

The City's SOCIAL LIFE

Events, Gayeties and Personal Activities of the Week

When to Marry.

Marry when the year is new. Always loving, kind and true. When February birds do mate...

Some New Games.

A Book Party—About ten cards should be procured, and on each should be drawn a sketch to represent the title of a book...

The Memory Game—Provide each player with paper and pencil. One player, "collector," goes out and collects from twelve to sixteen small articles...

Adverbs—All sit around in a circle. One goes out and an adverb is selected—let us say "supremely." The outside person is called and must ask each person a question...

Miss Sartoria's Gown. New York Times. The "something old" which Miss Vivian Sartoria, daughter of Mrs. Nellie Grant Sartoria, will wear on the day she marries...

Personal and Social Notes.

A Most Phenomenal Success, THE GREATEST OF ALL Undermuslin Sales!

What is a "sale" anyway? Why through our liberal advertising and persistence can we force a three-weeks' business into one? Is it sensible to buy Muslin Underwear in a Wasson sale? We are asking questions that you ought to ask if you feel it your duty to practice sensible economy. Let's see. By months of planning we can effect certain and large economies. Very great buying is necessary else our orders would not be tempting. With vast quantities of goods owned at a less than usual price we are justified in calling this occasion a "sale"—the usual business of the store intensified.
