CZOLGOCZ IS SAFE

President McKinley is reported well in Buffalo. The officials at the hospital who have seen him are satisfied that the patient is not in any serious danger. He has not been allowed to see any visitors, and all efforts are being made to keep him quiet. The doctor in charge of the case, Dr. J. C. Shattuck, has announced that there is no change in the patient's condition, and that he is being treated with the greatest care.

LYNCH LAW ADVOCATED

A statement issued by Judge Lynch of Washington is reported to have been made in support of the Lynch law. The statement says: "The Lynch law is necessary for the protection of the white race. It is a necessary measure to prevent the growth of lawlessness and terrorism among the negroes. The negroes are a dangerous element in the South, and unless they are held in check by the threat of violence, they will continue to commit acts of violence and robbery. The Lynch law is the best means of preventing this.

PRAYERS IN NUMEROUS CHURCHES

The funeral of President McKinley was observed in many churches throughout the country. Services were held in churches in all parts of the United States, and many of the services were attended by large crowds. The President was remembered with sorrow and regret, and his memory was honored with respect and affection.

COUPLED WITH EXPRESSIONS OF SYMPATHY FOR THE STREICKEN CHIEF MAGISTRATE

The death of President McKinley was a great shock to the people of the world. The news was received with profound sorrow and regret, and the nation was plunged into mourning. The President was a great and beloved leader, and his death was a great loss to the country.

WINDSOCKS AND BULLETS ISSUED TO THE PHYSICIANS WHOSE NATURE AND AROUSED HOPES OF MCKINLEY'S UNEASY RETURN

Bullets were issued to the physicians who were present at the President's bedside in order to protect them from any attempt to assassinate him. The President had been reported to be in danger, and it was feared that some of the physicians might be killed if an attempt were made to assassinate him. The bullets were issued in order to protect the physicians and to prevent them from being injured.

ROENTGEN RAYS NOT YET UTILIZED

X-rays are not yet utilized in the case of the President. The bullet wounds are not yet known to be in the President's body, and the doctors are not yet prepared to use the roentgen rays in the examination of the President.

BALLET OF THE ASSASSIN PROBABLY INCORPORATED IN MUSCLES OF THE PRESIDENT'S BACK

The doctors are not yet certain whether the bullet wounds are in the muscles of the President's back. They are still uncertain whether the bullet wounds are in the President's body, and they are not yet prepared to say whether the bullet wounds are in the muscles of the President's back.

The President is receiving the best medical care, and he is being treated with the greatest care. The doctors are doing everything possible to save his life, and they are not yet prepared to say whether he will recover or not.