SISTER SUPERIOR STELLA WAS POPULAR

Sister Superior Stella has been a popular director of the hospital, and the news of her serious condition will be heard with regret by hundreds of persons who have been patients or visitors at the institution. She was well liked by the nurses and other subordinates and her cheery words and smile were always welcomed by the sick.

ENGINEER DUNN FOUND PROSTRATE ON BALCONY

A story was in circulation last night to the effect that William Dunn, the night engineer of the institution, had not been seen since the origin of the fire, and for a time it was feared that he had been burned to death. He was later found, however, lying prostrate on a rear balcony, having been overcome by smoke while in the act of assisting the patients to escape.

YOUNG DOCTORS DO GREAT WORK

Great credit is due the City Hospital corps of doctors and the young doctors of the City Dispensary for the work they did at St. Vincent's fire. While the nurses were hysterical from fright the doctors administered to the wants of the patients.

ST. VINCENT'S WAS A POPULAR HOSPITAL

St. Vincent Hospital was conducted by the Sisters of Charity, who came to this city about 1880. Their first institution was on East Vermont street, where the home of the Little Sisters of the Poor is located. The Sisters of Charity soon became one of the most popular of the Catholic orders, and when a hospital was proposed funds were not lacking.

ELEVATOR MAN'S BRAVERY

One of the heroic incidents of the fire was the constant running of the elevator by one of the employees. The elevator kept running to all the floors and brought down patients as fast as they could be got out. At times the smoke was so dense that the man could not tell when he had reached the floor.

DOCTORS ON SCENE

Within half an hour a large corps of doctors and the city ambulances were upon the scene and the task of administering to the needy patients began. They were made as comfortable as possible under the circumstances, but had to be placed in five and six and even more in a room. Most of the patients collapsed after the fire had been extinguished and the smoke driven out of the rooms.

Edwin Glover Defends Abused Cripple, and Is Held for Stabbing Alleged Bully. YOUTHS ALL CONCERNED

William Schneider, 1423 South Meridian street, was out, and probably fatally wounded by Ed Glover, a grocery clerk, 191 Palmer street, in a street encounter at 11 o'clock Saturday night. Schneider, with Charles Speth, 187 South Meridian street, and Will Foltzengle, 1423 South Meridian street, had been together during the evening, and had visited saloons in the neighborhood of their homes.

Words were exchanged, and it is said that during the conversation abuse was heaped on Armour, and that it was continued until Glover, who had also spent the evening in various resorts in the neighborhood, interfered. Glover followed, and from the melee came Schneider's voice crying: "What have you got in your hand?" At this the fight stopped, and Schneider, saying that he was cut, staggered away where it was discovered that he had received several severe gashes across his abdomen.

The City Dispensary ambulance was summoned, and Dr. Jeffrey and Dr. Stark,
