

POPE LEO HAS PASSED AWAY.

(CONCLUDED FROM FIRST PAGE.)

bed was surrounded by practically all the members of the Sacred College now in Rome...

Profound silence reigned in the Pope's room, only broken by the doctors rising to render their dying patient more comfortable...

It was a most solemn moment. The head of the Pontiff, with its white skull-cap, no whiter than the fringe of silvery hair rising above the crimson velvet...

The doctors again examined the dying Holy Father, and this time found that he had lost the entire power of voluntary respiration...

The last conscious act of the Pontiff was to turn his head toward the altar, and to look on the wall, after which he suffered from a spasm of choking, during which he passed away.

Then the silence of the awe-stricken assemblage was broken by the sonorous, solemn voice of Cardinal Cicerio...

Outside the death chamber expectation was intense, but the sight of the sorrowing faces of those leaving the room was sufficient without words to spread the same feeling...

The occurrence of the death chamber immediately following the Pope's demise was of impressive solemnity. Couriers had been dispatched to summon to the Vatican...

Two Noble Guards took up positions at the foot of the bier, and the same appearance as it did at the time of the final illness of the Pope...

The gruesome details of the embalming were performed until after the lapse of twenty-four hours. Then the body will be robed in its pontifical ornaments for the imposing funeral ceremonies.

FEELING IN ROME. Mark of Respect by the King—Condolence—Vatican Questions.

ROME, July 20.—By a coincidence to-day is the birthday of Dowager Queen Margherita, the mother of King Victor Emmanuel, and flags had been put all over the city in her honor...

The government has renewed the most energetic orders. Premier Zanardelli attending to the work of the cabinet...

THE WORLD NOTIFIED. Immediately following the death of the Pope cable dispatches and telegrams were dispatched to all parts of the world...
