

HIS EMINENCE HERE

CARDINAL GIBBONS ARRIVES TO PARTICIPATE IN JUBILEE.

Prince of the Church met at Union Station by Father Chartrand and Reception Committee.

FIRST VISIT TO INDIANAPOLIS

HE EXPRESSES HIS PLEASURE WITH FIRST IMPRESSIONS.

The Cardinal Pays a High Tribute to the Noble Qualities of the Jubiliarian.

PROGRAMME OF DAYS EVENTS

PONTIFICAL HIGH MASS, BANQUET AND RECEPTION TO CLERGY.

Dignitaries Entertained at Bishop's Home and Parish Residence--Pope Leo's Congratulations.

His Eminence James Cardinal Gibbons, the American prince of the Roman Catholic Church, arrived last night to take part in the celebration of the silver jubilee of Bishop Chatard.

He was followed by his carriage to Bishop Foley's, of Detroit, who arrived on the same train, and Father Delavan, of Baltimore, his chaplain. At the carriage Cardinal Gibbons made a brief talk to the Knights of Columbus thanking them for their courtesy in meeting him at the train and assuring them of his own pleasure at being able to participate in the silver jubilee of Bishop Chatard.

Cardinal Gibbons is in excellent health and manifests his vigor in the alertness of his movements and his quick incisive manner of talking. In an interview he said last night:

"This is my first visit to Indianapolis and I need not tell you that I am delighted with the opportunity afforded me of viewing a city of which I have heard so many excellent things. The fame of Indianapolis is known to us in Baltimore and we have ceased, really, to regard Hoosiers as Westerners."

"The night is hardly the most favorable time for first impressions, but I am impressed with the beauty of the city. I like your wide clean streets, your fine residences, many of which I caught a glimpse of coming to the bishop's house in the carriage, and the general air of prosperity that the city seems to wear."

TRIBUTE TO CHATARD.

"As for my pleasure in being able to assist in the silver jubilee of Bishop Chatard I can only say it is profound. His has been a fine life. A life of purity, of devotion, of steadfastness, of sweetness, of noble thoughts. It is my earnest hope the bishop will be spared many more years to his children in the diocese of Indianapolis."

Cardinal Gibbons was weary and retired soon after arriving at Bishop Chatard's residence.

Archbishop Farley, of New York, and Bishop McQuaid were met at the Union Station at 12 o'clock, last night by Father Chartrand and escorted to Bishop Chatard's residence. Father Chartrand has been indefatigable in his duties as a host and has had charge of many important details of the jubilee celebration. He will be toastmaster at the Columbia Club banquet this afternoon.

Nearly all the ecclesiastics of high rank who are to participate in the jubilee have arrived and are being entertained for the most part at parish houses or in private families. A number are stopping at the hotels.

AT PARISH HOUSES.

At Bishop Chatard's residence are Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop Elder, of Cincinnati; Archbishop Keane, of Dubuque; Archbishop Farley, of New York; Archbishop McCloskey, of Louisville; Bishop McQuaid, of Rochester, and Bishop Foley, of Detroit.

At Bishop O'Donoghue's are Bishop Kelly, of Savannah; Bishop Muldoon, of Chicago, and Bishop O'Reilly, of Peoria.

At St. John's parish house, where Father Gavick is host, are Bishop Spaulding, of Peoria; Bishop McDonnell, of Brooklyn; Bishop Hoban, of Scranton; Bishop Burke, of St. Joseph, and Bishop Gabriel.

At St. Joseph's is Bishop Alerding, of Fort Wayne.

At English's Hotel are Archbishop Quigley, of Chicago, and Bishop O'Connor, of Newark.

Many of lesser rank are being entertained in private families.

PROGRAMME FOR THE DAY.

Pontifical High Mass, Columbia Club Banquet and Reception.

Pontifical high mass will be celebrated at St. John's Church this morning at 10 o'clock by Bishop Chatard. His Eminence, Cardinal Gibbons, and Archbishop Elder, of Cincinnati, will occupy thrones to the right and left of Bishop Chatard, while the other dignitaries will be seated with respect to their rank.

In the procession which will leave St. John's parish house will be six archbishops, twenty-one bishops and six of the clergy

FLURRY IN COTTON PIT

ENORMOUS TRANSACTIONS AT RECORD-BREAKING PRICES.

Advance of $1 a Bale at New York and $1.50 to $2 on the New Orleans Exchange.

MAY OPTION SOLD AT 11.20

AT NEW YORK AND JULY AS HIGH AS 11.75 IN THE CRESCENT CITY.

Spot Cotton Held at 11.15 Cents a Pound in the Eastern Markets--Brokers Loaded with Orders.

NEW YORK, May 11.--There was a wild market in cotton trading to-day with prices covering a range of $1 a bale in the market.

Advances of that year in the market at 12% cents and about 1d per pound at Liverpool, after a prolonged session of bull speculation. The shorts in the May option were practically all driven in last week except spot dealers, who intended to make good their deliveries. That option will soon expire. The stock of cotton here of contract grade, which was only 22,000 bales a month ago, has gradually been increased to about 30,000 bales through the recent steady advance in prices attracting cotton here.

PLANNED TO MURDER 300.

Presidents of the See Yip Society Charged with Conspiracy.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 11.--Four of the eleven presidents of the See Yip Society have been arrested for the conspiracy to murder the 300 members of the Chinese society of English education, and two of them, Gee Hong On, who is not only the president of the On Yick Highlander Tong, but of the See Yip, and Lee Yip, president of the Bow Long Tong, have made complete confessions to the police. The other seven presidents are in hiding, but will be arrested as they are found upon conspiracy to commit murder. It is believed that the evidence already obtained is sufficient to send them all to the penitentiary. The men under arrest are members of the See Yip Society were suspected of giving the authorities information regarding the conspiracy.

PREFERRED COOK TO FORTUNE.

Son of Wealthy Fruit Grover Cast Out and Disinherited.

DERBY, Conn., May 11.--By marrying his father's cook John S. Hurd, of Monroe, Conn., abandoned wealth, family and position. Unknown to his relatives he brought Miss Jennie McDermott here and they were united by Rev. Frederick H. Mathison. On writing his father for forgiveness young Hurd received the reply never to darken the door of his father's home and to expect no share in his parents' estate. Henry S. Hurd, the father, is a fruit grower, worth about $100,000. He has a large farm, and he will now seek work as a farm hand. Despite family protests, young Hurd married the cook. He is now a free man, and he is believed to have left the country.

PURCELL ESTATE CASE.

Final Distribution of Money--$2,300 for Lawyers and $8,900 for Creditors.

CINCINNATI, May 11.--The famous Purcell estate in which the debts originally amounted to nearly four millions and which for years occupied the attention of the courts, was finally closed to-day by the announcement that $10,000 remained to be distributed. This was obtained from sureties of the bond of John B. Mannix, the original assignee, who himself became a bankrupt. The $10,000 is awarded to the attorneys, leaving $8,900 as a final dividend for the creditors. Unless an appeal is made from this final distribution the famous case is finally closed.

DON'T KICK THE SLEEPING DOG.

ON EVE OF WATERLOO

IT WILL BE THAT FOR EITHER TAGGART OR KEACH.

Neither One, However, Has a Desire to Enact the Role of Napoleon in This Drama of Politics.

TAGGART'S SMILE SPREADING

AT THE GRAND HOTEL HE HOLDS COURT FOR THE FAITHFUL.

Keach and Fanning Both Busy in Their Respective Capacities--Keach's Declaration.

Fanning in de Thorpe block, Keach across de hall. Taggart at de Grand Hotel--How's a guy 't stall? Fanning's got an ice mitt. Keach is full of fire. T.'s air ain't got beer--Where's a guy to light?

SAILORS QUARANTINED.

Over 1,000 on the Receiving Ship Columbia Exposed to Scarlet Fever.

NEW YORK, May 11.--Scarlet fever has broken out upon the receiving ship Columbia at the Cobbe dock, New York navy yard. There are over one thousand sailors on board. Three of the crew have been taken down with the disease within a week. The first case came to the notice of the ship's physician on Thursday last. The sailor was at once sent to the naval hospital. The strictest quarantine is to be placed upon the ship. The Columbia has accommodation for 500 sailors only. At present they are herded together, and, it is stated, are on the verge of mutiny.

EFFORT TO SAVE A LIFE

WM. RHEA, INDIANA BOY, UNDER DEATH SENTENCE IN NEBRASKA.

Major G. V. Menzies and Others Ask Governor Durbin to Use His Good Offices.

Major G. V. Menzies, of Mount Vernon, and other persons of prominence were in the city yesterday to ask Governor Durbin to use his good offices with the Governor of Nebraska in an effort to save William Rhea, an Indiana boy, under sentence to hang on a charge of murder.

Young Rhea is a member of a good family of Mount Vernon. He is about eighteen years of age. When a lad of fourteen he left home with some jockeys and went about the country with them. During the night force, are removed by the day force, which the city pays. The dirt, under the contract, is to be removed at the expense of the contractor before 8 a. m. He said it happened to all contractors and that the city very seldom was at any expense.

SERIOUS CHARGES MADE

MUNCIE WOMAN CITED TO APPEAR IN A TEXAS COURT.

Accused of Marrying When She Had Four Living Husbands and Poisoning Last Husband for Estate.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

MUNCIE, Ind., May 11.--On the ground that Mrs. Elizabeth Estella Coit married James T. Coit, while she had four other husbands and that she married him merely to get his fortune by poisoning him, the twenty-five heirs to the Coit estate in Harrison county, Texas, will seek to break the will by which James T. Coit bequeathed all of his fortune to his wife, of Muncie.

A citation was served on Mrs. Coit to-day by Sheriff Swain, calling on her to appear before the District Court of Harrison county, Texas, and bearing the charges mentioned. Mrs. Coit is a well-known woman of Muncie, a daughter of the late Mrs. Luther, a noted spiritualist. The property in question was valued at $12,000, which Mrs. Coit's attorneys have sold and turned over to her. She still owns 2,000 acres of land in Texas, north of Beaumont. The heirs live at Marshall, Texas, and in Brooklyn, N. Y. Mrs. Coit has employed attorneys to fight for her estate. She has not been arrested on a criminal charge.

The citation names her alleged living husbands as being Gus Nash, Irvy, Spaulding and Loftus, and alleges that she kept Coit filled with liquor and drugs until he drew up the will, at which time he is declared to have been drunk.

IN A BED OF FLOWERS

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT SLEPT AMID SWEET-SCENTED BLOSSOMS.

At San Jose Last Evening Women Filled His Car with California's Choicest Blooms.

DAY IN SANTA CLARA VALLEY

AND A VISIT PAID TO A GROVE OF GIANT SEQUOIAS.

Speech Made to Fruit Growers, the G. A. R., Pioneers, Children and Citizens Generally.

TESTIMONY OF FURNAS

FORMER SWEEPING CONTRACTOR QUESTIONED BY MR. NOEL.

He Admits that He Sought to Secure Contract Through Influence of Logsdon's Brother-in-Law.

OFFERED TO PAY MIDDLETON

REASON HE WENT INTO PARTNERSHIP WITH STUCKMEYER.

Mr. Furnas's Explanation of Conference with H. B. Gates More to the Latter's Credit.

TO MELON RAISERS.

The train then proceeded toward Santa Cruz, a seaside resort on the northern shore of Monterey bay. On the way a stop was made at Watsonville, where watermelons grow like weeds. The President spoke to the melon raisers as follows:

"I do not come here to teach; I come here to learn. It has done me good to be in your State and to meet your people. Until now I have believed in you with all my heart, but it has done me good to be in touch with you. The thing that has impressed me most in my trip from the Atlantic across to the Pacific is that good Americans are good Americans in every part of this country."

The train then proceeded toward Santa Cruz, a seaside resort on the northern shore of Monterey bay. On the way a stop was made at Watsonville, where watermelons grow like weeds. The President spoke to the melon raisers as follows:

"I do not come here to teach; I come here to learn. It has done me good to be in your State and to meet your people. Until now I have believed in you with all my heart, but it has done me good to be in touch with you. The thing that has impressed me most in my trip from the Atlantic across to the Pacific is that good Americans are good Americans in every part of this country."

The train then proceeded toward Santa Cruz, a seaside resort on the northern shore of Monterey bay. On the way a stop was made at Watsonville, where watermelons grow like weeds. The President spoke to the melon raisers as follows:

"I do not come here to teach; I come here to learn. It has done me good to be in your State and to meet your people. Until now I have believed in you with all my heart, but it has done me good to be in touch with you. The thing that has impressed me most in my trip from the Atlantic across to the Pacific is that good Americans are good Americans in every part of this country."

The train then proceeded toward Santa Cruz, a seaside resort on the northern shore of Monterey bay. On the way a stop was made at Watsonville, where watermelons grow like weeds. The President spoke to the melon raisers as follows:

"I do not come here to teach; I come here to learn. It has done me good to be in your State and to meet your people. Until now I have believed in you with all my heart, but it has done me good to be in touch with you. The thing that has impressed me most in my trip from the Atlantic across to the Pacific is that good Americans are good Americans in every part of this country."

The train then proceeded toward Santa Cruz, a seaside resort on the northern shore of Monterey bay. On the way a stop was made at Watsonville, where watermelons grow like weeds. The President spoke to the melon raisers as follows:

"I do not come here to teach; I come here to learn. It has done me good to be in your State and to meet your people. Until now I have believed in you with all my heart, but it has done me good to be in touch with you. The thing that has impressed me most in my trip from the Atlantic across to the Pacific is that good Americans are good Americans in every part of this country."

The train then proceeded toward Santa Cruz, a seaside resort on the northern shore of Monterey bay. On the way a stop was made at Watsonville, where watermelons grow like weeds. The President spoke to the melon raisers as follows:

"I do not come here to teach; I come here to learn. It has done me good to be in your State and to meet your people. Until now I have believed in you with all my heart, but it has done me good to be in touch with you. The thing that has impressed me most in my trip from the Atlantic across to the Pacific is that good Americans are good Americans in every part of this country."

The train then proceeded toward Santa Cruz, a seaside resort on the northern shore of Monterey bay. On the way a stop was made at Watsonville, where watermelons grow like weeds. The President spoke to the melon raisers as follows:

"I do not come here to teach; I come here to learn. It has done me good to be in your State and to meet your people. Until now I have believed in you with all my heart, but it has done me good to be in touch with you. The thing that has impressed me most in my trip from the Atlantic across to the Pacific is that good Americans are good Americans in every part of this country."

The train then proceeded toward Santa Cruz, a seaside resort on the northern shore of Monterey bay. On the way a stop was made at Watsonville, where watermelons grow like weeds. The President spoke to the melon raisers as follows:

"I do not come here to teach; I come here to learn. It has done me good to be in your State and to meet your people. Until now I have believed in you with all my heart, but it has done me good to be in touch with you. The thing that has impressed me most in my trip from the Atlantic across to the Pacific is that good Americans are good Americans in every part of this country."

The train then proceeded toward Santa Cruz, a seaside resort on the northern shore of Monterey bay. On the way a stop was made at Watsonville, where watermelons grow like weeds. The President spoke to the melon raisers as follows:

"I do not come here to teach; I come here to learn. It has done me good to be in your State and to meet your people. Until now I have believed in you with all my heart, but it has done me good to be in touch with you. The thing that has impressed me most in my trip from the Atlantic across to the Pacific is that good Americans are good Americans in every part of this country."

The train then proceeded toward Santa Cruz, a seaside resort on the northern shore of Monterey bay. On the way a stop was made at Watsonville, where watermelons grow like weeds. The President spoke to the melon raisers as follows:

"I do not come here to teach; I come here to learn. It has done me good to be in your State and to meet your people. Until now I have believed in you with all my heart, but it has done me good to be in touch with you. The thing that has impressed me most in my trip from the Atlantic across to the Pacific is that good Americans are good Americans in every part of this country."

The train then proceeded toward Santa Cruz, a seaside resort on the northern shore of Monterey bay. On the way a stop was made at Watsonville, where watermelons grow like weeds. The President spoke to the melon raisers as follows:

"I do not come here to teach; I come here to learn. It has done me good to be in your State and to meet your people. Until now I have believed in you with all my heart, but it has done me good to be in touch with you. The thing that has impressed me most in my trip from the Atlantic across to the Pacific is that good Americans are good Americans in every part of this country."

The train then proceeded toward Santa Cruz, a seaside resort on the northern shore of Monterey bay. On the way a stop was made at Watsonville, where watermelons grow like weeds. The President spoke to the melon raisers as follows:

"I do not come here to teach; I come here to learn. It has done me good to be in your State and to meet your people. Until now I have believed in you with all my heart, but it has done me good to be in touch with you. The thing that has impressed me most in my trip from the Atlantic across to the Pacific is that good Americans are good Americans in every part of this country."

TO DRUM AND FIFE

SOLDIERS OF THE GRAND ARMY GATHER AT ANDERSON.

All is in Readiness for the State Encampment of the Parent Body and Its Various Auxiliaries.

SHORT DELAY IN CHASE CASE

JUDGE DE HART PUTS IT OVER TWO WEEKS TO MAY 25.

Death of Joseph P. McHugh, a Well-Known Newspaper Worker of Chicago and Lafayette.

TESTAMENT OF MILTON SHIRK

FRANKLIN COLLEGE AND PERU BAPTIST CHURCH REMEMBERED.

Indiana Editors Jaunting in Kentucky--Sheriff Dudley Appeals for Aid--Gold Brick Men Arrested.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

ANDERSON, Ind., May 11.--Anderson and the many visiting veterans who have reached the city in advance of the date for the opening of the twenty-fourth annual encampment of Indiana's G. A. R. were disappointed to-night by the failure of Department Commander Senator Starr, of Richmond, to arrive on time. The reception committee and veterans as an escort were ready to meet his train when a telegram was received that he could not reach Anderson before midnight. It was planned that Commander Starr should press the button in front of the courthouse immediately after his arrival, thus lighting fifty thousand incandescent lamps--the signal welcome to the city's guests.

The city is aglow with bunting, flags and decorations emblematic of the various orders. The incoming trains this afternoon and this evening have all been burdened with visitors. Brazil was the first port to arrive and its delegation, forty strong, marched to the public square to the strains of its own martial band. The delegation was warmly received and escorted to headquarters. One of the cheering features this evening is the announcement that the boycott against the Grand Opera House has been lifted. This will enable the entertainment, as planned, to be given in full.

Governor Durbin will arrive to-morrow and has had his palatial residence opened and handsomely decorated. The Governor will give an informal reception in honor of his staff and the distinguished guests. Judge G. W. Grimes, of Martinsville, who is one of the aspirants to succeed Commander Starr, has arrived and opened headquarters. Russell P. Finney, of Jeffersonville, and Isaiah B. McDonald, of Columbia City, are also aspirants for the same position. The latter is now senior vice commander. The members of Major May Post, G. A. R., of this city, have indulged Jerome J. Musser for senior vice commander, which position by courtesy is accorded the city entertaining the encampment. Capt. Musser is well known over the State in G. A. R. circles and his candidacy is favorably received. He is chairman of the "Living Flag" committee, the rehearsal of which, given this afternoon, assured the complete success of his huge undertaking.

To-morrow will be given over entirely to receptions and the formal work of opening headquarters. The W. R. C. has its headquarters at the Anderson, as do the members of the G. A. R. The ladies of the G. A. R. opened headquarters at the Grand this evening. Mrs. J. Burr, past department commander of the W. R. C. will give a reception to the W. R. C. of the G. A. R. and friends in general at 8 o'clock to-morrow afternoon. In the evening the W. R. C. will hold a reception at the parlors of the Anderson, and the ladies of the G. A. R. at the Elks' hall.

So far the arrangements have worked like a piece of well constructed machinery under the hand of a skilled master. The weather is ideal and at no time in the city's history have the people been so enthusiastic about a prospecting meeting as at the present time. Some of the leading residence streets are most beautiful. This is especially true of Ninth street, which for four squares displays a handsome flag from every house. There will be reunions of the Fifteenth, Sixteenth and Seventeenth regiments, the Eleventh Cavalry and members of the W. R. C. region to-morrow and Wednesday evening.

Immediately after the opening of the headquarters of the Grand Army of the Republic, the president of the department president. It is now held by Mrs. Carrie Porter, of Rensselaer, Mrs. M. A. Wood, of Ellettsville, Mrs. C. Ward, of Monticello, and Mrs. Margaret Blase, of Richmond, are actively engaged in the effort to raise the money to buy the Word was received late this afternoon that General Wilder would be present and his arrival will be given the warmest of welcomes. General Wallace will have a position of honor in the parade. Senators Fairbanks and Beveridge will be present. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lovett will give a reception at their home in honor of Senator and Mrs. Fairbanks, General Wallace and Governor Cumback.

Ohio G. A. R. at Marietta.

MARIETTA, O., May 11.--The annual encampment of the G. A. R. department of Ohio will open to-morrow and the city is preparing to entertain 10,000 visitors. A reception was given last night to Department Commander Walton Weber, of Columbus, and his staff. The department commander will strongly urge the establishment of permanent headquarters at Columbus.

TWO WEEKS' STAY GRANTED.

Case of Moses Fowler Chase is Put Over to May 25.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., May 11.--After hearing the report of the appointed physicians this morning, in which it was stated that Moses Fowler Chase is hopelessly insane, Judge De Hart, in the Circuit Court, to-day granted a continuance in the guardianship trial, and the case will now come up on May 25 unless another postponement is granted. The action of the court was taken for the purpose of allowing the lawyers time to prepare for trial, and the latest change in the date of trial makes its outcome more uncertain than ever. Judge De Hart refused to postpone the case to the next term. The Duhamel attorneys have partially won their point by securing a delay in the time of trial. The date for the trial is so near the end of the pres-

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 5, COL. 5.)