LINES ARE NOW TIGHTLY DRAWN IN THE RANKS OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY

Parker Boom, Well Under Way, Is Checked by the Indorsement of Cleveland.

OLD ELEMENT IS PLEASED

Conservatives Delighted with the Comments Made by the Ex-President.

FEAR BRYAN WILL BOLT

Reorganizers Believe Nebraskan Will Turn Against Parker After the Nomination.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WASHINGTON, April 10 .- The lines were tightly drawn in the Democratic party situation during the past week. Parker stock took a decided upward turn, only to with the Cleveland indorsemen suggestion of a chilling reception later on from the Bryan-Hearst forces. Senator Gorman took heart from the new turn of affairs and found occasion to reable nature on Judge Parker were not to be accepted as evidence that Mr. Gorman has withdrawn from the field in the interests of Parker.

The conservatives in the Senate and House, by which is meant that element BRAKE WAS DEFECTIVE which has a longing for the old days of Cleveland and a desire to break away from the influences of Bryan, were delighted with the comments of Mr. Cleveland on the candidacy of Judge Parker. But the conservatives are now wondering what course the Bryan and Hearst people will take now that it is known that Judge Parker is regarded with favor by Mr. Cleveland and his following in the East.

"I'll tell you what the result will be," said one of the foremost of the Democratic party reorganizers, who hopes to see Bryan and Bryanism relegated to the rear. "Mr. Bryan will bolt Parker if he is nominated. Now you mark what I tell you. Bryan will support Roosevelt, or he will jump squarely over to the Populist party and support some recognized exponent of the free silver and Populist doctrines now advocated by Bryan, Hearst and Pettigrew There is no doubt that Mr. Bryan will adopt one or the other of these courses. He has been making ready for months to denounce the nomination of Parker, and the Cleveland indorsement will give him just the excuse he wants.

It is apparent from the attitude Senator Gorman has assumed since the Cleveland indorsement of Judge Parker was made public that the Maryland senator hopes to gain strength from the probable break in the Democratic party. Mr. Gorman believes that he is more acceptable to the Bryan wing of the party than Judge Parker would be, especially with Judge Parker indorsed by the Cleveland wing. Gorman was disheartened by the reverses he met in the Senate and in his own State Maryland, but he thinks he sees a way now to capture the Democratic nomination, and do it with the aid of Bryan, who will accept him in preference to Parker. That is the sole reason for Mr. Gorman's latest declaration that he has not done more juries. than comment pleasantly on the candidacy

The conservatives think they have Hearst beaten. This they regard as a settling blow to Bryanism, but with the power in the St. Louis convention counsels which they admit Mr. Bryan will have they are not certain that anybody bearing the marks of Cleveland's favor can win in the convention. Mr. Gorman now hopes to win by keeping aloof from both wings and praying nightly and daily that he will not be regarded with favor by either faction until Hearst has been knocked out by the Cleveland faction and Parker by the Bryanites.

The foremost men among the Democrats bruised from the South give it out here that they are ready to support Judge Parker, and that he is really their choice in preference must come up squarely and present Judge Parker with binding instructions upon the this time to trouble the Democrats who are they fondly imagine there will be some chance for the Democratic ticket this year of instructions from that State. It is claimed here that two things are in the is the hope among the old Cleveland ele-ment in the party that the convention can be brought around to nominate Mr. Cleveland, and the other is the Hearst strength which will be exerted to prevent an indorse ment through instructed delegates, although the Hearst managers admit that Parker will have a majority of the New York delegates, or, at least, more than will be certain to vote for Hearst if left free from in J. Mr. Taggart's Crowd a Busy Time This Summer. S. S. Carvalho, of New York, the general director of William R. Hearst's newspaper interests, arrived in Indianapolis last even-

"I am here to consider the proposition from a business standpoint. shall probably spend two or three days in the city and then shall go to Washington to report to Mr. Hearst. Of course, I cannot say at this time what my conclusions will be, or whether I shall recommend the establishment of a paper here. If Mr. Hearst decides to come in here we can be ready to publish it within three weeks, or within thirty days at the outside. We have the presses already built and stored and can get a complete mechanical outfit here on very short notice."

Mr. Carvalho stated that if a paper is established here it will undoubtedly be an evening newspaper with a Sunday morning edition to start with, and that later, if the field justified it, a morning paper would Asked concerning the report that Mr. Hearst might purchase one of the Indianapolis papers already established, Mr. Carvalho said that no negotiations of that character were pending.

"It would depend altogether upon the nature of the proposition offered," he said.

"If we could purchase a paper and plant for less money than it would require to establish a new paper, we would very Mr. Carvalho insisted that Mr. Hearst's contemplated entrance of the Indianapolis newspaper field was not prompted solely by political motives. "The first thing considered in Mr. Hearst's newspaper enterprises is the business end," he said. "Mr. Hearst doesn't establish papers unless he is satisfied that there is a profitable field. However, the situation here has its political phase Mr. Hears probably would not think of coming in here at this time if the Indianapolis newspapers had accorded him fair treatment. He has almost been forced to take the step in self-defense."

MERRY WAR IN PROSPECT. Mr. Carvalho intimated that the attitude of the local Democratic organ, which has been opposing Hearst as a presidential candidate quite as vigorously as it has labored in the interest of Judge Parker, had much to do with Hearst's determination to invade the field, leaving the inference to be drawn that if Hearst does start a paper here there will be merry-merry from a Republican standpoint-war between the rival Democratic households, He also hinted that the stand taken toward Hearst as a candidate by the Indianapolis ind
