

SESSION OF TEACHERS

BREAKS AN RECORD

Fiftieth Meeting Is Largest in the History of the Organization.

VAN MATRE'S ADDRESS

New President Makes Address—Talk by Retiring Executive Officer.

The fiftieth session of the Indiana Teachers' Association... The opening session was well attended and was sufficiently interesting to hold the attention of the teachers until the close.

An orchestra from the Manual Training High School gave the opening musical number, a spirited selection from the opera "When Johnny Comes Marching Home."

Superintendent Van Matre, in his remarks, compared the English system of schools with those of America, alluding to the commission composed of England's ablest educators that came here to study our system.

GOOD COMMON SENSE IS NECESSARY IN READING. At the meeting of the Education and Reading Section, held at the Statehouse, three papers were read.

INDIVIDUAL WORK IS URGED IN HIGH SCHOOLS. A feature of the meeting of the high school section was a piano solo by Miss Anastasia O'Donnell, which opened the session.

INSTRUCTORS WANT TO JOIN ASSOCIATION. Last August those of the State interested in county institute work expected to see a section of the State Teachers' Association.

MATHEMATICAL TEXT-BOOKS ARE OBSCURE. The mathematical section of the State Teachers' Association was, perhaps, one of the most largely attended of any of the sections yesterday.

TEACHERS SHOULD MAKE PROFESSION AN ART. The classical section met in the Claypool Hotel yesterday morning and listened to papers read upon the subjects of language.

TEACHERS SHOULD BE SURE TO APPEAR WELL. At a meeting of the primary section Miss Margaret Mooney, of Richmond, was elected president and Miss Hoopengartner, of Bedford, was elected secretary.

UNITS ARE NECESSARY FOR SUCCESSFUL WORK. Superintendents Offer Suggestion and Advice with Each Other for Good of Schools.

The county superintendents yesterday laid particular stress upon the county and township institute work, in which they are particularly interested.

BOOKS OF TRAVEL GOOD. The county superintendents yesterday laid particular stress upon the county and township institute work.

The result of the discussion seemed to be that it was necessary for county institute first to get the instructors and then to obtain the co-operation of every school teacher in the county in the work.

PUPILS DO NOT PREFER TO BE BIBLE CHARACTERS. Superintendent T. A. Mott, of Richmond, presented some very interesting facts at the meeting of the grammar school section.

Superintendent T. A. Mott, of Richmond, presented some very interesting facts at the meeting of the grammar school section, held yesterday afternoon in the ball room at the Claypool Hotel.

DEPARTMENTAL WORK PROVES SUCCESSFUL. Miss Kate Woods, secretary of the Teachers' Association and instructor of music and drawing in the Evansville city schools, believes that the children of the country are each year cultivating a taste for better music.

Miss Woods bases her belief largely on her experience with the young people of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades. She is in charge of those grades and it is a peculiar fact that she is brought into contact with 300 children each day.

BEGINNERS GATHER IN THEIR ANNUAL SESSION. The kindergarten teachers claim that they are the real beginning of education and should, for that paramount reason, have representation in the State Teachers' Association.
