SURGEONS FOR RAILWAYS INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION WILL OPEN CONVENTION TO-DAY. Over Five Hundred Delegates, Representing the United States, Canada and Mexico, Expected.

The annual convention of the International Association of Railway Surgeons will be opened in this city to-day and the meeting promises to be one of the most notable gatherings of prominent professional men Indianapolis has ever been called upon to entertain. Between 500 and 700 members of the association are expected, representing all parts of the United States, Canada and Mexico.

MAYOR SUMMONS BOEGLIN SALOON LICENSE WILL BE REVOKED IF CHARGES ARE PROVED. Place Has Been Resort of Bad Characters and Numerous Brawls Have Annoyed Police. Saloon keeper Philip Boeglin, who attempted to kill Patrolman William Bailey, Monday night, and was himself badly wounded by the unerring aim of the policeman, must appear before Mayor Bookwalter next Monday morning at 10 o'clock to state why his saloon license shall not be revoked.

Boeglin's saloon is at the corner of Virginia avenue and Bradshaw street. There have been a number of brawls in the place lately which have caused the police a great deal of annoyance. Yesterday afternoon a fight was reported in Boeglin's place and a patrolman was sent there to investigate. When they got there nothing was found. The participants had received a timely tip and had made good their escape.

Committee Did Not Meet. The Council committee on investigation and impeachment held no meeting last night. On account of the Woodmen's convention the members were unable to get together. Mr. Eppert is a member of the Modern Woodmen of America and had made an engagement to attend a meeting last night. Chairman Wynne says the committee will probably meet some night this week, a date has not been set.

Thirty Extra Patrolmen. Thirty extra patrolmen were sworn in by the Board of Public Safety yesterday for duty this week. They will be assigned to night duty, every man to run with a regular man. Thirty of the regulars will be removed from night to day duty to look after the extra patrolmen here for the Woodmen's convention.

MR. YANDES RETURNS HOME. Aged Philanthropist Still Weak, but Thought to Be Out of Danger. Simon Yandes, who suffered a physical collapse yesterday while attending a meeting of the board of trustees of Wabash College, of which he is a member, returned to the city from Crawfordsville last night. Mr. Yandes is still weak from the effects of the seizure, but it is hoped there will be no serious results.

During the meeting of the board Mr. Yandes left the room and was gone so long that his associates became alarmed. Several went to look for him and he was found in an auto-room, utterly helpless. He had insisted on walking to the college grounds from the railroad station, a distance of fully two miles, and had overtaken his strength. Mr. Yandes is an elderly man of great wealth and recently gave $50,000 to the Presbyterian Board of Missions, as well as making other contributions to the Presbyterian Church.

TOO MUCH FOR WHALLON. Foreigners in Police Court Told Their Troubles in Queer Tongue. Anton Qualizza, Philde Belke, Joe Simko, Steve Sundar, Joe Kuhner and Jesse Baker were arraigned before Judge Whallon, of the Police Court, yesterday morning. All were charged with battery on each other. Qualizza and Belke had an additional charge of carrying concealed weapons made against them by the patrolmen who placed them under arrest. As the foreigners were unable to understand a word of English, the court was compelled to hear the testimony through an interpreter. All were discharged, with the recommendation that if they want to fight they must go to their own country, where they could sell their troubles to a court in their own language.

THIRTY GRAINS OF MORPHINE. Alonzo S. Slater Tried to Kill Himself Because of Despondency. Alonzo S. Slater, 204 South East street, attempted to end his life by taking thirty grains of morphine yesterday afternoon, and only the timely action of Dr. Johnson, of the City Dispensary, saved him from death. Slater, who has been in ill health for some time, was despondent because he was unable to stand the work he had to do at the Big Four freight house, decided to commit suicide. He took the drug shortly before noon, and his mother and sister, who noticed his peculiar actions, became alarmed and called the City Dispensary for medical attention.

KEPT OPEN ON SUNDAY. Solomon Bleser, Prosecuted by Clerks' Association, Fined $1 and Costs. Solomon Bleser, a merchant who conducts a store on West Washington street, was fined $1 and costs in Justice Shepard's court yesterday morning for keeping his store open on Sunday in violation of the city ordinance covering that offense. The attorneys for the defense took an appeal to the Criminal Court, claiming that the ordinance was not properly drawn. The case was brought by the Retail Clerks' Association and is the second of that character to be prosecuted by them in the last two weeks.

STONE BELT TOUR POSTPONED. It is Hoped that by Next Week Strike Will Have Been Settled. Upon the suggestion of President McDool, of the Monon, who yesterday telegraphed W. W. Wicks from New York, the Indiana World's Fair Commission trip through the Colitic stone belt has been postponed another week. By that time, it is thought, the strike at Bedford will have been settled.

Judge Henry Clay Gooding. Judge Henry Clay Gooding, now an attorney-at-law in Los Angeles, Cal., but a native of Hancock county, Indiana, and a brother of Judge David S. Gooding, after a brief visit to his relatives and friends in Indiana, left Indianapolis yesterday en route to his home in California. He has quite an honorable record in this State. A captain in the 10th Indiana Cavalry, he afterwards a State senator, a Republican nominee for Congress in the Evansville district, and afterwards a President of the Arizona Territory by appointment of President Harrison, which office he resigned soon after the inauguration of President Cleveland, and subsequently located in California.

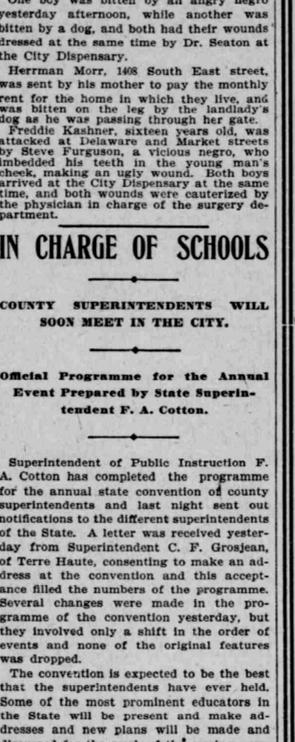

TWO YOUNG BOYS BITTEN. One the Victim of a Negro and the Other Lacerated by a Dog. A boy was bitten by an angry negro yesterday afternoon, while another was bitten by a dog, and both had their wounds dressed at the same time by Dr. Seaton at the City Dispensary. Herrman Morr, 1408 South East street, was sent by his mother to pay the monthly rent for the home in which they live, and was bitten on the leg by the family's dog as he was passing through her yard. Freddie Kashner, sixteen years old, was attacked at Delaware and Market streets by Steve Fursusop, a vicious negro, who imbedded his teeth in the young man's cheek, making a deep, ugly wound. Both boys arrived at the City Dispensary at the same time, and both wounds were cauterized by the physician in charge of the surgery department.

IN CHARGE OF SCHOOLS. COUNTY SUPERINTENDENTS WILL SOON MEET IN THE CITY. Official Programme for the Annual Event Prepared by State Superintendent F. A. Cotton. Superintendent of Public Instruction F. A. Cotton has completed the programme for the annual state convention of county superintendents and last night sent out notifications to the different superintendents of the State. A letter was received yesterday from Superintendent C. F. Grosjean, of Terre Haute, consenting to make an address at the convention and this acceptance filled the numbers of the programme. Several changes were made in the programme of the convention yesterday, but they involved only a shift in the order of events and none of the original features was dropped.

The convention is expected to be the best that the superintendents have ever held. Some of the most prominent educators in the State will be present and make addresses and new plans will be made and discussed for the work of the coming year. Superintendent Cotton is working hard for the success of the meeting and says that he expects eighty-five or ninety of the ninety-two county superintendents to be present and take part in the work. The convention will be held on June 20 and July 1 in the Supreme Court room of the Statehouse. The headquarters of the teachers will be at the Grand Hotel. The officers are: Dr. E. C. Crier, president; E. C. Crier, secretary; and Claude Sauer, treasurer. Dr. William L. Bryan, president of Indiana University, will be present and make one of the principal addresses. A part of one day of the convention will be devoted to a visit to the B. Laycock's factory, which is said to be one of the best managed and regulated in the country. The programme is as follows: Tuesday—10:30 o'clock, devotional exercises; address by Superintendent Dr. William L. Bryan, president State University; discussion, Dr. W. T. Stott, president Franklin College; address by Dr. W. T. Stott, associate professor department of psychology and methods, State Normal School, 2 p. m., "Reading Circle Work"; A. L. Gray, of Indianapolis Young People's Reading Circle; address, F. A. Cotton. Wednesday—9 a. m., "Indiana Educational Exhibit at the World's Fair," Senator Fremont Goodwin, chairman educational committee, Indiana World's Fair commission; visit to T. B. Laycock's factory, 2 p. m., symposium on "County Superintendents"; ex-County Superintendent Elmer E. H. P. WASSON & CO. BOARD GRANTS FRANCHISE. Agreement Reached with Cincinnati & Indianapolis Traction Company. The Board of Commissioners of Marion county granted a franchise to Charles L. Henry, president of the Cincinnati & Indianapolis Traction Company, to enter the county yesterday. The road is to be built upon a private right of way except a strip of about 575 feet along Railroad street in Julietta. The right is given by the franchise to cross all intervening highways along the private right of way, and the board granted the right of way across the Julietta asylum grounds adjacent to the C. H. & D. tracks. For this right the company is to pay the county $25. The company made a deposit in the sum of $1,000 to secure performance of its part of the contract in compliance with the conditions made by the Board of Commissioners. Acceptance was immediately filed and the work is to begin as soon as possible.
