

FEEL AS IF KILLED

workmen and has always been operated by workmen. The plant will be overhauled and rebuilt during the summer vacation.

WIFE OF A DANVILLE BANKER SUFFERED A FATAL ACCIDENT.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. DANVILLE, Ind., June 30.—A convention has been called by the Independent Window Glass Workers' Union to meet in Cleveland, O., July 7, and delegates are being elected in all the factories controlled by that association.

THREW HIMSELF BEFORE A TRAIN.

Demented Man Who Had Been Arrested at Hartford City. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

KILLED BY A PASSENGER TRAIN

DANVILLE, Ind., June 30.—Mrs. Joseph W. Ferris was almost instantly killed Sunday night by falling down the cellar stairs at her home. She was the daughter of the late William N. Crabb and the wife of Joseph W. Ferris, of the banking firm of Parker, Crabb & Co.

DEMENTED GLASS WORKER WHO THREW HIMSELF BEFORE IT.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. DANVILLE, Ind., June 30.—Sunday night the officers took into custody a stranger who for several hours stood leaning on the hitch rack in the drenching rain. Every once in a while he would drink from the horse trough. He was found to be demented and was placed in jail. He gave his name as Joseph Winters, and his residence as a window-glass maker.

Patriarchs Militant Meeting—Suff Out Fighting Franchise—Herbert Murder Trial—Death Record.

A trap door covered the entrance to the cellar. A person going to the bathroom had to pass over the door. Whether Mrs. Ferris slipped or fell is not known. She never regained consciousness and died within an hour.

Wounded His Father-in-Law.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. ELWOOD, Ind., June 30.—Arthur Walker, a crippled news agent who has been in Police Court on various charges at different times in the past few years, was wounded today on a charge of assault with intent to kill. Sunday evening Walker became involved in a quarrel with his father-in-law, John Carroll, on the street. Walker drew a revolver and fired three times at Carroll while standing within a few feet of him. One bullet took effect in the mouth and another in the ear. Carroll is thought, will recover, and it is said that he will not prosecute the case. Walker was fined $500 bond, which he furnished.

Says He Shot in Self-Defense.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MARTINSVILLE, Ind., June 30.—Archie Wade, who for some time has been here on Sunday evening, came to this city this afternoon and surrendered to the sheriff. Wade is still alive and there is hope for his recovery. Wade was fined $100 in default of which he will go to jail. Wade was shot in the back of the head by a man named Owens in a fight.

Injured in a Small Week.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. RICHMOND, Ind., June 30.—Six men in the employ of the Forepaugh-Sells circus, members of the first advertising crew, were injured in a small wreck on the Panhandle Saturday night while en route to Richmond from Piqua, O. They came on to this city in their car, which was badly damaged by a truck on the highway. While none of the men is seriously injured, they will not be able for duty for several days. The Pennsylvania took the matter of settlement up promptly, and all the injured received satisfactory remuneration.

Caught by a Belt and Killed.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. FORTVILLE, Ind., June 30.—Ora Eberhart, an employe of the Grassell Chemical Company, was instantly killed at 5 o'clock this evening. He was caught by a belt and his head was crushed against a pulley. He was twenty-six years old and left a widow and young child.

Child Took Poison by Mistake.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. KOKOMO, Ind., June 30.—Last night the eight-year-old daughter of Charles Sweet, drank a quantity of carbolic acid. The child had been taking medicine and by mistake took the wrong bottle. She may recover.

Killed by a Switch Engine.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. FERRIS, Ind., June 30.—Charles Moran, aged sixty-seven, was run over and instantly killed to-night by a Lake Erie & Western switch engine which was backing at the station.

Patriarchs Militant.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LOGANSPORT, Ind., June 30.—The ninth annual encampment of the Fifth Regiment of the Patriarchs Militant, I. O. O. F., will be held in Logansport on July 3-5. There are five companies in the regiment, including the River No. 7, of North Manchester; Logansport, No. 15; Logansport; Excelsior, No. 18; Lafayette; Wabash, No. 19; Wabash, and Peru, No. 20. The encampment will be held in Spencer Park, where there is ample space for the tents of the regiment. The Patriarchs Militant will contribute to the success of the meeting.

Fifth Regiment Encampment Will Open at Logansport on Thursday.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LOGANSPORT, Ind., June 30.—The ninth annual encampment of the Fifth Regiment of the Patriarchs Militant, I. O. O. F., will be held in Logansport on July 3-5. There are five companies in the regiment, including the River No. 7, of North Manchester; Logansport, No. 15; Logansport; Excelsior, No. 18; Lafayette; Wabash, No. 19; Wabash, and Peru, No. 20. The encampment will be held in Spencer Park, where there is ample space for the tents of the regiment. The Patriarchs Militant will contribute to the success of the meeting.

Plate Glass Plant Closes.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. KOKOMO, Ind., June 30.—The Kokomo plant of the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company closed to-night for thirty days. This is the first shut-down since the factory started twelve years ago. The operatives and tableware works also will bank their fires. Six hundred glass workers will be idle until the plants resume.

Strike Trouble Spreads to Clinton.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. CLINTON, Ind., June 30.—The merchants and the labor unions of Clinton have become involved over the questions arising from the Terre Haute strike. The factory followed the example of the Terre Haute merchants and decided to ignore it. They were asked to boycott the Terre Haute merchants who joined the Merchants' Protective Association, and refused.

Plant Closed for the Summer.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. DANVILLE, Ind., June 30.—The Diamond Flint Glass Company closed its plant here to-day for the annual summer shut-down. This concern has operated during the entire blast with union men and made money, notwithstanding the present year has been one of the worst ever experienced in the industry. The controlling interest in the concern is owned by the Stewart Drug Company, of Indianapolis. The factory employs two hundred

Anderson Eagles' Carnival.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. ANDERSON, Ind., June 30.—The streets of the city are gaily decorated in honor of the Eagles' carnival, opened to-day by Anderson Aerie, No. 174. The week's festivities were opened this afternoon by a parade a mile long. Occupying a prominent position in the procession was the Indianapolis Aerie, headed by a band and numbering over a hundred. Will Sells received the first prize for the most artistically decorated rig. The Indianapolis aerie returned to-night on special Indianapolis cars.

Big Parade Opens the Week's Entertainment—Indianapolis Aerie.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. ANDERSON, Ind., June 30.—The streets of the city are gaily decorated in honor of the Eagles' carnival, opened to-day by Anderson Aerie, No. 174. The week's festivities were opened this afternoon by a parade a mile long. Occupying a prominent position in the procession was the Indianapolis Aerie, headed by a band and numbering over a hundred. Will Sells received the first prize for the most artistically decorated rig. The Indianapolis aerie returned to-night on special Indianapolis cars.

Seven Days of Silence.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. SOUTH BEND, Ind., June 30.—The annual retreat for the congregation of Holy Cross began at Notre Dame last night and will last seven days. During the time the hundreds who are present will rise and pray until sunset, maintaining strict silence all the time. The Rev. F. R. Yeomans, of Indiana, is in charge of the retreat.

Divorced and Married in an Hour.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. EVANSVILLE, Ind., June 30.—This afternoon Henry Brutscher and Miss Mary Kahn were married. An hour before Brutscher was divorced from his first wife. He is a retired business man of this city.

Arraigned for Stealing Horses.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LAFAVETTE, Ind., June 30.—Samuel P. Hunter was brought to this city from Brazil yesterday and arraigned this morning in the Circuit Court charged with stealing eight horses from the livery of O. T. Goddard, at Clark's Hill, several weeks ago. Goddard sold the livery to Hunter, the latter agreeing to pay $500 in cash and to give $2,000 mortgage on the place. Hunter asked for a few days to raise the $500, and the next night, it is alleged, he took all the stock from the barn and left it for parts unknown. The livery was owned by Deputy Sheriff Foreman and found him in the act of posting bills announcing an auction sale of the horses. Hunter was arrested by Mort Casby, a partner of Hunter's, who was arrested for complicity in the deed and both are in jail. Hunter is charged with the sum of $500, as fixed by the court. The charge is grand larceny.

Wounded His Father-in-Law.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. ELWOOD, Ind., June 30.—Arthur Walker, a crippled news agent who has been in Police Court on various charges at different times in the past few years, was wounded today on a charge of assault with intent to kill. Sunday evening Walker became involved in a quarrel with his father-in-law, John Carroll, on the street. Walker drew a revolver and fired three times at Carroll while standing within a few feet of him. One bullet took effect in the mouth and another in the ear. Carroll is thought, will recover, and it is said that he will not prosecute the case. Walker was fined $500 bond, which he furnished.

Says He Shot in Self-Defense.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MARTINSVILLE, Ind., June 30.—Archie Wade, who for some time has been here on Sunday evening, came to this city this afternoon and surrendered to the sheriff. Wade is still alive and there is hope for his recovery. Wade was fined $100 in default of which he will go to jail. Wade was shot in the back of the head by a man named Owens in a fight.

Injured in a Small Week.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. RICHMOND, Ind., June 30.—Six men in the employ of the Forepaugh-Sells circus, members of the first advertising crew, were injured in a small wreck on the Panhandle Saturday night while en route to Richmond from Piqua, O. They came on to this city in their car, which was badly damaged by a truck on the highway. While none of the men is seriously injured, they will not be able for duty for several days. The Pennsylvania took the matter of settlement up promptly, and all the injured received satisfactory remuneration.

Caught by a Belt and Killed.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. FORTVILLE, Ind., June 30.—Ora Eberhart, an employe of the Grassell Chemical Company, was instantly killed at 5 o'clock this evening. He was caught by a belt and his head was crushed against a pulley. He was twenty-six years old and left a widow and young child.

Child Took Poison by Mistake.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. KOKOMO, Ind., June 30.—Last night the eight-year-old daughter of Charles Sweet, drank a quantity of carbolic acid. The child had been taking medicine and by mistake took the wrong bottle. She may recover.

Killed by a Switch Engine.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. FERRIS, Ind., June 30.—Charles Moran, aged sixty-seven, was run over and instantly killed to-night by a Lake Erie & Western switch engine which was backing at the station.

Patriarchs Militant.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LOGANSPORT, Ind., June 30.—The ninth annual encampment of the Fifth Regiment of the Patriarchs Militant, I. O. O. F., will be held in Logansport on July 3-5. There are five companies in the regiment, including the River No. 7, of North Manchester; Logansport, No. 15; Logansport; Excelsior, No. 18; Lafayette; Wabash, No. 19; Wabash, and Peru, No. 20. The encampment will be held in Spencer Park, where there is ample space for the tents of the regiment. The Patriarchs Militant will contribute to the success of the meeting.

Plate Glass Plant Closes.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. KOKOMO, Ind., June 30.—The Kokomo plant of the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company closed to-night for thirty days. This is the first shut-down since the factory started twelve years ago. The operatives and tableware works also will bank their fires. Six hundred glass workers will be idle until the plants resume.

Strike Trouble Spreads to Clinton.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. CLINTON, Ind., June 30.—The merchants and the labor unions of Clinton have become involved over the questions arising from the Terre Haute strike. The factory followed the example of the Terre Haute merchants and decided to ignore it. They were asked to boycott the Terre Haute merchants who joined the Merchants' Protective Association, and refused.

Plant Closed for the Summer.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. DANVILLE, Ind., June 30.—The Diamond Flint Glass Company closed its plant here to-day for the annual summer shut-down. This concern has operated during the entire blast with union men and made money, notwithstanding the present year has been one of the worst ever experienced in the industry. The controlling interest in the concern is owned by the Stewart Drug Company, of Indianapolis. The factory employs two hundred

Anderson Eagles' Carnival.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. ANDERSON, Ind., June 30.—The streets of the city are gaily decorated in honor of the Eagles' carnival, opened to-day by Anderson Aerie, No. 174. The week's festivities were opened this afternoon by a parade a mile long. Occupying a prominent position in the procession was the Indianapolis Aerie, headed by a band and numbering over a hundred. Will Sells received the first prize for the most artistically decorated rig. The Indianapolis aerie returned to-night on special Indianapolis cars.

Big Parade Opens the Week's Entertainment—Indianapolis Aerie.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. ANDERSON, Ind., June 30.—The streets of the city are gaily decorated in honor of the Eagles' carnival, opened to-day by Anderson Aerie, No. 174. The week's festivities were opened this afternoon by a parade a mile long. Occupying a prominent position in the procession was the Indianapolis Aerie, headed by a band and numbering over a hundred. Will Sells received the first prize for the most artistically decorated rig. The Indianapolis aerie returned to-night on special Indianapolis cars.

Seven Days of Silence.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. SOUTH BEND, Ind., June 30.—The annual retreat for the congregation of Holy Cross began at Notre Dame last night and will last seven days. During the time the hundreds who are present will rise and pray until sunset, maintaining strict silence all the time. The Rev. F. R. Yeomans, of Indiana, is in charge of the retreat.

Divorced and Married in an Hour.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. EVANSVILLE, Ind., June 30.—This afternoon Henry Brutscher and Miss Mary Kahn were married. An hour before Brutscher was divorced from his first wife. He is a retired business man of this city.

Arraigned for Stealing Horses.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LAFAVETTE, Ind., June 30.—Samuel P. Hunter was brought to this city from Brazil yesterday and arraigned this morning in the Circuit Court charged with stealing eight horses from the livery of O. T. Goddard, at Clark's Hill, several weeks ago. Goddard sold the livery to Hunter, the latter agreeing to pay $500 in cash and to give $2,000 mortgage on the place. Hunter asked for a few days to raise the $500, and the next night, it is alleged, he took all the stock from the barn and left it for parts unknown. The livery was owned by Deputy Sheriff Foreman and found him in the act of posting bills announcing an auction sale of the horses. Hunter was arrested by Mort Casby, a partner of Hunter's, who was arrested for complicity in the deed and both are in jail. Hunter is charged with the sum of $500, as fixed by the court. The charge is grand larceny.

Wounded His Father-in-Law.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. ELWOOD, Ind., June 30.—Arthur Walker, a crippled news agent who has been in Police Court on various charges at different times in the past few years, was wounded today on a charge of assault with intent to kill. Sunday evening Walker became involved in a quarrel with his father-in-law, John Carroll, on the street. Walker drew a revolver and fired three times at Carroll while standing within a few feet of him. One bullet took effect in the mouth and another in the ear. Carroll is thought, will recover, and it is said that he will not prosecute the case. Walker was fined $500 bond, which he furnished.

Says He Shot in Self-Defense.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MARTINSVILLE, Ind., June 30.—Archie Wade, who for some time has been here on Sunday evening, came to this city this afternoon and surrendered to the sheriff. Wade is still alive and there is hope for his recovery. Wade was fined $100 in default of which he will go to jail. Wade was shot in the back of the head by a man named Owens in a fight.

Injured in a Small Week.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. RICHMOND, Ind., June 30.—Six men in the employ of the Forepaugh-Sells circus, members of the first advertising crew, were injured in a small wreck on the Panhandle Saturday night while en route to Richmond from Piqua, O. They came on to this city in their car, which was badly damaged by a truck on the highway. While none of the men is seriously injured, they will not be able for duty for several days. The Pennsylvania took the matter of settlement up promptly, and all the injured received satisfactory remuneration.

Caught by a Belt and Killed.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. FORTVILLE, Ind., June 30.—Ora Eberhart, an employe of the Grassell Chemical Company, was instantly killed at 5 o'clock this evening. He was caught by a belt and his head was crushed against a pulley. He was twenty-six years old and left a widow and young child.

Child Took Poison by Mistake.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. KOKOMO, Ind., June 30.—Last night the eight-year-old daughter of Charles Sweet, drank a quantity of carbolic acid. The child had been taking medicine and by mistake took the wrong bottle. She may recover.

Killed by a Switch Engine.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. FERRIS, Ind., June 30.—Charles Moran, aged sixty-seven, was run over and instantly killed to-night by a Lake Erie & Western switch engine which was backing at the station.

Patriarchs Militant.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LOGANSPORT, Ind., June 30.—The ninth annual encampment of the Fifth Regiment of the Patriarchs Militant, I. O. O. F., will be held in Logansport on July 3-5. There are five companies in the regiment, including the River No. 7, of North Manchester; Logansport, No. 15; Logansport; Excelsior, No. 18; Lafayette; Wabash, No. 19; Wabash, and Peru, No. 20. The encampment will be held in Spencer Park, where there is ample space for the tents of the regiment. The Patriarchs Militant will contribute to the success of the meeting.

Plate Glass Plant Closes.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. KOKOMO, Ind., June 30.—The Kokomo plant of the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company closed to-night for thirty days. This is the first shut-down since the factory started twelve years ago. The operatives and tableware works also will bank their fires. Six hundred glass workers will be idle until the plants resume.

Strike Trouble Spreads to Clinton.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. CLINTON, Ind., June 30.—The merchants and the labor unions of Clinton have become involved over the questions arising from the Terre Haute strike. The factory followed the example of the Terre Haute merchants and decided to ignore it. They were asked to boycott the Terre Haute merchants who joined the Merchants' Protective Association, and refused.

Plant Closed for the Summer.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. DANVILLE, Ind., June 30.—The Diamond Flint Glass Company closed its plant here to-day for the annual summer shut-down. This concern has operated during the entire blast with union men and made money, notwithstanding the present year has been one of the worst ever experienced in the industry. The controlling interest in the concern is owned by the Stewart Drug Company, of Indianapolis. The factory employs two hundred

Wants His Leg Embalmed.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. FORT WAYNE, Ind., June 30.—Valentine Weisenberger, an aged laborer, who submitted to an operation for the removal of one of his legs, has asked that the leg be embalmed and kept until his death. The county will not bury the leg until the operation and says he wants the leg preserved so he can be buried all together.

Seven Days of Silence.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. SOUTH BEND, Ind., June 30.—The annual retreat for the congregation of Holy Cross began at Notre Dame last night and will last seven days. During the time the hundreds who are present will rise and pray until sunset, maintaining strict silence all the time. The Rev. F. R. Yeomans, of Indiana, is in charge of the retreat.

Divorced and Married in an Hour.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. EVANSVILLE, Ind., June 30.—This afternoon Henry Brutscher and Miss Mary Kahn were married. An hour before Brutscher was divorced from his first wife. He is a retired business man of this city.

Arraigned for Stealing Horses.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LAFAVETTE, Ind., June 30.—Samuel P. Hunter was brought to this city from Brazil yesterday and arraigned this morning in the Circuit Court charged with stealing eight horses from the livery of O. T. Goddard, at Clark's Hill, several weeks ago. Goddard sold the livery to Hunter, the latter agreeing to pay $500 in cash and to give $2,000 mortgage on the place. Hunter asked for a few days to raise the $500, and the next night, it is alleged, he took all the stock from the barn and left it for parts unknown. The livery was owned by Deputy Sheriff Foreman and found him in the act of posting bills announcing an auction sale of the horses. Hunter was arrested by Mort Casby, a partner of Hunter's, who was arrested for complicity in the deed and both are in jail. Hunter is charged with the sum of $500, as fixed by the court. The charge is grand larceny.

Wounded His Father-in-Law.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. ELWOOD, Ind., June 30.—Arthur Walker, a crippled news agent who has been in Police Court on various charges at different times in the past few years, was wounded today on a charge of assault with intent to kill. Sunday evening Walker became involved in a quarrel with his father-in-law, John Carroll, on the street. Walker drew a revolver and fired three times at Carroll while standing within a few feet of him. One bullet took effect in the mouth and another in the ear. Carroll is thought, will recover, and it is said that he will not prosecute the case. Walker was fined $500 bond, which he furnished.

Says He Shot in Self-Defense.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MARTINSVILLE, Ind., June 30.—Archie Wade, who for some time has been here on Sunday evening, came to this city this afternoon and surrendered to the sheriff. Wade is still alive and there is hope for his recovery. Wade was fined $100 in default of which he will go to jail. Wade was shot in the back of the head by a man named Owens in a fight.

Injured in a Small Week.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. RICHMOND, Ind., June 30.—Six men in the employ of the Forepaugh-Sells circus, members of the first advertising crew, were injured in a small wreck on the Panhandle Saturday night while en route to Richmond from Piqua, O. They came on to this city in their car, which was badly damaged by a truck on the highway. While none of the men is seriously injured, they will not be able for duty for several days. The Pennsylvania took the matter of settlement up promptly, and all the injured received satisfactory remuneration.

Caught by a Belt and Killed.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. FORTVILLE, Ind., June 30.—Ora Eberhart, an employe of the Grassell Chemical Company, was instantly killed at 5 o'clock this evening. He was caught by a belt and his head was crushed against a pulley. He was twenty-six years old and left a widow and young child.

Child Took Poison by Mistake.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. KOKOMO, Ind., June 30.—Last night the eight-year-old daughter of Charles Sweet, drank a quantity of carbolic acid. The child had been taking medicine and by mistake took the wrong bottle. She may recover.

Killed by a Switch Engine.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. FERRIS, Ind., June 30.—Charles Moran, aged sixty-seven, was run over and instantly killed to-night by a Lake Erie & Western switch engine which was backing at the station.

Patriarchs Militant.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LOGANSPORT, Ind., June 30.—The ninth annual encampment of the Fifth Regiment of the Patriarchs Militant, I. O. O. F., will be held in Logansport on July 3-5. There are five companies in the regiment, including the River No. 7, of North Manchester; Logansport, No. 15; Logansport; Excelsior, No. 18; Lafayette; Wabash, No. 19; Wabash, and Peru, No. 20. The encampment will be held in Spencer Park, where there is ample space for the tents of the regiment. The Patriarchs Militant will contribute to the success of the meeting.

Plate Glass Plant Closes.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. KOKOMO, Ind., June 30.—The Kokomo plant of the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company closed to-night for thirty days. This is the first shut-down since the factory started twelve years ago. The operatives and tableware works also will bank their fires. Six hundred glass workers will be idle until the plants resume.

Strike Trouble Spreads to Clinton.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. CLINTON, Ind., June 30.—The merchants and the labor unions of Clinton have become involved over the questions arising from the Terre Haute strike. The factory followed the example of the Terre Haute merchants and decided to ignore it. They were asked to boycott the Terre Haute merchants who joined the Merchants' Protective Association, and refused.

Plant Closed for the Summer.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. DANVILLE, Ind., June 30.—The Diamond Flint Glass Company closed its plant here to-day for the annual summer shut-down. This concern has operated during the entire blast with union men and made money, notwithstanding the present year has been one of the worst ever experienced in the industry. The controlling interest in the concern is owned by the Stewart Drug Company, of Indianapolis. The factory employs two hundred

Wants His Leg Embalmed.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. FORT WAYNE, Ind., June 30.—Valentine Weisenberger, an aged laborer, who submitted to an operation for the removal of one of his legs, has asked that the leg be embalmed and kept until his death. The county will not bury the leg until the operation and says he wants the leg preserved so he can be buried all together.

Seven Days of Silence.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. SOUTH BEND, Ind., June 30.—The annual retreat for the congregation of Holy Cross began at Notre Dame last night and will last seven days. During the time the hundreds who are present will rise and pray until sunset, maintaining strict silence all the time. The Rev. F. R. Yeomans, of Indiana, is in charge of the retreat.

Divorced and Married in an Hour.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. EVANSVILLE, Ind., June 30.—This afternoon Henry Brutscher and Miss Mary Kahn were married. An hour before Brutscher was divorced from his first wife. He is a retired business man of this city.

Arraigned for Stealing Horses.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LAFAVETTE, Ind., June 30.—Samuel P. Hunter was brought to this city from Brazil yesterday and arraigned this morning in the Circuit Court charged with stealing eight horses from the livery of O. T. Goddard, at Clark's Hill, several weeks ago. Goddard sold the livery to Hunter, the latter agreeing to pay $500 in cash and to give $2,000 mortgage on the place. Hunter asked for a few days to raise the $500, and the next night, it is alleged, he took all the stock from the barn and left it for parts unknown. The livery was owned by Deputy Sheriff Foreman and found him in the act of posting bills announcing an auction sale of the horses. Hunter was arrested by Mort Casby, a partner of Hunter's, who was arrested for complicity in the deed and both are in jail. Hunter is charged with the sum of $500, as fixed by the court. The charge is grand larceny.

Wounded His Father-in-Law.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. ELWOOD, Ind., June 30.—Arthur Walker, a crippled news agent who has been in Police Court on various charges at different times in the past few years, was wounded today on a charge of assault with intent to kill. Sunday evening Walker became involved in a quarrel with his father-in-law, John Carroll, on the street. Walker drew a revolver and fired three times at Carroll while standing within a few feet of him. One bullet took effect in the mouth and another in the ear. Carroll is thought, will recover, and it is said that he will not prosecute the case. Walker was fined $500 bond, which he furnished.

Says He Shot in Self-Defense.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MARTINSVILLE, Ind., June 30.—Archie Wade, who for some time has been here on Sunday evening, came to this city this afternoon and surrendered to the sheriff. Wade is still alive and there is hope for his recovery. Wade was fined $100 in default of which he will go to jail. Wade was shot in the back of the head by a man named Owens in a fight.

Injured in a Small Week.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. RICHMOND, Ind., June 30.—Six men in the employ of the Forepaugh-Sells circus, members of the first advertising crew, were injured in a small wreck on the Panhandle Saturday night while en route to Richmond from Piqua, O. They came on to this city in their car, which was badly damaged by a truck on the highway. While none of the men is seriously injured, they will not be able for duty for several days. The Pennsylvania took the matter of settlement up promptly, and all the injured received satisfactory remuneration.

Caught by a Belt and Killed.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. FORTVILLE, Ind., June 30.—Ora Eberhart, an employe of the Grassell Chemical Company, was instantly killed at 5 o'clock this evening. He was caught by a belt and his head was crushed against a pulley. He was twenty-six years old and left a widow and young child.

Child Took Poison by Mistake.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. KOKOMO, Ind., June 30.—Last night the eight-year-old daughter of Charles Sweet, drank a quantity of carbolic acid. The child had been taking medicine and by mistake took the wrong bottle. She may recover.

Killed by a Switch Engine.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. FERRIS, Ind., June 30.—Charles Moran, aged sixty-seven, was run over and instantly killed to-night by a Lake Erie & Western switch engine which was backing at the station.

Patriarchs Militant.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LOGANSPORT, Ind., June 30.—The ninth annual encampment of the Fifth Regiment of the Patriarchs Militant, I. O. O. F., will be held in Logansport on July 3-5. There are five companies in the regiment, including the River No. 7, of North Manchester; Logansport, No. 15; Logansport; Excelsior, No. 18; Lafayette; Wabash, No. 19; Wabash, and Peru, No. 20. The encampment will be held in Spencer Park, where there is ample space for the tents of the regiment. The Patriarchs Militant will contribute to the success of the meeting.

Plate Glass Plant Closes