

THE DAILY JOURNAL

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1904.

TELEPHONE CALLS.

Either Company—2 p. m. to midnight through the week and from 6 p. m. to midnight on Sunday, ask for the Journal, then ask for the Journal.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

BY CARRIER—INDIANAPOLIS AND SUBURBS. Daily, 5 cents; Sunday, 40 cents a week, 100 cents a month, 3 dollars a year.

BY MAIL PREPAID.

Daily edition, one year, $10.00. Daily and Sunday, one year, $12.50.

Weekly Edition.

One copy, one year, $1.00. One copy, three months, 30 cents.

THE INDIANAPOLIS JOURNAL NEWSPAPER CO.

Indianapolis, Ind.

Persons sending the Journal through the mails in the United States should put on eight-cent postage.

THE INDIANAPOLIS JOURNAL.

Can be found at the following places: CHICAGO—Palmer House, Auditorium Annex Hotel, Eastern Station, News Stand.

CINCINNATI—J. H. Hawley & Co., Arcade, Grand Hotel.

COLUMBUS, O.—Vindicator News Stand, 230 High street.

DAYTON, O.—J. V. Wildie, 29 South Jefferson street.

DENVER, Col.—Lenthall & Jackson, Fifteenth and Larimer streets, and Bruffs, 1627 Champa street.

DES MOINES, Ia.—Miss Jacobs, 505 Fifth street.

LOS ANGELES, Cal.—Harry Drapkin.

LOUISVILLE, Ky.—Deering, northwest corner of Third and Jefferson streets, and Bluefield Hotel, 48 West Market street.

NEW YORK—Astor House.

ST. LOUIS—Union News Company, Union Depot.

ST. JOHNS-ON-Hois.—E. E. Carriel, Station D.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Riggs House, Ebbitt House, Fairfax Hotel, Willard Hotel.

Henry Watterson shows that he is a true sport by being just as particular about the Democratic nominee as if he thought that party was going to win the election.

The score of Democratic senators in favor of the Panama canal treaty has become a score and one, and there will doubtless be more to follow.

The czar of the Rumanias has evidently been obliged to admit his inability to live up to his own peace congress.

Senator Platt surely remarks, in regard to buying Colombia's good will for cash, that this country will very likely have use for all its money if it begins to buy the friendship of those nations which are for some reason or other dissatisfied with our policy.

The Foraker amendment to the Sherman law is called in an evening contemporary "an administration measure."

Eastern politicians construe the election of Isidor Rayner as United States senator from Maryland as completing the elimination of Senator Gorman as a presidential probability.

Under ordinary circumstances an American warship would be followed by prompt military action against the Dominicans.

No doubt that the President Roosevelt is unjustly criticized by his political opponents make of everything he does towards vindicating the honor of the flag.

The New York Sun is not only treasome and ridiculous in its attacks on President Roosevelt, but contradictory and untrue.

The bitterness of the attacks made on this country by the Russian paper Novoye Vremya is altogether unwarranted.

The charge that "the United States is endeavoring to win the hegemony of the entire globe and to exclude Europe from the Eastern market" is very silly indeed.

In view of the fact that all dispatches from Japan are rigorously censored by the government, the latest news from Tokio is the most ominous of all that has come from the East.

It is now positively ascertained that diplomatic relations have been broken off, and it appears that there is nothing to avert an immediate declaration of hostilities.

The Japanese minister is leaving St. Petersburg and the rest of the story will be told by the guns.

The most hopeful view that can be taken of Senator Hanna's condition at present is that it is very grave.

With two relapses of the grip, followed by an attack of typhoid fever, even though in a mild form, and his system enfeebled by a long period of overstrain, there is reason to fear it may be hard to win.

It is believed now that he contracted the germ of typhoid fever at Columbus during the recent senatorial contest by drinking polluted water, from which about one thousand cases of typhoid have occurred there.

His vigorous constitution is in his favor, and his friends everywhere will unite in hoping that his illness may soon take a favorable turn.

It is interesting to note the proposed temperance measures in France, which form part of the resolutions adopted by the anti-alcohol congress.

The number of saloons to be restricted by law; debts for liquor sold by the glass shall be legal; the proprietor of a saloon shall be held responsible for crimes committed by anyone who becomes intoxicated in his place; the court shall declare forfeiture of paternal authority in all cases where habitual drunkenness shall be proved; prelates shall exercise more frequently the rights conferred upon them by law to close saloons. It is time that France was passing some such laws; she is first among all nations in the consumption of alcohol.

AGRICULTURE NOT NEGLECTED.

The agricultural appropriation bill reported to the House of Representatives a few days ago carried a total of $5,713,340. This covers all the expenses of the department, including salaries of officers and clerks and the different branches of work it is carrying on.

MINOR TOPICS.

Professor Lombroso, the great Italian alienist, writing for the North American Review, states that most left-handed persons are to be avoided as congenital criminals.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

According to President Eliot, the custom of "playing sick" in order to escape recitation is becoming very common at Harvard.

is superior to the town bully, and the qualities named go to the making of good soldiers.

Senator Hanna's sickness removes him temporarily not only from political activity, but from his work in connection with the civic federation, which aims at preventing labor disputes. He was expected to preside at a meeting of the federation in New York a few nights ago, but in his absence the chairman sent a dispatch conveying the cordial greetings of the assembly "with the warmest hope for your speedy recovery."

The senator is in touch with more than one progressive movement.

John Redmond declares that Ireland would rather be badly governed by itself than well governed by another power. Does he admit by that statement that the other power is governing well? If so, he is losing his grip.

THE THEOLOGICAL GARDENS.

The superior general of the Paulists, the late Fr. George Deshon, was a soldier before he studied theology. At West Point he and General Grant were roommates and in after years the general paid $20 for feeding of security and had transported his own money through the woods, after all—"Flush Times in Alabama."

When Fred was a lad of six or seven, he would begin, Fr. Deshon often visited us. One day he told us an anecdote of his natural history, for Fred, it seems, had been to the Zoo. "And there the monkeys," said Fred. "They are like us, only little, and covered with hair. Do you know where you can see lots of monkeys?"

"No, indeed. Where?" said Fr. Deshon. "In the theological gardens," said Fred. —Minneapolis Tribune.

THE HUMORISTS.

The Exception. "All the world loves a lover."

"You wouldn't think so if you ever tried to get trusted for an engagement ring."—Washington Times.

Smelled the Same. Crawford—"What that peculiar odor in the house?"

Crabshaw—"It's either my daughter at her breakfast table or else my wife who has scorching the breakfast food."—Town Topics.

Good at Cribbing. There was a young student named Rough. Who was waiting for a "up to snuff."

In a card, I believe it is. He'd a fact up his sleeve—Nately, notes on the edge of his cough. —Sask Lake Herald.

Beauce. He—And so you think that if women had the ballot they would have minds of their own and be able to give logical reasons for their beliefs? She—Why, no—I know the world.

He—But how do you know that? She—Why, because—Kansas City Journal.

The Chorus. "We don't like to sing in the chorus, but waitresses' jobs only throve on it."

"We're too old to learn typing. So we just keep on piping—They're really quite nothing florus."—Life.

Too Slow, Even for Philadelphia. "When I say good-bye to you this evening," said Mr. Slowman, "do you think it would be proper for me to place one reverent kiss upon your fair hair?"

"Well," she replied, coquettishly, "I would consider it decidedly out of place."—Philadelphia Press.

Holl Call at Harvard. Mr. Brown—Hee-yah! Mr. Black—Yeh! Mr. Green—Yeh! Mr. White—Yeh! Mr. Red—Yeh! Mr. Blue—Yeh! Mr. Purple—Yeh! Mr. Yellow—Yeh! Mr. Grey—Yeh! Mr. Olive—Yeh! Mr. Pink—Yeh! Mr. Brown—Hee-yah! Mr. Black—Yeh! Mr. Green—Yeh! Mr. White—Yeh! Mr. Red—Yeh! Mr. Blue—Yeh! Mr. Purple—Yeh! Mr. Yellow—Yeh! Mr. Grey—Yeh! Mr. Olive—Yeh! Mr. Pink—Yeh! —Haver, Lampoon.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

Christians in India. The total Christian population of India, foreigners and natives, Catholics and Protestants, as given by the census of 1901, is 2,528,359, or about exactly one now in every hundred of the general population.

Spread of Christianity. The nineteenth century was essentially one of missionary activity. At its close men recalled the wonderful discoveries and inventions that had marked its passing.

Work of Missionaries. To realize the change which a hundred years has wrought in the sentiment with which Christians are regarded, we need only compare the utterances of the nineteenth century with those of the twentieth.

From the Pews to the Pulpit. For years we have gone diligently to church and listened with more or less patience to the sermons offered.

Followed Instructions. A man who had never seen the inside of a courthouse until he was introduced as a witness in a case before a court in the northern part of the State, being sworn, took a position with his back to the jury, and began telling his story to the judge.

An Essay Commission. Mr. Ripley was in Alabama in 1886, and found it necessary to return to North Carolina with about $3,000 which he had collected. As the route lay through the Creek Indian country, and the redskins were reported to be warlike, he was afraid of being robbed if he carried currency, and he went to a banker named Thompson and asked for a bill of exchange.

Religious Notes. College students gave twice as much for missions last year as in the preceding year.

Princess Alice's Precaution. Princess Alice of Albany has inherited some of her royal grandmother's thrift. She has just sent notes to friends who might be expected to send her some of the things she has inherited.

The Jury's View. An Andrian court man used a school teacher for $3,000 damages for whipping his daughter.

Qual Suffer from the Cold. The cold weather and almost uninterrupted snow of the present winter, have in the opinion of many farmers and sportsmen, been doing injury to their effects on the quail in Indiana and the section of the country generally.

Without Losing Weight. Cyanide of Cadocyl Radicles Death.

London Cable Letter to New York Herald. Frustic acid has long been supposed to be the most deadly poison, but now Mr. Lascelles Scott, of Little Hford, makes a startling statement.

Prussic Acid. Prussic acid has long been supposed to be the most deadly poison, but now Mr. Lascelles Scott, of Little Hford, makes a startling statement.

Prussic Acid. Prussic acid has long been supposed to be the most deadly poison, but now Mr. Lascelles Scott, of Little Hford, makes a startling statement.

Prussic Acid. Prussic acid has long been supposed to be the most deadly poison, but now Mr. Lascelles Scott, of Little Hford, makes a startling statement.

Prussic Acid. Prussic acid has long been supposed to be the most deadly poison, but now Mr. Lascelles Scott, of Little Hford, makes a startling statement.