

DIAMONDS WORTH $700

CHICAGO WOMAN SUSPECTED OF STEALING THEM AT KOKOMO.
Considerable Damage by Storm Reported from Warrick, Kosciusko, Tippecanoe and White Counties.

GRAVEL ROAD CASE DECIDED

GREAT PAPER COMPANY IS ORGANIZED BY MARION MEN.

Mr. Hanna's Letter to Muncie Laboring Men—Young Man Shoots and Kills Himself—Political Notes.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
KOKOMO, Ind., Aug. 1.—Kokomo officers are at work on a diamond robbery in which a Chicago woman is accused of stealing jewelry valued at fully $700. Fred and Mrs. Heberl, of Chicago, have been boarding with Mrs. Charles Cline. Mrs. Heberl left for Chicago this afternoon, and it was afterwards found that a diamond necklace and a diamond brooch and several rings were missing, including a diamond wedding ring of Mrs. Cline's daughter, Mrs. Don Roach.

Telegrams were sent to stop the woman, but she has not been located. Mr. Heberl is a cigar maker, and had been employed here. Mrs. Heberl's trunk was discovered at Logansport, but the missing jewels were not found.

PAPER COMPANY ORGANIZED.

Several Marion Men Interested in a Great Tonawanda Project.
Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
MARION, Ind., Aug. 1.—The Tonawanda Paper Company, which is to erect a $200,000 plant at Tonawanda, N. Y., organized last night with the following officers: President, L. Newman; vice president, Lewis Marks; secretary and treasurer, W. W. McCleery. The directors are: L. Newman, Lewis Marks, W. W. McCleery, Pierce Norton and F. O. Gephart, of Marion; John W. Lovett, of Anderson; Eli Rosenfelder, of Rock Island, Ill.; and W. T. Payne, of Tonawanda, N. Y. Ground for the new plant was broken yesterday. It is to be the largest paper mill in the world and will receive its power from Niagara Falls.

New Elevator for Lafayette.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
LAFAYETTE, Ind., Aug. 1.—Robert Bell, of Fowler, and Crab & Reynolds, of Crawfordsville, have closed negotiations by which they will become owners of the Standard Grain Company's grain elevators in Tippecanoe county. The purchase included the elevators at Ash Grove and Crane, Tippecanoe county, which are at Ash Grove and Crane. The new owners will build a large and modern elevator in Lafayette, thus adding largely to the city's grain-handling facilities.

TRANSFERRED TO THE ARMOURS.

Substantial Interest in the G. H. Hammond Packing Company.
CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—Mr. J. P. Lyman, president of the G. H. Hammond Packing Company, this afternoon made the following authentic statement:

"Mr. J. Oden Armour has purchased a substantial interest in the G. H. Hammond Packing Company and the Hammond Packing Company, and the transfer of stock took place yesterday. Mr. E. E. Armstrong, vice president, retires to devote his attention to other large interests, and Mr. Arthur Meeker has been elected to fill the vacancy. The management and policy of the companies will continue unchanged."
C. H. Hammond Company has under construction a large plant at the Chicago Union Stockyards, rapidly nearing completion with a capacity for handling 4,000 hogs daily. The new plant will include its entire business will be transferred to the new plant at Hammond, Ill., and the old plant will be abandoned, except possibly for storage purposes.

PARTIAL AGREEMENT.

Report of Results Attained at Atlantic City Glass Conference.
PITTSBURG, Aug. 1.—President Charles L. Votile, of the American Flint Glass Workers' Union, returned to-day from Atlantic City, and officially announced that at the wage conference satisfactory settlements were made in the castor, shade and mold-making departments, but the pressed ware and paste-mold conferees abandoned. One of the principal features of the disagreement was the refusal of the manufacturers to grant the demand of the workers for the abolition of Sunday night work. In the shades department the Eastern makers were granted a 10 per cent. advance, making a 10 per cent. differential between the East and West. In the castor branch there was a general increase of 8 per cent. pending the ratification of the agreements the workers are authorized to resume work next Sunday night.

ROAD LAW UPHOLD.

Judge Mount Affirms Validity of Howard-Tipton Road Contract.
WINDFALL, Ind., Aug. 1.—Judge Walter W. Mount, of the Tipton and Howard Circuit Court, has handed down an important decision of the question of the validity of the law under which the commissioners of Tipton and Howard counties in joint session ordered the construction of a free gravel road on the line dividing the two counties. Certain farmers along the line sought to enjoin the construction of the road on the ground that the act of 1890, under which the road is being built, was by implication repealed by the act of 1901, which grants the right of eminent domain concurrent and in full force, and refuses to grant the injunction.

STILL A MYSTERY.

Disappearance of Mrs. Tolton from Westville—Tolton's Latest Story.
Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
LAPORTE, Ind., Aug. 1.—Sheriff Small to-day discovered additional evidence to show that Mrs. William Tolton, of Westville, who is mysteriously missing, as a result of which her husband is held on a charge of murder, had been going toward the Wabash station Monday morning in time to catch the 5 o'clock train. The conductor of the report shows that Westville-Chicago tickets were honored on their way. Herold and Roe Hill, who went off to Chicago to visit the hospital, returned to-day, having been unsuccessful in their efforts to locate the missing woman.

LETTER FROM MR. HANNA.

The Senator Expresses His Views to the Muncie Laboring Men.
Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
MUNCIE, Ind., Aug. 1.—Secretary Hathaway, of the Labor day committee, has received a letter from Senator M. A. Hanna, in reply to the invitation extended to him to be present in Muncie on Labor day to address the laboring men of the city. After expressing his regret at being compelled to decline the invitation because of a previous engagement for that day, Senator Hanna adds, speaking of the labor question: "I feel a great interest in this all-important question and am glad to find that the efforts are being made to have it organized labor. It is a great work, but of course we cannot accomplish everything at

DAMAGE IN WARRICK.

The County Is Swept by a Severe Wind, Followed by Rain.
Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
EVANSVILLE, Ind., Aug. 1.—Warrick county was visited by a severe windstorm to-night and considerable damage is reported. A heavy rain followed the windstorm. A report reached here that a church had been demolished, but this lacks confirmation.

Thursday's Storm Aftermath.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
LAFAYETTE, Ind., Aug. 1.—Lightning struck the large barn on the farm of John C. Cuppy, three miles west of Mulberry, last night, while the tenant, Melvin Yount, was in Lafayette. The barn was destroyed, with 60 bushels of new wheat, a large quantity of hay, all the harness and farming implements of the place. The loss is $1,500, in no insurance.

WINONA LAKE, Ind., Aug. 1.—It is estimated that the damage caused by the typhoon afternoon will be between $2,000 and $3,000. Great holes have been washed in the hillsides and the beach which has recently been improved at a big expense is broken into innumerable gullies. The basements of the hotels and other buildings are flooded and the entrance building is surrounded by water. The rush of water from the basins caused the afternoon entertainment to be abandoned yesterday.

TROUBLE OVER TAXES.

It Is Imminent Between Town Trustees and Chesterfield Spiritualists.
Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
MUNCIE, Ind., Aug. 1.—There are prospects of a break between the recently elected Board of Town Trustees of the town of Chesterfield and the directors of the Spiritualists' Camp Association at that place. The cause of the trouble is the tax the trustees propose to levy on the camp property. It is said that all mediums on the camp grounds will be required to pay a tax of $10 into the town treasury for the purpose of holding seances.

Charges Against Policemen.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
MUNCIE, Ind., Aug. 1.—As a result of Patrolman Thornburg's failure to arrest Fred Puckett, formerly a detective on the Muncie force, when he threw him out of police headquarters Wednesday morning last, Thornburg has been suspended by the police commissioners pending investigation. He is charged with failure to perform his duty as an officer. The same charges pending against Patrolmen Bedell and Patrolman Larmore also are being investigated. Larmore has filed a charge of assault and battery against Puckett, who gave himself up to-day.

Palmer University.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
MUNCIE, Ind., Aug. 1.—Palmer University will be opened in this city with special exercises on Sept. 16. The programme for this occasion has been prepared and includes addresses by Joseph G. Lefler, of Muncie, on behalf of the citizens; Francis Asbury Palmer, of New York, founder of the school; John R. H. Latchaw, president of the new institution, and the Rev. Thomas M. McWhorter, D. D., D. D., chancellor. Among the members of the faculty whose names have been announced are Prof. Signor Carlo, of the Conservatory of Music, and Mrs. Mae Reynolds, principal of the voice department. The school is the official school of the Christian Church.

History of the Eighty-Second.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Aug. 1.—Col. J. E. Brant has just completed an exhaustive history of the Eighty-fifth Indiana Regiment that has been published in book form, making over one hundred pages. Colonel Brant is a well-known retired Methodist preacher and was major in the regiment during the war. He is now lieutenant colonel of the Eighty-second. The regiment lost in all 27 out of 115 men on the field of battle. It is thought, however, that she will soon recover from the effects of the bite. The snake, a copperhead, escaped.

House and Money Burned.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
LIBERTY, Ind., Aug. 1.—The residence of Mrs. Eliza Santos, two miles west of Liberty, was burned last night under circumstances that seem to point to an incendiary origin. Mrs. Santos and a son narrowly escaped. It is reported that several hundred dollars worth of property was destroyed. The house was insured for a small amount, but not sufficient to cover the loss, exclusive of the money destroyed.

Woman Bitten by a Snake.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
GREENSBURG, Ind., Aug. 1.—Mrs. Louis Wamsburg, living near Newport, was bitten by a snake this week while assisting her husband in the hay harvest. Her husband began to swell and to become very painful. She was immediately given large quantities of whiskey, but it had no effect except to deaden the pain. It is thought, however, that she will soon recover from the effects of the bite. The snake, a copperhead, escaped.

Feel Forty-Five Feet.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
LAFAYETTE, Ind., Aug. 1.—Bert Largent, a telephone lineman, is lying at his home in a precarious condition as the result of a fall from a forty-five-foot telegraph pole. A cross-arm on which he was working broke, precipitating him to the ground. His left hip was fractured, his right hip fractured, his shoulders were wrenched and he suffered internal injuries. He was twenty-four years old and married.

Honor for Father Bede.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
LAFAYETTE, Ind., Aug. 1.—The Rev. Father Bede, assistant pastor at St. Boniface Church, to-day received notice of his appointment as vice commissary of Mount St. Boniface University at Washington, an institution for the training of missionaries who intend to go to the Holy Land for their work. He will be succeeded by Rev. Leander Scheil, of Santa Fe, N. M.

Shot and Killed Himself.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
RUSHVILLE, Ind., Aug. 1.—George W. Brann accidentally shot himself this evening with a 22-caliber rifle and died instantly. The ball entered his chin and penetrated the brain. The accident occurred at a fishing camp on Flatrock near Moscow. He was the son of Noble Brann and was prominently connected. He was twenty-eight years old.

Pension Board Resigns.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
COVINGTON, Ind., Aug. 1.—The medical examiners of the county pension board of this county have tendered their resignations in a body. Since the home has increased threefold or more, and it has become impossible for the board to accomplish the work in the time allotted. Recommendations have been made for a new board.

Gas City Hot Mill Closed.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
MARION, Ind., Aug. 1.—The hot mill department of the American Tin Plate Company's plant at Gas City was closed at 6 o'clock to-night. The plant employs 500 men and 175 in the hot mill. Action on the company's proposal to reduce wages had been deferred by the men until to-morrow afternoon.

Big Sale of Fine Cattle.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
COVINGTON, Ind., Aug. 1.—Mr. Lee Van Reed, a farmer near here in Warren county, sold this week one hundred head of fat cattle that averaged 1,500 pounds, receiving for them $12,000. They were Polled Angus and Durhams.

Last year Mr. Van Reed made one shipment from his farm that netted him $10,500.

Many Children Are Dying.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
MADISON, Ind., Aug. 1.—An epidemic of dysentery exists at Deputy in this county, especially among young people, and it is said every child born in that locality during 1901 is dead. As high as seven fatalities a day have been held in the township.

Ice-Cream Victim Dies.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
KOKOMO, Ind., Aug. 1.—Miss Bernice Morden, one of the party poisoned at an ice cream social here last week, died to-night. The others have recovered.

Indiana Obituary.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Aug. 1.—Word has been received here from Cass county of the death of William Long, a well-known school teacher, who died at his home about two weeks ago, when he was taken ill and advised to go home. Typhoid fever developed and death resulted on Wednesday. Mr. Long was twenty-six years old, married, and was a successful teacher. His wife, Mrs. Long, is a leading citizen of Ellettsville, died last night of typhoid fever, aged sixty-eight. He was foreman of the Perry-Madison team for many years. The burial will be in charge of the Odd Fellows, of which he was a prominent member many years.

DUBLIN, Ind., Aug. 1.—The friends of Abram Joliff have received news of his death in Colorado. He was fifty-four years old and was a native of East Germantown, four miles east of here. He left East Germantown and his family went to Hamilton county, where he married. Later he removed to Kansas and thence to Colorado.

RUSHVILLE, Ind., Aug. 1.—Isaac Parkers, a pioneer citizen of this county, residing near Knightstown on this side of the county line, died last night. He left a widow and four children.

Indiana Notes.

LIBERTY.—Mrs. A. Greenfield, of this city, was stricken with paralysis at Liberty, Ky., to which she had gone to visit her daughter, Mrs. Wolf. Mrs. Greenfield is widow of Abraham Greenfield, of a Cincinnati family, and has lived here for many years. It is feared she cannot recover. She is a member of the Jewish church and has many friends at Indianapolis.

LAFAYETTE.—Three remonstrances have been filed in this county against the granting of liquor licenses in Laumie township. The applicants are C. Young and W. W. Stultz, Clark's Hill, and Clinton Hollenbeck, of Stockwell. The remonstrances contain from 26 to 47 names. The commissioners will meet on Monday to hear the cases.

LOGANSPORT.—The Logansport lodge of Elks cleared $1,500 from its carnival, which was given in this city during the week of June 16. The report of the carnival executive committee was submitted at the regular meeting of the lodge Thursday night. A proposition to build a lodge and club rooms is now being agitated.
