very enthusiastic meeting held in the Republican clubrooms in Brightwood. The hall was well filled, the number being estimated at 125.

HE CAUSES THEM TO TAKE AN OATH AT GERMANIA HALL.

Italian Speakers Imported from New York-Attempt to Observe

"Jim Keach says no reporters are to admitted," said the doorkeeper at Germania Hall last night as a reporter started to go into the place, being attracted to the upper floor by sounds of catchy music. The reporter went away, came back and managed to slip past the doorkeeper unseen. In the front of the hall was Keach, the commission merchant, and several well-attired men and in the chairs facing them were about eighty Italians. There were only a few words of English spoken after the reporter was admitted. Several times the audience was addressed in Italian in a manner indicating the putting of an oath. This was immediately followed by those composing the audience jumping charge of Major H. B. Smith, will form at | to their feet, raising their right hands and tollowed by more vigorous and enthusiastic

Seventeen inquiries were made in an effort to learn who the speakers were. At last one man was found who said Keach was the "big" speaker. The others were from "New York." their names unknown and brought here for the special purpose of attending the "Keach Italian Rally." After the speeches the Italians gathered about a keg of beer which was handily tion before 7 o'clock. Quartermaster | placed in the rear of the hall. One of the speakers, who talked in both English and Italian indignantly declined to give his name or the names of the other speakers. The Italians were either unable to understand the questions put to them or they had been well trained, for they stood speechless and looked in open-eyed wonder at their questioner.

The work of making the floats is being actively prosecuted. The interest in the carnival and the parades is growing daily among merchants who have now the idea that the event will not be a "fake" and may result in annual carnivals in this city. The American Central Life Insurance Company, of Indianapolis, is destined to be one of the important financial institutions of the country, and while the company is not one of the oldest, yet it has taken a place high in the rank of the insurance companies, and its name already stands for progress, reliability and prompt pay. We are permitted to publish the following let-ter in relation to the payment of the loss on the life of Richard A. Black, who died Sept. 28. The claim was paid Oct. 2, three (3) days after his death. THE PORTER'S REVENGE

BECAUSE HE WAS DISCHARGED HE ATTEMPTED MURDER.

The Police Are Looking for Emanuel Stubblefield, Who Shot John Halls.

The police are looking for Emanuel Stubblefield, colored, who is wanted for shooting, probably fatally, John Halls, colored, a saloon keeper at 527 Indiana avenue. Halls and a man named Parker bought the saloon a few days ago and employed Stubblefield as porter. It was said he did not properly perform his work and he was discharged last evening.

He waited at the front of the saloon until Halls started for supper. He then stopped Halls and after a few words drew a revolver and shot twice. One of the bullets missed Halls, and the other took effect in his abdomen. Halls was removed at once to the City Hospital, where an operation was performed, but the bullet had not been found at a late hour. It was said there was little chance of his recovering. Stubblefield ran north on Fayette street, and got away from the police. The shooting, on the street, caused a great deal of excitement and a crowd of several hunared people gathered.
