HOTEL LOBBY GLEANINGS

A. M. HIGGINS ENTHUSIASTIC ABOUT TERRE HAUTE.

He Says the Town is Growing Fast Without Having a Boom—Visitors at the Hotels.

"It won't be many years until Terre Haute is the second city in Indiana," declared A. M. Higgins, an enthusiastic Terre Hautean, who was in Indianapolis last night.

"No, it's not a boom," said Mr. Higgins, "but it is a gradual growth—a broadening of a town into a great city. The people over there look upon it all as something they are entitled to. To put it plainly, they simply feel they are getting what is coming to them."

the girls who were out will return to work on Monday.

Senator Fairbanks delivered an address at the Boone county Republican convention, held at Leavenworth, Mo., last night.

Sullivan county Democrats show no signs of getting together. The smallest crowd that ever attended a political meeting in the county was at the annual meeting of the campaign held at Sullivan, Mo., last night.

In a Sporting Way.

British riflemen defeated the Americans in the shooting of the Palma trophy at Ottawa by a lead of only twelve points.

Kansas City defeated Indianapolis by the score of 13 to 6. Other association winners were: Milwaukee, Minneapolis and St. Paul.

Cincinnati and Chicago beat Pittsburgh and St. Louis in the National League. The American League Cleveland beat St. Louis twice. Rain prevented other games.

IN HIS PULPIT AGAIN

REV. J. CUMMING SMITH BACK FROM HIS VACATION.

Interior of the Church Freshened During His Absence—An Interesting Sermon.

The Rev. J. Cumming Smith, of the Tabernacle Church, returned from his vacation to find the interior of the church freshened and he preached a sermon yesterday morning on the text: "Be ye transformed."

"It is not a mystery, save as the awakening of any capacity is a mystery. Men were made to grow, and growth is change.

The sneer of atheism or the skeptical smile of placid culture at the doctrine of regeneration is out of place. The necessity of any germ or embryo into its activity is as difficult to fathom as the soul.

"To change a man is a truth of every day. The mind rises from the poverty and lowliness of the natural state to the heights of the spiritual life.

"I have a word to say to you, and it is this: Men have capacity for music and for language, and for valor and for finance and for the things of the world, and yet they are not using them.

"The secret and unspoken author is the Holy Spirit. The instrument is some one of the faculties of the soul.
