GENERAL SPORTING NOTES

Directum, 2054, has nineteen standard points to his credit. Nervola and Dillon Boy, two of Scott Hudson's stable, go to the auction room this fall. There is a seasonally fast green pacer by Astor and Wilkes, 2:17 1/2, at the track. Tom Callahan, of Philadelphia, has gone to the track to buy a regular fast to box Kid Broad twenty rounds on Nov. 3. Fedar Palmer, Jack Roberts and George Dixon, the pugilists, will leave England to fight in this country about the middle of November. Coach Abbott, of the Dickinson football team, has left that institution and gone to the University of Virginia for the balance of the season. The blind trotter Rhythme, 2:06 1/2, one of the greatest money winners of the Grand Circuit in 1932, and a mainstay for two seasons of Scott Hudson's good stable, will be retired to the stud for good coming season. Africander, the crack three-year-old of the season, taking sixth exercise again and will be all right to go into the regular next season. Dick Miller, the trainer, said that the colt had been suffering from a blow on a tendon. Sidney Dillon, sire of Lou Dillon, was not considered of much account in California or elsewhere until recently. Even the Pierce Brothers, owners of Santa Rosa farm, did not breed their best mares to him, but shipped them away to more noted studs. Aurelia Herrera, the Mexican featherweight who knocked out Eddie Santry in Anconada, Mont., recently, will not be able to fight again for a few weeks. He hurt his hand during the bout, which he claimed prevented him from beating Santry sooner. Major Delmar, one of the first champion trotters that has carried the blood of George Wilkes, 2:22, though the Wilkes family has produced more crack campaigners than any other in the stud book, it is a regular fact that no trotter having a cross of the blood ever won a record. E. E. Smathers, it is reported, will leave Billy Buck, Kent, Wentworth, Sadie Mac, John M., Hilar and one or two others at Memphis for the remainder of the season and both will go home.
