

but national banks, and that should any trust company receive government deposits the official of the company would be charged with embarking.

Charles Marquette, of Indianapolis, is in Washington on business before the United States Supreme Court.

Representative Brick returned from Indiana this morning and is receiving congratulations on his renomination.

The controller of the currency to-day approved the Columbia National Bank of Indianapolis as a reserve agent for the First National Bank of Wash.

President Roosevelt to-day nominated two Indiana nominees—Darius L. Elliott at Warren and Frank S. Miley at Matthews.

James A. Hargis, chairman of the Republican county committee of Perry county, watched the proceedings in the United States Senate for some time today.

Senator Fairbanks has received a number of petitions recommending the passage of the measure introduced by Representative Dick, chairman of the National Guard committee, which would form into a national reserve the various State militia organizations.

OBITUARY. Charles Broadway Roush, who offered $1,000,000 for Restoration of Sight.

NEW YORK, March 3.—Charles Broadway Roush died here to-day from heart failure. He was 65 years of age. He was born in Woodstock, Md., in 1836. He first engaged in business in Winchester, Va., served in the Confederate army and then came to New York in 1865. He had been in business here continuously from that time. He erected, at his own expense, a monument to dead Confederate soldiers in Mount Grove cemetery, this city, founded a physical laboratory at the University of Virginia and gave $100,000 for a Confederate monument to be located at Richmond, Va. Some years ago Mr. Roush became blind. He offered $1,000,000 to any one who could restore his sight, but the reward was never successfully claimed.

Other Deaths. WILLEMSSTAD, Island of Curacao, March 3.—Loreto Lima, the Mochist leader who was killed in the Mochist revolt, expired in the military hospital at Valencia, Venezuela.

THE HAGUE, March 3.—Franzen Vander Pape, who was minister for the exterior when the Achinese war began in 1873, is dead. He had been suffering from pneumonia.

NEW YORK, March 3.—Henry Sheldon, a well-known art connoisseur and a director of the American Bank, is dead at his home in Brooklyn.

HERO OF SOUTH AFRICA. Statue in His Honor Cast in New York—Will Stand in Halifax.

NEW YORK, March 3.—There was cast in the Henry foundry to-day what is said to be the first memorial to be erected on British soil to the memory of those who fell during battles in South Africa. The first name on its roll of honor is that of Lieut. Charles Carroll Wood, the son of Capt. J. Taylor Wood, commander of the Tallahassee, a Confederate war vessel. The latter was the nephew of Jefferson Davis and grandson of President Zachary Taylor. The memorial is a statue designed by Hamilton McCarthy, the Canadian sculptor. It will be of bronze, twelve feet high, and will weigh one and a half tons. It represents a soldier in Canadian uniform, with the "Enemy in sight." It will be unveiled in Halifax, N. S., on May 24, Queen Victoria's birthday.

WEATHER FORECAST. Cloudy and Rainy To-day—Generally Fair To-morrow.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—Forecast for Tuesday and Wednesday.

For Indiana—Cloudy on Tuesday, rain in southern portion; Wednesday generally fair; fresh north winds.

For Illinois—Cloudy with rain in southern portion; Wednesday generally fair; colder in extreme southern portion; fresh north winds.

For Ohio—Cloudy on Tuesday, probably rain or snow, warmer in southern portion; Wednesday rain or snow, colder in southern portion; fresh variable winds becoming north.

Local Observations on Monday.

Bar. Ther. RH. Wind. Weather. Precipitation. Maximum temperature, 30; minimum temperature, 19.

Comparative statement of the mean temperature and total precipitation on March 3:

Normal. Temp. Precip. Mean. Departure from normal. Departure since Jan. 1. Departure since Jan. 1.

W. T. BLYTHE, Section Director.

Stations. Min. Max. T. p. m. Abilene, Tex. 50 50 72 50

Amesbury, Mass. 48 60 58 48

Amherst, Mass. 48 60 58 48

Bismarck, N. D. 32 44 24 32

Buffalo, N. Y. 26 32 26 26

Butte, Mont. 26 32 26 26

Calgary, N. W. T. 16 28 16 16

Chattanooga, Tenn. 28 32 28 28

Chicago, Ill. 28 32 28 28

Cincinnati, O. 32 32 32 32

Cleveland, O. 28 32 28 28

THE ELKS SUSTAINED

IMPORTANT DECISION AFFECTING OPTION DEALING IN ILLINOIS.

Statute Imposing a Fine of $10 to $1,000 Upheld by the United States Supreme Court.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The United States Supreme Court to-day affirmed the decree of the Supreme Court of Illinois in the case of Alfred G. Booth vs. the State of Illinois, involving the validity of the State statute imposing a fine of from $10 to $1,000 for dealing in futures.

OPINION BY JUSTICE HARLAN. SENTENCE OF ALFRED G. BOOTH PRACTICALLY AFFIRMED.

Detroit's Three-Cent Fare Ordinance Invalid—Case of Mrs. Cordelia Botkin Dismissed.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The United States Supreme Court to-day affirmed the decree of the Supreme Court of Illinois in the case of Alfred G. Booth vs. the State of Illinois, involving the validity of the State statute imposing a fine of from $10 to $1,000 for dealing in futures.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The United States Supreme Court to-day affirmed the decree of the Supreme Court of Illinois in the case of Alfred G. Booth vs. the State of Illinois, involving the validity of the State statute imposing a fine of from $10 to $1,000 for dealing in futures.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The United States Supreme Court to-day affirmed the decree of the Supreme Court of Illinois in the case of Alfred G. Booth vs. the State of Illinois, involving the validity of the State statute imposing a fine of from $10 to $1,000 for dealing in futures.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The United States Supreme Court to-day affirmed the decree of the Supreme Court of Illinois in the case of Alfred G. Booth vs. the State of Illinois, involving the validity of the State statute imposing a fine of from $10 to $1,000 for dealing in futures.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The United States Supreme Court to-day affirmed the decree of the Supreme Court of Illinois in the case of Alfred G. Booth vs. the State of Illinois, involving the validity of the State statute imposing a fine of from $10 to $1,000 for dealing in futures.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The United States Supreme Court to-day affirmed the decree of the Supreme Court of Illinois in the case of Alfred G. Booth vs. the State of Illinois, involving the validity of the State statute imposing a fine of from $10 to $1,000 for dealing in futures.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The United States Supreme Court to-day affirmed the decree of the Supreme Court of Illinois in the case of Alfred G. Booth vs. the State of Illinois, involving the validity of the State statute imposing a fine of from $10 to $1,000 for dealing in futures.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The United States Supreme Court to-day affirmed the decree of the Supreme Court of Illinois in the case of Alfred G. Booth vs. the State of Illinois, involving the validity of the State statute imposing a fine of from $10 to $1,000 for dealing in futures.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The United States Supreme Court to-day affirmed the decree of the Supreme Court of Illinois in the case of Alfred G. Booth vs. the State of Illinois, involving the validity of the State statute imposing a fine of from $10 to $1,000 for dealing in futures.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The United States Supreme Court to-day affirmed the decree of the Supreme Court of Illinois in the case of Alfred G. Booth vs. the State of Illinois, involving the validity of the State statute imposing a fine of from $10 to $1,000 for dealing in futures.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The United States Supreme Court to-day affirmed the decree of the Supreme Court of Illinois in the case of Alfred G. Booth vs. the State of Illinois, involving the validity of the State statute imposing a fine of from $10 to $1,000 for dealing in futures.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The United States Supreme Court to-day affirmed the decree of the Supreme Court of Illinois in the case of Alfred G. Booth vs. the State of Illinois, involving the validity of the State statute imposing a fine of from $10 to $1,000 for dealing in futures.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The United States Supreme Court to-day affirmed the decree of the Supreme Court of Illinois in the case of Alfred G. Booth vs. the State of Illinois, involving the validity of the State statute imposing a fine of from $10 to $1,000 for dealing in futures.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The United States Supreme Court to-day affirmed the decree of the Supreme Court of Illinois in the case of Alfred G. Booth vs. the State of Illinois, involving the validity of the State statute imposing a fine of from $10 to $1,000 for dealing in futures.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The United States Supreme Court to-day affirmed the decree of the Supreme Court of Illinois in the case of Alfred G. Booth vs. the State of Illinois, involving the validity of the State statute imposing a fine of from $10 to $1,000 for dealing in futures.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The United States Supreme Court to-day affirmed the decree of the Supreme Court of Illinois in the case of Alfred G. Booth vs. the State of Illinois, involving the validity of the State statute imposing a fine of from $10 to $1,000 for dealing in futures.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The United States Supreme Court to-day affirmed the decree of the Supreme Court of Illinois in the case of Alfred G. Booth vs. the State of Illinois, involving the validity of the State statute imposing a fine of from $10 to $1,000 for dealing in futures.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The United States Supreme Court to-day affirmed the decree of the Supreme Court of Illinois in the case of Alfred G. Booth vs. the State of Illinois, involving the validity of the State statute imposing a fine of from $10 to $1,000 for dealing in futures.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The United States Supreme Court to-day affirmed the decree of the Supreme Court of Illinois in the case of Alfred G. Booth vs. the State of Illinois, involving the validity of the State statute imposing a fine of from $10 to $1,000 for dealing in futures.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The United States Supreme Court to-day affirmed the decree of the Supreme Court of Illinois in the case of Alfred G. Booth vs. the State of Illinois, involving the validity of the State statute imposing a fine of from $10 to $1,000 for dealing in futures.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The United States Supreme Court to-day affirmed the decree of the Supreme Court of Illinois in the case of Alfred G. Booth vs. the State of Illinois, involving the validity of the State statute imposing a fine of from $10 to $1,000 for dealing in futures.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The United States Supreme Court to-day affirmed the decree of the Supreme Court of Illinois in the case of Alfred G. Booth vs. the State of Illinois, involving the validity of the State statute imposing a fine of from $10 to $1,000 for dealing in futures.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The United States Supreme Court to-day affirmed the decree of the Supreme Court of Illinois in the case of Alfred G. Booth vs. the State of Illinois, involving the validity of the State statute imposing a fine of from $10 to $1,000 for dealing in futures.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The United States Supreme Court to-day affirmed the decree of the Supreme Court of Illinois in the case of Alfred G. Booth vs. the State of Illinois, involving the validity of the State statute imposing a fine of from $10 to $1,000 for dealing in futures.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The United States Supreme Court to-day affirmed the decree of the Supreme Court of Illinois in the case of Alfred G. Booth vs. the State of Illinois, involving the validity of the State statute imposing a fine of from $10 to $1,000 for dealing in futures.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The United States Supreme Court to-day affirmed the decree of the Supreme Court of Illinois in the case of Alfred G. Booth vs. the State of Illinois, involving the validity of the State statute imposing a fine of from $10 to $1,000 for dealing in futures.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The United States Supreme Court to-day affirmed the decree of the Supreme Court of Illinois in the case of Alfred G. Booth vs. the State of Illinois, involving the validity of the State statute imposing a fine of from $10 to $1,000 for dealing in futures.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The United States Supreme Court to-day affirmed the decree of the Supreme Court of Illinois in the case of Alfred G. Booth vs. the State of Illinois, involving the validity of the State statute imposing a fine of from $10 to $1,000 for dealing in futures.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The United States Supreme Court to-day affirmed the decree of the Supreme Court of Illinois in the case of Alfred G. Booth vs. the State of Illinois, involving the validity of the State statute imposing a fine of from $10 to $1,000 for dealing in futures.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The United States Supreme Court to-day affirmed the decree of the Supreme Court of Illinois in the case of Alfred G. Booth vs. the State of Illinois, involving the validity of the State statute imposing a fine of from $10 to $1,000 for dealing in futures.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The United States Supreme Court to-day affirmed the decree of the Supreme Court of Illinois in the case of Alfred G. Booth vs. the State of Illinois, involving the validity of the State statute imposing a fine of from $10 to $1,000 for dealing in futures.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The United States Supreme Court to-day affirmed the decree of the Supreme Court of Illinois in the case of Alfred G. Booth vs. the State of Illinois, involving the validity of the State statute imposing a fine of from $10 to $1,000 for dealing in futures.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The United States Supreme Court to-day affirmed the decree of the Supreme Court of Illinois in the case of Alfred G. Booth vs. the State of Illinois, involving the validity of the State statute imposing a fine of from $10 to $1,000 for dealing in futures.

SIX ROUNDS TO A DRAW.

Benny Yanger and "Kid" Broad in a Stiff Bout at Chicago.

CHICAGO, March 3.—Benny Yanger, of Chicago, and "Kid" Broad, of Cleveland, fought six rounds to a draw to-night at the American Club. Yanger was in trouble during the last round, and Referee Hogan's decision was hissed. The fight was fast round after round.

Yanger was knocked down in the fourth round by a left hook. He was up in an instant, and a fierce misap followed. Although neither was punished to any great extent, Broad got down to work in the next round, and after reaching Yanger with a few stiff lefts, the latter began to hang on in the clinches.

Broad scored several times without a return and had the best of a hot rally at the close of the round. Broad landed a right on the last round that Yanger was kept busy clinching in order to escape defeat. Broad tried hard to get in a knockout, and although he landed at least a dozen swings on Yanger's jaw, the little Italian was in such good condition that he managed to last to the end of the contest.

Mike Schreck, of Cincinnati, "outsung" Henry Kelly, a local singer, at the end of six rounds. In the preliminary "Kid" Goodman, of Boston, knocked out Al Fellows, of Chicago, in two rounds.

O'Brien is Fighting at Home. PHILADELPHIA, March 3.—"Philadelphia" Jack O'Brien, the pugilist, made his first public appearance in America to-night since his recent successful tour of England, where he defeated all comers in the middle and heavy weight class. At the Pennsylvania Athletic Club he has his opponent Andy Watson, of Brooklyn, who was clearly outclassed. Early in the third round O'Brien had Welsh in such a helpless condition that he was obliged to stop punches that the referee stopped the fight.

A "Yank" Whips a Briton. LONDON, March 3.—At White Chapel to-night "Sandy" Ferguson, of Boston, easily defeated "Ben" Taylor, of London, in a ten-round contest for the heavyweight championship of England and a prize of £150.

Decision Over Sanchez. MILWAUKEE, Wis., March 3.—Danny Duane, of New York, was given the decision over Emil Sanchez, of Cuba, before the Milwaukee Boxing Club to-night.

ELKS MAKE HIGH SCORES. But Other Fraternal Teams Were Out of Form.

The Elks were the only bowlers in the Fraternal bowling tournament to-night to roll three high scores, but they lost the first game to the Knights of Pythias team. The Buffaloes won two from the Royal Leagues. The other games resulted small scores.

PATRIARCHS VS. K. O. T. M. (Marion Alleys). PATRIARCHS. K. O. T. M. Heller 114 174 194

CONKIN 112 134 144 BOWERS 138 131 111

WATSON 142 142 142 BERND 134 138 133

POHNER 115 109 114 FORD 127 116 105

BAKER 115 109 114 FORD 127 116 105 KEELER 137 149 131

TOTALS 675 876 609 I. O. R. M. VS. I. O. O. F. (Marion Alleys).

I. O. R. M. I. O. O. F. L. A. R. T. 151 123 141 Sax 118 156 138

G. STOBLE 138 140 141 HILL 111 116 117

E. B. L. 110 103 109 BUCK 107 116 116

TEAGUE 142 138 141 BERND 134 138 133

POHNER 115 109 114 FORD 127 116 105

BAKER 115 109 114 FORD 127 116 105 KEELER 137 149 131

TOTALS 869 799 727 BUFFALOES VS. ROYAL LEAGUES. (City Club Alleys).

BUFFALOES. ROYAL LEAGUE. N. D. GOLF 109 107 ANDRADA 114 113

H. A. GOLF 101 103 103 BUCK 107 116 116

H. A. GOLF 101 103 103 BUCK 107 116 116

H. A. GOLF 101 103 103 BUCK 107 116 116

H. A. GOLF 101 103 103 BUCK 107 116 116

H. A. GOLF 101 103 103 BUCK 107 116 116

H. A. GOLF 101 103 103 BUCK 107 116 116

H. A. GOLF 101 103 103 BUCK 107 116 116

H. A. GOLF 101 103 103 BUCK 107 116 116

H. A. GOLF 101 103 103 BUCK 107 116 116

H. A. GOLF 101 103 103 BUCK 107 116 116

H. A. GOLF 101 103 103 BUCK 107 116 116

H. A. GOLF 101 103 103 BUCK 107 116 116

H. A. GOLF 101 103 103 BUCK 107 116 116

H. A. GOLF 101 103 103 BUCK 107 116 116

DECIDES TO DENY

GERMANY NOT SEEKING SPECIAL CONCESSIONS IN CHINA.

Authoritative Announcement of Policy by Chancellor Von Buelow in the Reichstag.

ALSO A REPLY TO SOCIALISTS WHO RIDICULED PRINCE HENRY'S VISIT TO THE UNITED STATES.

Whole World Informed that Germany is Merely Seeking Continuation of Our Good Will.

BERLIN, March 3.—In the course of the budget discussion in the Reichstag to-day, the imperial chancellor, Von Buelow, in reply to questions raised by the vote asked for to maintain the German troops in China said Germany had only economic and not territorial interests in China and Korea, and would not interfere in the quarrels of others.

So far as Germany knew, the only effect of the Anglo-Japanese convention was to maintain the status quo. Therefore it did not prejudice German interests and did not affect the Anglo-German Yangtze valley agreement. Germany only desired the open door. The telegram from Peking, published in London declaring that Germany sought special concessions in China was a caricature. Germany secured railroad concessions in Shan-Tung provinces in 1899 and she had no desire to acquire more than she could digest. Germany was not consulted before the conclusion of the Anglo-Japanese convention. The German government had been notified of the birth thereof, but it was its notified duty to remain silent.

The situation in the Far East was the water situation allowed this to be done, but the premature recall of the troops and the German withdrawal from the situation, as she had no base near China like the other powers. The vote was adopted.

Chancellor Von Buelow, in reply to the visit of Prince Henry to the United States, said he was glad to see it had frustrated the idea of an Anglo-German understanding, but that the German element in the United States was very generous to expect any improvement in the relations between Germany and the United States to result from such a journey.

Herr Gradnauer, Socialist-Democrat, ridiculed the idea of an Anglo-German understanding, but that the German element in the United States was very generous to expect any improvement in the relations between Germany and the United States to result from such a journey.

Herr Gradnauer, Socialist-Democrat, ridiculed the idea of an Anglo-German understanding, but that the German element in the United States was very generous to expect any improvement in the relations between Germany and the United States to result from such a journey.

Herr Gradnauer, Socialist-Democrat, ridiculed the idea of an Anglo-German understanding, but that the German element in the United States was very generous to expect any improvement in the relations between Germany and the United States to result from such a journey.

Herr Gradnauer, Socialist-Democrat, ridiculed the idea of an Anglo-German understanding, but that the German element in the United States was very generous to expect any improvement in the relations between Germany and the United States to result from such a journey.

Herr Gradnauer, Socialist-Democrat, ridiculed the idea of an Anglo-German understanding, but that the German element in the United States was very generous to expect any improvement in the relations between Germany and the United States to result from such a journey.

Herr Gradnauer, Socialist-Democrat, ridiculed the idea of an Anglo-German understanding, but that the German element in the United States was very generous to expect any improvement in the relations between Germany and the United States to result from such a journey.

Herr Gradnauer, Socialist-Democrat, ridiculed the idea of an Anglo-German understanding, but that the German element in the United States was very generous to expect any improvement in the relations between Germany and the United States to result from such a journey.

Herr Gradnauer, Socialist-Democrat, ridiculed the idea of an Anglo-German understanding, but that the German element in the United States was very generous to expect any improvement in the relations between Germany and the United States to result from such a journey.

Herr Gradnauer, Socialist-Democrat, ridiculed the idea of an Anglo-German understanding, but that the German element in the United States was very generous to expect any improvement in the relations between Germany and the United States to result from such a journey.

Herr Gradnauer, Socialist-Democrat, ridiculed the idea of an Anglo-German understanding, but that the German element in the United States was very generous to expect any improvement in the relations between Germany and the United States to result from such a journey.

Herr Gradnauer, Socialist-Democrat, ridiculed the idea of an Anglo-German understanding, but that the German element in the United States was very generous to expect any improvement in the relations between Germany and the United States to result from such a journey.

Herr Gradnauer, Socialist-Democrat, ridiculed the idea of an Anglo-German understanding, but that the German element in the United States was very generous to expect any improvement in the relations between Germany and the United States to result from such a journey.

Herr Gradnauer, Socialist-Democrat, ridiculed the idea of an Anglo-German understanding, but that the German element in the United States was very generous to expect any improvement in the relations between Germany and the United States to result from such a journey.

Herr Gradnauer, Socialist-Democrat, ridiculed the idea of an Anglo-German understanding, but that the German element in the United States was very generous to expect any improvement in the relations between Germany and the United States to result from such a journey.

Herr Gradnauer, Socialist-Democrat, ridiculed the idea of an Anglo-German understanding, but that the German element in the United States was very generous to expect any improvement in the relations between Germany and the United States to result from such a journey.

Herr Gradnauer, Socialist-Democrat, ridiculed the idea of an Anglo-German understanding, but that the German element in the United States was very generous to expect any improvement in the relations between Germany and the United States to result from such a journey.

Herr Gradnauer, Socialist-Democrat, ridiculed the idea of an Anglo-German understanding, but that the German element in the United States was very generous to expect any improvement in the relations between Germany and the United States to result from such a journey.

Herr Gradnauer, Socialist-Democrat, ridiculed the idea of an Anglo-German understanding, but that the German element in the United States was very generous to expect any improvement in the relations between Germany and the United States to result from such a journey.

Herr Gradnauer, Socialist-Democrat, ridiculed the idea of an Anglo-German understanding, but that the German element in the United States was very generous to expect any improvement in the relations between Germany and the United States to result from such a journey.

Herr Gradnauer, Socialist-Democrat, ridiculed the idea of an Anglo-German understanding, but that the German element in the United States was very generous to expect any improvement in the relations between Germany and the United States to result from such a journey.

Herr Gradnauer, Socialist-Democrat, ridiculed the idea of an Anglo-German understanding, but that the German element in the United States was very generous to expect any improvement in the relations between Germany and the United States to result from such a journey.

Herr Gradnauer, Socialist-Democrat, ridiculed the idea of an Anglo-German understanding, but that the German element in the United States was very generous to expect any improvement in the relations between Germany and the United States to result from such a journey.

Herr Gradnauer, Socialist-Democrat, ridiculed the idea of an Anglo-German understanding, but that the German element in the United States was very generous to expect any improvement in the relations between Germany and the United States to result from such a journey.

Herr Gradnauer, Socialist-Democrat, ridiculed the idea of an Anglo-German understanding, but that the German element in the United States was very generous to expect any improvement in the relations between Germany and the United States to result from such a journey.

Herr Gradnauer, Socialist-Democrat, ridiculed the idea of an Anglo-German understanding, but that the German element in the United States was very generous to expect any improvement in the relations between Germany and the United States to result from such a journey.

Herr Gradnauer, Socialist-Democrat, ridiculed the idea of an Anglo-German understanding, but that the German element in the United States was very generous to expect any improvement in the relations between Germany and the United States to result from such a journey.

Herr Gradnauer, Socialist-Democrat, ridiculed the idea of an Anglo-German understanding, but that the German element in the United States was very generous to expect any improvement in the relations between Germany and the United States to result from such a journey.

Herr Gradnauer, Socialist-Democrat, ridiculed the idea of an Anglo-German understanding, but that the German element in the United States was very generous to expect any improvement in the relations between Germany and the United States to result from such a journey.

Herr Gradnauer, Socialist-Democrat, ridiculed the idea of an Anglo-German understanding, but that the German element in the United States was very generous to expect any improvement in the relations between Germany and the United States to result from such a journey.

Herr Gradnauer, Socialist-Democrat, ridiculed the idea of an Anglo-German understanding, but that the German element in the United States was very generous to expect any improvement in the relations between Germany and the United States to result from such a journey.

Ten Years of Blessed Work and Glorious Victories

Paine's Celery Compound

Has Brought Health and New Life to the Sick and Diseased in Every Part of the Civilized World.

For the last ten years the work of Paine's Celery Compound has been a blessed and cheering one to men and women of every rank in society. In no case has the great medicine failed to benefit, and where it has been used promptly it has in every case brought a cure.

The blessed results that spring from the use of Paine's Celery Compound are not confined to this land of ours. The great life-giving medicine has been sent to every quarter of the civilized world, and has cured the sick, restored the weak and depressed to health and strength, and caused tens of thousands to live who failed to find health in worthless prescriptions, arsenicals, narcotics and pills. Paine's Celery Compound has cured when all other remedies have failed.

It is to this best of all medicines, Paine's Celery Compound, that we would direct the attention of every man and woman suffering from weakness, general debility, rheumatism,