

AFFIDAVIT QUASHED

MONROE COUNTY WHITECAPS ESCAPE ON A TECHNICALITY.

Again Re-arrested—Test of Bullet-Proof Cloth at South Bend—New Wabash National Guard.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. BLOOMINGTON, Ind., June 5.—For the second time, Judge Wilson today quashed the affidavits against the five men accused of whipping Joseph Shively and the Stephens women. The motion was argued yesterday by Judge Miers and J. E. Henley for the defense. The point raised was that the affidavits "on information" were not according to the statute, which provides that the prosecuting attorney may file a "verily believe" the statements in the affidavits to be true.

RAVAGES OF LIGHTNING.

Farmer Killed Near Peru, Barns Destroyed Near Alexandria. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. PERU, Ind., June 5.—C. Jones, a carpenter, was killed by lightning during a storm Thursday night while in a barn near Peru, ten miles south of Peru. He leaves a family. Two companions of the man were badly shocked. The same storm washed out a small bridge on the electric line between Logansport and Peru. A dozen or more cattle were killed at different points in the county. In the Logansport farm, near Giles, Deedsville, and one on the Sea farm, near Denver, were burned. No damage was done in Peru.

All the Rivers are Rising.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. EVANSVILLE, Ind., June 5.—This end of the State was visited by another hard rain to-night. It lasted several hours. The Ohio river is rising here. The Green, Barren, Rough and White rivers are also rising rapidly.

BULLET-PROOF CLOTH.

It is Given a Successful Test Before a South Bend Crowd. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. SOUTH BEND, Ind., June 5.—Casimir Zegic, of Chicago, gave a test of his bullet-proof cloth here last night in the presence of the city officials and newspaper men, and proved that his textile fabric could stop bullets from a revolver of any calibre.

New Wabash National Guard.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WABASH, Ind., June 5.—Harry Travis, who has been at work in the formation of a company of the National Guard in this city for the last three months, has at last succeeded in the Indian exercise of the muster roll, and the organization will be completed next week, when an officer is expected from Indianapolis. Local labor leaders sought to frustrate the plans of Travis, using their influence to prevent him from completing the muster roll. More than forty names could be secured. An army will be leased on Canal street.

Carnegie Library Dedicated.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. GREENCASTLE, Ind., June 5.—Newton W. Gilbert, lieutenant governor of the State, and Dr. J. P. D. John were the speakers at the dedication exercises of the new Carnegie library in this city. The programme consisted of musical selections in addition to a double quartet of De Pauw male voices and also a ladies' double quartet. It was the first time that exercises at the door of the library, but the weather made it necessary to hold the same at College street, E. Church. The building cost $15,000.

Thompson Club Banquet.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. TERRE HAUTE, Ind., June 5.—The banquet for the Thompson Club program June 5, in celebration of the anniversary of the birthday of the late Colonel Richard W. Thompson, for whom the club was named, has been arranged. Attorney General Charles W. Jexley will respond to the toast, "The Republican Party," and the Hon. John C. Chaney, of Sullivan, and Thomas W. Johnson, of Hamilton, and Joseph S. Jenckes is to give personal reminiscences of Colonel Thompson.

New Oil Field in Randolph.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WINCHESTER, Ind., June 5.—An organization known as the Oilwin Oil Company has just secured a good oil well upon the farm of Clarence Stultz, located near Huntsville, nine miles southwest of this city. This is entirely new territory for oil and is outside of what has been regarded as oil or gas territory. The same company recently developed a good gas well only two or three miles from the location of the present oil well.

Publicans Benten at Kokomo.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. KOKOMO, Ind., June 5.—In a contest before the County Commissioners, to-day, in which the applicants for seven retail saloon licenses sought to have seventeen names stricken from the remonstrance, not legal voters in the ward, the temperance people won, the commissioners holding the blanket remonstrance to be invalid and effective. The Third, Fourth and Fifth wards of Kokomo are now "dry"; the saloons won in the First ward.

George Ray's New Paper.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. SHELBURVILLE, Ind., June 5.—The material for the new paper to be launched by George M. Ray has been ordered, and the proprietor expects to print his first issue some time during the month of June. The sheet will be known as the Liberal, will be issued daily, and will contain news and will be seven columns, eight pages. In politics it will be Democratic.

Telephone Companies Merged.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WINCHESTER, Ind., June 5.—The two corporations known as the Winchester Telephone Company and the Eastern Indiana Telephone Company, the former having a plant in this city and the latter something like 30 miles of line throughout the county, have consolidated, and the organization will be known as the Winchester Telephone company.

Will Build Their Own Church.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. NEW CASTLE, Ind., June 5.—The Methodist church officials here have rejected all bids on their new church, and have contracted with Y. O. Miller, of Middletown, who erected the Maxim building, to superintend the work. They will build their own church. The plans adopted are by an Indianapolis architect.

Indiana Obituary.

GREENSBURG, Ind., June 5.—William Manlove, aged sixty-nine, is dead at his home in Greensburg. He was one of the early settlers of the county and an early prominent in politics. He served as a lieutenant in Company B, Seventy-sixth Indiana, during the civil war. He left a widow, one son and one daughter.

Colored Pythians' Conclave.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MUNCIE, Ind., June 5.—It was decided today to hold the Indiana Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias (colored), in Muncie on July 2 and 3.

REVISED LIST OF VICTIMS.

Names of the Persons Killed and Injured at Stillwell, Kan. KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 5.—Following is a revised list of the persons killed in the Santa Fe train wreck at Stillwell, Kan.: Link Day, Los Angeles, Cal.; William Newmyer, Plainfield, N. J.; Dan Montgomery, Prescott, Ariz.; E. H. Ward, New Castle, Pa.; C. A. Knicker, Chicago, Ill.; Charles M. Tarpardo, Porto Rico, student at Kansas University, Lawrence; Frank Johnson, conductor Pullman car; unknown, apparently a laborer; unknown man.

Indiana Notes.

MARION.—The enrollment of the Marion schools for the year is 4,196, about 200 more than the total enrollment last year. GRANT'SDALE, Ind., June 5.—The Pythians will hold their annual memorial services Sunday afternoon, June 7. The memorial address will be given by one of the local members, G. A. H. Shideler. During the past year there has been but one death from the disease, that of George De Wolf, a few days ago.

ELKHART.—Mrs. Anna Elliott Griffith, of Indianapolis, who has been conducting the Elkhart public library since the first of this year, has been appointed librarian of the Carnegie library at Elkhart. The library will not be dedicated before Sept. 1. Mrs. Griffith has been assistant librarian of the State University at Bloomington and an employee of the State Library Commission.

ELWOOD.—The surveying corps of the Union Traction Company completed its work at this end of the line for the new direct route connecting Elwood and Anderson via the new Pacific. The line is to be constructed this year. In connection with this the surveyors have staked out the new city limits of Elwood, which will be built in conjunction with the new Anderson line.

NEW CASTLE.—The city fire alarm system is being extended by order of the Town Board to the newer parts of town where the water mains have been laid. Harry March is now installed here as the new fire alarm bellman. A $3,000 addition was recently made to the system.

BLOOMINGTON.—John W. Mason, a local colored barber, has received official notification that he has been appointed instructor by Professor Bryan at Marion. He is the first colored teacher to go to the Philippines from Indiana.

SHELBYVILLE.—The term of Harry C. Board of Education, expired Tuesday and the Council on Thursday night elected Charles W. Jexley, of Logansport, and one on the Sea farm, near Denver, were burned. No damage was done in Peru.

TERRE HAUTE.—Louis T. Golding, who has been at work in the formation of a company of the National Guard in this city for the last three months, has at last succeeded in the Indian exercise of the muster roll, and the organization will be completed next week, when an officer is expected from Indianapolis.

EVANSVILLE.—This end of the State was visited by another hard rain to-night. It lasted several hours. The Ohio river is rising here. The Green, Barren, Rough and White rivers are also rising rapidly.

GREENCASTLE.—Newton W. Gilbert, lieutenant governor of the State, and Dr. J. P. D. John were the speakers at the dedication exercises of the new Carnegie library in this city.

WINCHESTER.—An organization known as the Oilwin Oil Company has just secured a good oil well upon the farm of Clarence Stultz, located near Huntsville, nine miles southwest of this city.

KOKOMO.—In a contest before the County Commissioners, to-day, in which the applicants for seven retail saloon licenses sought to have seventeen names stricken from the remonstrance, not legal voters in the ward, the temperance people won.

SHELBURVILLE.—The material for the new paper to be launched by George M. Ray has been ordered, and the proprietor expects to print his first issue some time during the month of June.

WINCHESTER.—The two corporations known as the Winchester Telephone Company and the Eastern Indiana Telephone Company, the former having a plant in this city and the latter something like 30 miles of line throughout the county, have consolidated.

NEW CASTLE.—The Methodist church officials here have rejected all bids on their new church, and have contracted with Y. O. Miller, of Middletown, who erected the Maxim building, to superintend the work.

GREENSBURG.—William Manlove, aged sixty-nine, is dead at his home in Greensburg. He was one of the early settlers of the county and an early prominent in politics.

GREENSBURG.—William Manlove, aged sixty-nine, is dead at his home in Greensburg. He was one of the early settlers of the county and an early prominent in politics.

GREENSBURG.—William Manlove, aged sixty-nine, is dead at his home in Greensburg. He was one of the early settlers of the county and an early prominent in politics.

GREENSBURG.—William Manlove, aged sixty-nine, is dead at his home in Greensburg. He was one of the early settlers of the county and an early prominent in politics.

GREENSBURG.—William Manlove, aged sixty-nine, is dead at his home in Greensburg. He was one of the early settlers of the county and an early prominent in politics.

GREENSBURG.—William Manlove, aged sixty-nine, is dead at his home in Greensburg. He was one of the early settlers of the county and an early prominent in politics.

GREENSBURG.—William Manlove, aged sixty-nine, is dead at his home in Greensburg. He was one of the early settlers of the county and an early prominent in politics.

GREENSBURG.—William Manlove, aged sixty-nine, is dead at his home in Greensburg. He was one of the early settlers of the county and an early prominent in politics.

GREENSBURG.—William Manlove, aged sixty-nine, is dead at his home in Greensburg. He was one of the early settlers of the county and an early prominent in politics.

GREENSBURG.—William Manlove, aged sixty-nine, is dead at his home in Greensburg. He was one of the early settlers of the county and an early prominent in politics.

GREENSBURG.—William Manlove, aged sixty-nine, is dead at his home in Greensburg. He was one of the early settlers of the county and an early prominent in politics.

GREENSBURG.—William Manlove, aged sixty-nine, is dead at his home in Greensburg. He was one of the early settlers of the county and an early prominent in politics.

GREENSBURG.—William Manlove, aged sixty-nine, is dead at his home in Greensburg. He was one of the early settlers of the county and an early prominent in politics.

GREENSBURG.—William Manlove, aged sixty-nine, is dead at his home in Greensburg. He was one of the early settlers of the county and an early prominent in politics.

GREENSBURG.—William Manlove, aged sixty-nine, is dead at his home in Greensburg. He was one of the early settlers of the county and an early prominent in politics.

Colored Pythians' Conclave.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MUNCIE, Ind., June 5.—It was decided today to hold the Indiana Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias (colored), in Muncie on July 2 and 3.

REVISED LIST OF VICTIMS.

Names of the Persons Killed and Injured at Stillwell, Kan. KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 5.—Following is a revised list of the persons killed in the Santa Fe train wreck at Stillwell, Kan.: Link Day, Los Angeles, Cal.; William Newmyer, Plainfield, N. J.; Dan Montgomery, Prescott, Ariz.; E. H. Ward, New Castle, Pa.; C. A. Knicker, Chicago, Ill.; Charles M. Tarpardo, Porto Rico, student at Kansas University, Lawrence; Frank Johnson, conductor Pullman car; unknown, apparently a laborer; unknown man.

Indiana Notes.

MARION.—The enrollment of the Marion schools for the year is 4,196, about 200 more than the total enrollment last year. GRANT'SDALE, Ind., June 5.—The Pythians will hold their annual memorial services Sunday afternoon, June 7. The memorial address will be given by one of the local members, G. A. H. Shideler. During the past year there has been but one death from the disease, that of George De Wolf, a few days ago.

ELKHART.—Mrs. Anna Elliott Griffith, of Indianapolis, who has been conducting the Elkhart public library since the first of this year, has been appointed librarian of the Carnegie library at Elkhart. The library will not be dedicated before Sept. 1. Mrs. Griffith has been assistant librarian of the State University at Bloomington and an employee of the State Library Commission.

ELWOOD.—The surveying corps of the Union Traction Company completed its work at this end of the line for the new direct route connecting Elwood and Anderson via the new Pacific. The line is to be constructed this year. In connection with this the surveyors have staked out the new city limits of Elwood, which will be built in conjunction with the new Anderson line.

NEW CASTLE.—The city fire alarm system is being extended by order of the Town Board to the newer parts of town where the water mains have been laid. Harry March is now installed here as the new fire alarm bellman. A $3,000 addition was recently made to the system.

BLOOMINGTON.—John W. Mason, a local colored barber, has received official notification that he has been appointed instructor by Professor Bryan at Marion. He is the first colored teacher to go to the Philippines from Indiana.

SHELBYVILLE.—The term of Harry C. Board of Education, expired Tuesday and the Council on Thursday night elected Charles W. Jexley, of Logansport, and one on the Sea farm, near Denver, were burned. No damage was done in Peru.

TERRE HAUTE.—Louis T. Golding, who has been at work in the formation of a company of the National Guard in this city for the last three months, has at last succeeded in the Indian exercise of the muster roll, and the organization will be completed next week, when an officer is expected from Indianapolis.

EVANSVILLE.—This end of the State was visited by another hard rain to-night. It lasted several hours. The Ohio river is rising here. The Green, Barren, Rough and White rivers are also rising rapidly.

GREENCASTLE.—Newton W. Gilbert, lieutenant governor of the State, and Dr. J. P. D. John were the speakers at the dedication exercises of the new Carnegie library in this city.

WINCHESTER.—An organization known as the Oilwin Oil Company has just secured a good oil well upon the farm of Clarence Stultz, located near Huntsville, nine miles southwest of this city.

KOKOMO.—In a contest before the County Commissioners, to-day, in which the applicants for seven retail saloon licenses sought to have seventeen names stricken from the remonstrance, not legal voters in the ward, the temperance people won.

SHELBURVILLE.—The material for the new paper to be launched by George M. Ray has been ordered, and the proprietor expects to print his first issue some time during the month of June.

WINCHESTER.—The two corporations known as the Winchester Telephone Company and the Eastern Indiana Telephone Company, the former having a plant in this city and the latter something like 30 miles of line throughout the county, have consolidated.

NEW CASTLE.—The Methodist church officials here have rejected all bids on their new church, and have contracted with Y. O. Miller, of Middletown, who erected the Maxim building, to superintend the work.

GREENSBURG.—William Manlove, aged sixty-nine, is dead at his home in Greensburg. He was one of the early settlers of the county and an early prominent in politics.

GREENSBURG.—William Manlove, aged sixty-nine, is dead at his home in Greensburg. He was one of the early settlers of the county and an early prominent in politics.

GREENSBURG.—William Manlove, aged sixty-nine, is dead at his home in Greensburg. He was one of the early settlers of the county and an early prominent in politics.

GREENSBURG.—William Manlove, aged sixty-nine, is dead at his home in Greensburg. He was one of the early settlers of the county and an early prominent in politics.

GREENSBURG.—William Manlove, aged sixty-nine, is dead at his home in Greensburg. He was one of the early settlers of the county and an early prominent in politics.

GREENSBURG.—William Manlove, aged sixty-nine, is dead at his home in Greensburg. He was one of the early settlers of the county and an early prominent in politics.

GREENSBURG.—William Manlove, aged sixty-nine, is dead at his home in Greensburg. He was one of the early settlers of the county and an early prominent in politics.

GREENSBURG.—William Manlove, aged sixty-nine, is dead at his home in Greensburg. He was one of the early settlers of the county and an early prominent in politics.

GREENSBURG.—William Manlove, aged sixty-nine, is dead at his home in Greensburg. He was one of the early settlers of the county and an early prominent in politics.

GREENSBURG.—William Manlove, aged sixty-nine, is dead at his home in Greensburg. He was one of the early settlers of the county and an early prominent in politics.

GREENSBURG.—William Manlove, aged sixty-nine, is dead at his home in Greensburg. He was one of the early settlers of the county and an early prominent in politics.

GREENSBURG.—William Manlove, aged sixty-nine, is dead at his home in Greensburg. He was one of the early settlers of the county and an early prominent in politics.

GREENSBURG.—William Manlove, aged sixty-nine, is dead at his home in Greensburg. He was one of the early settlers of the county and an early prominent in politics.

GREENSBURG.—William Manlove, aged sixty-nine, is dead at his home in Greensburg. He was one of the early settlers of the county and an early prominent in politics.

GREENSBURG.—William Manlove, aged sixty-nine, is dead at his home in Greensburg. He was one of the early settlers of the county and an early prominent in politics.

TO SETTLE A DIFFICULTY

ATTORNEY TO ARBITRATE I. O. PUBLISHER SOCIETY QUARREL.

Outlook for To-Day's Meet—Class Republicanism at Franklin—Class Play at Wabash—Other College News.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. BLOOMINGTON, Ind., June 5.—The two factions of the Publishing Association of Indiana University have decided on a plan for settling the dispute as to who are legal shareholders in the association, and H. M. Dowling, of Indianapolis, will be asked to hold a court of inquiry, hear all evidence and give his decision in the case. Each faction will file bond for $100 as a guarantee that it will accept the award of the arbitrator. Attorney Durbin has advised the committee that he will act. The court will be convened next Friday afternoon, and probably will hold over Saturday.

Great preparations are being made for the State intercollegiate track meet on Jordan Field to-morrow. The rains earlier in the week played havoc with the track and field, but men and women are still working rolling and dragging it, and getting it in the best possible shape for the big meet. It is expected that a number of records will be broken. Indiana's team is in better shape than at any time this season, and should make a strong bid for the honors. Teams from Purdue, Notre Dame, Wabash, Earlham and De Pauw arrived to-night, and are quartered at the Elkhart and Bunby hotels. Purdue is the favorite for first place in the meet, but Notre Dame is an unknown quantity this year, and may spring some surprises.

Purdue Expects to Win. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LAFAYETTE, Ind., June 5.—Confident of his way to the annual State intercollegiate athletic meet, the Purdue track team took final practice to-day and to-morrow will go on the early train to Bloomington, where the championship contests will take place. The splendid showing of Hearn and Verner in the Chicago meet makes Coach Freeman feel certain of capturing the mile and half mile, and in the jump and weight. Purdue also is almost certain of taking first place. There should be some close contests in the hurdles and the 100-yard dash. The team which has been making good marks. Every day since the Chicago meet, the team has been practicing. Eleven feet on the pole vault, continues to improve, and will soon go above that figure. Freeman, Levey and Osborn will give the others a race, and in the hurdles Peck, Osborn and Adams are showing up exceptionally well. The team will be in the two-mile run, "Long John" Miller still leads in the shot-put and hammer, and in the discus throw. About twenty men will participate in the State meet.

Marion Athlete Is Entered. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MARION, Ind., June 5.—Homer Thomas, an athlete of the Marion High School, went to Chicago to-night and will take part in the Western championship interscholastic field meet to be held on Jordan Field at Chicago to-morrow. Thomas is a member of the Marion High School, and is a member of the Indiana Amateur Athletic Union. He is a member of the Marion High School, and is a member of the Indiana Amateur Athletic Union. He is a member of the Marion High School, and is a member of the Indiana Amateur Athletic Union.

Wabash College. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WABASH, Ind., June 5.—The senior class is spending the two weeks of vacation in the city. The class play will be presented at Music Hall on the evening of June 13. The baseball schedule was demolished this week by rain. The games with the State Normal and Indiana University had to be canceled, and only five innings could be played with Mollot. Arrangements have been made for the class play. The class play will be presented at Music Hall on the evening of June 13.

Rehearsals for the Annual Class Play. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., June 5.—The senior class is spending the two weeks of vacation in the city. The class play will be presented at Music Hall on the evening of June 13. The baseball schedule was demolished this week by rain. The games with the State Normal and Indiana University had to be canceled, and only five innings could be played with Mollot. Arrangements have been made for the class play. The class play will be presented at Music Hall on the evening of June 13.

Old-Timers Will Play Ball. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. PERU, Ind., June 5.—James F. Stutesman, of this city, in one of the interested promoters of a baseball game that is proposed as part of the Wabash College commencement features at Crawfordsville on the 15th. The game is to be between the classes of the '80's and the '90's, and as so many of the men of those classes have risen to prominent places it will be interesting to see them in their old-time uniforms. The game will be played at Music Hall on the evening of June 13.

Franklin College. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. FRANKLIN, Ind., June 5.—Class spirit between the upper classes of Franklin College has been running high all day. The seniors had intended to wear their caps and gowns in chapel this morning for the first time, but the juniors, hearing of their intention, went to the chapel in their own gowns, and as a result only two seniors appeared this morning. It is not known what intentions the juniors have or what course the seniors will pursue. The juniors have borrowed all the caps and gowns owned by the alumni of this city in order to prevent the seniors from getting them, and thus deprive them of the privilege of wearing them at the graduating exercises next week.

Probably Fatal Fall. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. ELWOOD, Ind., June 5.—While Milo Campbell, thirty-two years old and married, was at work on the roof of the Webb bakery making some repairs the scaffold gave way and he was precipitated to the ground, a distance of thirty-two feet. No bones were broken, but he was terribly shaken up and received internal injuries from which it is feared he will not recover.

Baby Drowned in a Jar. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. RUSSIAVILLE, Ind., June 5.—The fifteen months' old child of Norman O. and Mrs. Davis was playing in the yard at his home, five miles southeast of this place, yesterday afternoon, and fell head first into a ten-gallon jar about half filled with water. The child had been out of the mother's sight only a few minutes.

Suffered Identical Injuries. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. EVANSVILLE, Ind., June 5.—John Friedley and Joseph Walter, while riding their wheels on opposite sides of the public square this afternoon, collided with wagons and were fatally hurt. Both men have concussion of the brain.

Fell Down Elevator Shaft. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. AUORA, Ind., June 5.—While working on the third floor of the Royer Wheel Company's plant, this afternoon, Harry Mitchell, aged seventeen, fell down an elevator shaft, breaking his jawbone and receiving internal injuries.

'Fluence to Spare. Detroit Journal. Miss Hanna, who succeeded in having the Ohio state convention postponed because it conflicted with her wedding, ought to be in a position to loan some influence to her father.

Rose Polytechnic Notes.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. TERRE HAUTE, Ind., June 5.—The faculty of Rose entertained the Terre Haute Science Club last evening, and it being the last meeting of the season of the usual feast of peanuts was provided.

The athletic association has made arrangements to raise a fund for the employment of a coach for the football team. Coach Steeg, of Chicago University, has been named as the coach. The association is trying to get in communication with him. It is believed the athletic association will come out even on the finances of the year now closing.

The final examinations began Wednesday for all classes. There is a spirited rivalry for the medals for the senior and freshmen classes.

Notre Dame University. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. SOUTH BEND, Ind., June 5.—The tennis tournament of Notre Dame was finished this afternoon. Funk and De Leon won the doubles. The singles were won by Funk.

The second public hearing in America of the phonographic record of Pope Leo's papal benediction was heard at the cathedral of Notre Dame to-day. Mass was celebrated this morning by President Morrissey, following which the students recited a prayer for the pope. In the afternoon there was solemn benediction, the exercises being conducted by Vice President French.

State Normal Notes. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. TERRE HAUTE, Ind., June 5.—W. H. Stone, an assistant instructor in grammar at the Indiana Normal, was elected county superintendent of DeWitt county this week. He is a Normal graduate of the class of 1902, and last fall and winter attended Indiana University.

Governor Durbin had been expected to be a guest of President Parsons, Thursday, on his way from Evansville to Indianapolis, but he was unable to do so because of a few minutes. There is much speculation as to whom the Governor will appoint to succeed the late Critchfield as auditor, as a member of the board of trustees.

President Bryan, of Indiana University, has been elected to the position of auditor of the State Normal at Terre Haute, Ind., on Wednesday on "Education by Occupation."

Purdue's Annual Is Issued. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LAFAYETTE, Ind., June 5.—The 1903 Purdue, Purdue's annual publication, made its appearance yesterday. It contains the usual collection of jokes, grinds and "roasts," but in several ways it is better than any previous issue. The cuts of the teams and societies are clear, and there are many new and interesting features. One objectionable feature is the "What Is the Answer" and consists of a bitter attack on Harry G. Leslie, athletic manager, captain of the Purdue football team, and a member of the board of trustees.

President Bryan, of Indiana University, has been elected to the position of auditor of the State Normal at Terre Haute, Ind., on Wednesday on "Education by Occupation."

Purdue's Annual Is Issued. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LAFAYETTE, Ind., June 5.—The 1903 Purdue, Purdue's annual publication, made its appearance yesterday. It contains the usual collection of jokes, grinds and "roasts," but in several ways it is better than any previous issue. The cuts of the teams and societies are clear, and there are many new and interesting features. One objectionable feature is the "What Is the Answer" and consists of a bitter attack on Harry G. Leslie, athletic manager, captain of the Purdue football team, and a member of the board of trustees.

Earlham's Music Recital. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. RICHMOND, Ind., June 5.—The second feature in the Earlham College commencement week was the recital of the music department to-night. It was given in Lindley Hall in the presence of a large audience. Those who took part were Pearl Rinehart, Edna White, Mary Taylor, Flora Hobson, Berna Halliday, Grace Forrey, Anna B. Wolford, Jeanette Morris, Margaret Jenney, Miss Margaret, Miss Marie, Miss Phillips, Walter Allee, Cophine Mills, Edna Keen, Vivian Lloyd, Louise Boyd and Mamie N. Hough.

Notes of the Schools. MADISON.—Three boys and seven girls were graduated from the Madison High School Thursday night. Prof. C. M. McDaniel has been elected city superintendent for another year. Charles E. Johnson, sr., has been elected city school trustee, vice C. A. Hillabro, whose time expired. Vivian Lloyd, Louise Boyd and Mamie N. Hough.

EVANSVILLE.—The Grand Opera House was filled to overflowing Friday night at the fifty-first anniversary of the opening of the local high school. There were forty-nine graduates. Edward B. Funk (Dem.) was elected city school trustee of the city of Princeton by the City Council. Six years ago he was Democratic candidate for mayor.

BLOOMINGTON.—The twenty-ninth annual commencement of the Bloomington High School was held Friday night in the city hall. The class consisted of twenty-seven boys and nine girls who were addressed by Prof. Sherman Davis, of the University of Indiana.

MARTINSVILLE.—The local high school held its twenty-eighth annual commencement on Thursday night, in the Christian church. The class consisted of twenty-seven boys and nine girls who were addressed by Prof. Sherman Davis, of the University of Indiana.

SULLIVAN.—The thirty-second annual commencement of the Sullivan High School was held Friday night at the Christian church. The class consisted of twenty-seven boys and nine girls who were addressed by Prof. Sherman Davis, of the University of Indiana.

COLUMBIA CITY.—Nine graduates—all being girls—were graduated from the Columbia City High School Friday night at the twenty-third annual commencement of the local high school, held at the First Presbyterian Church. There were twenty-seven graduates from the local high school at the commencement exercises held at the Indiana Traction Company's plant in this city. Eleven boys and sixteen girls made up the class.

Bishop Alrding a Defendant. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. FORT WAYNE, Ind., June 5.—Anna McDonald, of Bluffton, filed suit in the Superior Court of this county to-day against Bishop Alrding and the St. Joseph Hospital, claiming $2,000 for damages, when a patient undergoing a surgical operation. She avers that before recovering from the operation she was injured by the water placed to her feet and so badly burned one that amputation may be necessary. The bishop is ex officio co-defendant.

Granted to the Wife of a Partner of the French Lick Magnate. LAPORTE, Ind., June 5.—A milliner's bill sent to the house when her husband was absent gave Mrs. Alvina Brown, of Michigan City, the clew which led to the securing of information on which she based an application for divorce from Albert H. Brown, a well-known Indiana sporting man, proprietor of the Casino at French Lick Springs, and with Tom Taggart, of Indianapolis, interested in various ventures.

On the stand in the Laporte Circuit Court to-day Mrs. Brown told how her husband had purchased a new automobile, and that she had given him the money necessary to support the purchase. She testified that her husband had given her a check that her husband might secure $1,000, and ended Christmas last, when he knocked her down and injured her so badly she had not got over it. Brown made only formal defense.

The plaintiff was given the custody of the two children, for whose care and education Brown will provide until they are of age. The divorce is granted on the ground of desertion, but it is claimed Mrs. Brown receives about $1,000. The defendant is said to have property worth about $200,000, which was tied up in a bank by order of the court during the proceedings.

Police Commissioners McCulloch and Steinhauer Resign. The Resignations Were Forthcoming Upon Receipt of Letters from Governor Durbin. Received Amount of His Claim.

WITNESSES.—The jury to-day returned a verdict awarding the plaintiff $1,000 damages, the full amount of his claim, in the case of Martin Sullivan