CLOSE OF THE LATONIA MEET

CINCINNATI SPRING HANDICAP CAPTURED BY FONSOLUCA.

Sinner Simon Beaten Only a Neck-Club Members' Handicap at St. Louis Won by Found.

NEW YORK, June 6.—Capt. S. S. Brown's Broomstick, with Odum up, romped home an easy winner in the Great American stakes at Gravesend to-day. The Ben Brush-Eli colt was a hot favorite, closing at 4 to 5. He also smashed the record for the race by covering the five furlongs in 1:09 flat. This rich stake brought out a first-class field of youngsters. Despite the fact that Captain Brown's colt was carrying the heavy impost of 125 pounds, the public made him a hot favorite, with Whitney's Stallwart second choice. Broomstick was first to show to a good start, with Beaufel second. Following into the stretch Odum let his mount have his head and he simply galloped home a winner by two lengths, with Stallwart second, two lengths in front of Tim Sullivan.

Irish Lad, the winner of the Brooklyn handicap, to-day showed himself to be the best three-year-old seen here for some time by his decisive victory in the Broadway stakes. The Brooklyn winner was never fully extended at any part of the journey. He handled the 125 pounds in fine style, and getting off in front, made his own pace and won easily by a length and a half from Floccarine, who closed with a rush in the stretch. The mile and a sixteenth was covered in 1:47 flat, which is the fastest time this race has ever been run in. In a hot finish Eophon won the Kensington steeplechase by a head from the Ragged Cavalier. WON BY AN ERRATIC MARE.

Club Members' Handicap at St. Louis Taken by Found.

ST. LOUIS, June 6.—Found, Johnny Huffman's erratic eight-year-old mare by Buckmaster-Pickup, with Jockey L. Wilson up, won the Club Members' handicap at a mile and a quarter at the fair grounds to-day. Little Scout, the heavily-played favorite, and who was sent here especially for this race, was second, two lengths off Found, on her two previous starts this year, had been left at the post on both occasions, and her bad acting at the post and tendency to seek lost her many supporters. To-day she was held straight by an assistant starter, and when the barrier went up, to the surprise of the vast throng, broke with the field. The start was good, Edgardo taking the lead, with Little Scout second, and Found third. At the quarter Found went into the lead, passing Edgardo and Little Scout, and was fast opening up daylight between herself and the field when jockey Wilson took a double wrap on her and held her steady. At the three-quarters the positions were still the same. Nearing the stretch Edgardo fell back and was passed by Little Scout. Found could not catch Found in the stretch, and she won, pulling up, by three lengths. Track record, six furlongs: Ziri, 95 (F. Smith), 12 to 5, won; both, 97 (L. Wilson), 9 to 1, second; Curd Gillock, 102 (Morso), 15 to 1, third. Time, 1:18 1-2. Herodas, Verona, Fonsa, Iris, Orangen, Royal Athlete and Katie Gibson also ran. Jockey fell off Early Regent at the start. Fourth—One and one-half furlongs: Sweet Myrtle, 100 (A. W. Booker), 6 to 1, won; Enigma, 100 (Sheehan), 15 to 1, second; Lady Kay, 98 (Gullett), 7 to 2, third. Time, 1:08. Cincinnati Spring Handicap Barely Won by Fonsoluca.

CINCINNATI, June 6.—This was getaway day at Latonia and the six events were run off on a track deep in mud. The stake feature was the Cincinnati spring handicap at a mile and an eighth. The race resulted in an exciting finish between Fonsoluca, Sinner Simon and Boaster. Fonsoluca won by a neck in the very last stride, Sinner Simon getting the place by half a length from Boaster. Fonsoluca and Silk Cord were coupled in the betting and were even money favorites throughout. Silk Cord set out all the running until the half-mile pole was reached, when Sinner Simon took the lead and held it in the stretch. Fonsoluca and Boaster came up with a rush and caught Sinner Simon a hundred yards from the wire and the trio went under the wire in a close bunch. Value of the stake to the winner was $1,500. Three out of the six winners were favorites. The meeting was the most successful held by the Latonia Jockey Club in years. The weather was threatening, but a large crowd was in attendance. McCHESNEY THE VICTOR

WON THE HARLEM NATIONAL HANDICAP IN A GALLOP.

Carried Top Weight and Beat the Popular Gregor K. a Length and a Half on a Heavy Track.

VICTORY WAS HONESTLY WON

E. E. SMATHERS SO PLEASED HE GAVE JOCKEY GRAY $8,000.

Entire Purse Presented to the Rider and $1,000 Given to the Rubber-Nineteen Horses Started.

CHICAGO, June 7.—McChesney, the West's greatest thoroughbred, won the Harlem National handicap to-day. If ever the stamp of quality was earned by a racehorse, it belongs to McChesney. At every turn in the race he was a winner. Every step of the way jockey C. Gray held him where he could gallop to the front. He ran strongly and easily and secured as honest a victory as the turf has recorded. Galloping under the wire, going almost as he pleased, he beat Gregor K., the popular three-year-old, by a length and a half. McChesney's owner, E. E. Smathers, gave Gray, the winning jockey, the entire purse, it amounts to $8,000. The horse's rubber received $1,000. McChesney carried the top weight of 127 pounds on a heavy track not to his liking in a big field of nineteen horses, which was delayed seventeen minutes at the post. The race could not have been more truly run. The start was good. Jockey Gray, who rode McChesney because jockey Bullman was injured in New York, did all and probably more than that Eastern rider could have accomplished. Gregor K. jumped out into the front and the big California colt, Epicure, followed him and Linguist came next. McChesney was sixth. It was a brilliant piece of jockeyship on Gray's part. The field did not string far out on the back stretch, but ran nicely and fairly well bunched. Gregor K. kept the lead by a length, with Epicure and Linguist close up. Passing the half-mile McChesney was sixth. Jockey Gray moved him up a little. Not quickly, but easily, naturally and handily. When the big field had made the bend, McChesney had quietly moved up to second place. Only Gregor K. stood between him and victory. The cries of "McChesney wins" began to come, and every eye farther down the stretch told that the story was true. Just sitting still and allowing the horse to do his best was the part played by Gray. Gradually McChesney came to the front. He had the race won an eighth of a mile out. Farther along he had a lead of two lengths, and when Gregor K. proved unable to gain, Jockey Gray eased up and won by a little over a length. For Gregor K. it must be said that he ran a good race. It would have been a greater performance had he not been so completely overshadowed by the wonderful victory of McChesney. Hargis maintained his speed and ran third. EVERYBODY PLEASED. The time of the race was 2:10 3-5, which was good, considering the track conditions, excitement and enthusiasm. The crowd could not get through cheering. There were renewed rounds of applause every minute. The placing of the races, aside from the appearance of Sam Hildreth in front of the judges' stand and the sight of Jockey Gray were all made excuses for new cheers.

Mr. Smathers, pleased beyond expression, took it as a most personal victory, as it indicates the price he paid for the horse. Smathers is believed to have won $40,000 in the future book. Flying Torpedo was the post favorite at 4 to 1. McChesney, because of the doubt cast on his ability to go on a heavy track, went up to 8 to 1 and was not played to any extent. The crowd which saw the handicap was the largest gathering of the season. Smathers scored a double victory, his two-year-old purchase, Dick Bernard, winning the fourth race. The rider, as in the case of McChesney, was the hero of the day. Jockey C. Gray. Weather clear, track slow. Summaries:

MONEY FOR CHINESE.

Ten Thousand Dollars for the Famine Sufferers of Kwang-Si.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—The Christian Herald today transmitted to Assistant Secretary of State Loomis a check for $10,000 for the establishment of a relief fund for the famine sufferers in the Chinese province of Kwang-Si. Mr. Loomis deposited the money here and notified the United States Consul General, McWade at Canton that he may draw for the amount of the check. Every report that comes to the State Department contains the most pathetic stories of extreme destitution prevailing in Kwang-Si, leading to the commission of unnatural crimes, such as the sale of daughters into concubinage and there are hints of cannibalism.

Accidentally Asphyxiated.

ATLANTIC CITY, June 6.—John R. McPettridge, head of the printing and publishing firm of John R. McPettridge & Sons, Philadelphia, was found dead in his cottage here last night. The room was filled with illuminating gas, and the coroner's certificate states that death was caused by accidental asphyxiation. The news of McPettridge's death was not made public until to-day.
