

LEW SHANK FOR CHAIRMAN

COUNTY RECORDER TO OPPOSE E. D. LOGSDON'S RE-ELECTION.

Forerunner of the Announcement of New Candidate for Mayor-Voting Places for Primaries.

Samuel Lew Shank, recorder of Marion county, yesterday announced his candidacy for chairman of the Republican city committee. He at once set out to find his party friends who rallied to him in the primaries a year ago when he was nominated for the office of recorder to induce them to select committeemen in the primaries next Saturday who will favor his election. Shank's candidacy is opposed to that of Edwin D. Logsdon, a member of the Board of Public Works, who has been city chairman in the last two campaigns and who is again a candidate.

Charles Martindale said last night that Shank's candidacy was the forerunner of an announcement of a new candidate for mayor. Mayor Bookwalter said yesterday that he would seek re-nomination on the record made by his administration. Mr. Martindale says a candidate against Mr. Bookwalter will announce himself in a few days. There has been no candidate announced for secretary of the city committee in opposition to Oran N. Muir, the present secretary.

Chairman Logsdon yesterday announced the following voting places for Saturday's primaries and also the inspectors. Those precincts omitted from the list will be announced to-morrow or Saturday. The list of polling places and names of inspectors follow:

SAFETY BOARD MEETING

PLANS OF JOHN H. STEM FOR ENGINE HOUSES APPROVED.

Patrolman Appointed to Succeed Geo. W. Losh—Asphalt Repair Machine Inspected at Toledo.

The Board of Public Safety, at its meeting yesterday, approved the plans prepared by Architect John H. Stem for the Irvington fire station, and the Board of Public Works will soon advertise for bids. The Irvington fire station will be as aesthetic as well as completely modern. The board has also approved Chief Coot's requisition for supplies for the empty engine houses in the German town and English avenue. The first named will be ready for occupancy next week. The board discussed its captain and force yesterday and decided on them, but the names were not announced. Both these engine houses were built by the Taggart administration and left without plumbing or other conveniences to make them habitable. The Taggart administration also used up the funds so that no money was available to make them habitable.

The board has accepted the resignation of George W. Losh, a patrolman, and named as his successor, Eric Wilson, who was first man on the waiting list.

Asphalt Repair Machine. Mayor and City Officials Return from a Visit to Toledo.

Mayor Bookwalter, Chairman McGrew, of the Board of Public Works, and City Engineer Nelson returned from Toledo yesterday, where they went to examine an asphalt repair machine that is in use in that city. The machine is portable, and costs about $500. Experience at Toledo and elsewhere shows that it does the repair work at from 60 to 70 cents a square yard. The mayor regards the machine as still in the experimental period.

Stanley's Attorney's Fees. Judge Stubbs Required William Nelson to Refund it.

On the intimation of Judge Stubbs in the Police Court, yesterday morning, that he would suspend action until he refunded the money, William Nelson, an attorney and a practitioner in the Police Court, refunded $5 collected by him as a fee from William H. Stanley, a defendant in the court of the charge of receiving stolen goods. Nelson persuaded Stanley, according to Stanley's story, to give him a fee of $5 before Judge Stubbs had convened the Police Court yesterday morning; that O. B. Orton, who had been retained as his counsel, would not appear. Stanley gave him the money, and shortly afterward Orton appeared and complained that his client had been defrauded of his money. Because of the rumor that Stanley had been made a victim, and ordered Nelson to refund the money. Nelson counted out five paper dollars, protesting that he had done nothing wrong.

Broke Window for Revenge. Charles Alberts, a one-armed man, walked into Peter Fritz's saloon, on West Ohio street, last night, and asked for a drink for nothing. The bartender refused, and when Alberts failed to leave the place, ejected him. Alberts walked away from the saloon and into the street. There he picked up a large stone and hurled it through the front window of the saloon, breaking a large plate-glass window. The stone narrowly missed a man who was standing at the bar and crashed into a painting hanging on the wall, breaking it into many pieces.

The Indianapolis Journal Book of Legislative Cartoons will be on sale Friday. The book is handsomely gotten up, the cover being printed in two colors on a Jaquemont red deckle-edge antique cover paper, and the inside pages black on mist tint. It is composed of thirty-five pages of cartoons, by Jack Smith, the Indianapolis cartoonist, as reproduced from cartoons appearing in the daily and Sunday Indianapolis Journal, of each and every senator and representative of the thirty-third General Assembly of Indiana legislators.

Anderson Shut Out. RACINE, Wis., March 4.—The winning streak of the Anderson team was broken to-night by the Racine team. The game was fast and Racine won by a score of 2 to 0.

State Normal Girls Win. Defeat De Pauw at Basketball by a Substantial Score. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. TERRE HAUTE, Ind., March 4.—The Indiana State Normal girls' basketball team defeated the De Pauw girls by the score of 16 to 7. It was the first game in public played by the De Pauw girls, the faculty having been opposed to girls' teams playing in public until recently. The score was made before the end of the first half.

NATIONAL LEAGUE DATES

BASEBALL SCHEDULE ADOPTED AT THE NEW YORK MEETING.

Season to Open April 15 and Close Sept. 27—Few Dates Conflict with the American League.

NEW YORK, March 4.—The National Baseball League met to-day to prepare for the opening of the playing season. President Pullman was in the chair and present included John T. Brush and Fred Knowles, of New York; James Hart, of Chicago; Barney Dreyfuss and W. H. Locke, of Pittsburgh; Ned Hanlon, Charles Ebbetts and Harry Vanderhorst, of Brooklyn; Julius Fleischman, of Cincinnati; Frank De Hass, Robinson, of St. Louis; James Potter and Edwin I. Hyneman, of Philadelphia, and A. H. Soden and W. H. Conant, of Boston.

The league adopted a schedule. The playing season will open on April 15 with Boston in Philadelphia, and Chicago in St. Louis, and will close on Sept. 27, one week earlier than last year with the Eastern clubs in the West. The East opens in the West on June 1 with New York at Pittsburgh, Brooklyn at Chicago, Boston in Cincinnati and Philadelphia in St. Louis. There are comparatively few conflicting dates between the American and National League clubs. Boston has no conflicting games. New York two, Philadelphia five, Chicago fourteen, and St. Louis six.

Colonel John I. Rogers and A. J. Reach, who, since 1883, have been identified with the league in Philadelphia, made formal speeches resigning from the league. Colonel Rogers said he and his partner had been in baseball for twenty years and left the National League with much regret. He said he was forced to retire because of failing health. In closing he introduced President Potter and Mr. Hyneman. On motion of Mr. Hart, Mr. Rogers and Reach were elected honorary life members of the league. Mr. Potter was chosen to succeed Colonel Rogers as a member of the committee on constitution. The league accepted the report of the playing rules committee presented by Mr. Hyneman, only changes in last year's league rules relate to the elevation of the pitcher's box, the base lines and sliding rules. The league will reconvene to-morrow.

The first annual meeting of the American League ever held in this city will begin to-morrow. THE SCHEDULE. Following is the National League schedule: At Boston—Brooklyn: June 16, 17, 17; July 22, 23, 24, 25; Aug. 5, 6, 7, 8; Sept. 2, 3, 4, 5; Oct. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31;
