

Military Items.

There will be a grand review of all the military in and about Indianapolis today, by the Governor. Time 2 o'clock, P. M. Place, Camp Sullivan.

Vigo county has now about one regiment of soldiers in active service.

Major Horace Bell, an officer who has, perhaps, seen more service for one of his years than any other attached to the volunteer army, arrived in the city yesterday. Major Bell will probably be attached to the 53d Indiana, Col. Walter Q. Gresham.

Col. B. F. Mullen, of the 61st Indiana (the 2d Irish), arrived in the city yesterday. Colonel Mullen reports very favorably with regard to the speedy filling up of his regiment. He has already some 200 men in the barracks at Madison, which are fitted up in admirable order. The Colonel hopes to have his thousand men by the middle of February, and no braver volunteers ever followed the lead of a more accomplished and gallant officer than, we predict, he will prove himself to be. He will die, and those who go with him must make up their minds to die, under the stars and stripes, whether in peace or in war.

Mrs. Partington says that "the surrender of Mason and Sidel is a military necessity."

The Richmond Dispatch of the 27th ult., betrays its rage at the release of Mason and Sidel, by ridiculing the boastfulness and cowardice of the "Yankees," characterizing them as the lineal descendants of "Ancient Pistol."

Wm. Flack has been appointed Surgeon of the 50th regiment, vice Dr. Monroe, resigned.

Delos W. Rupp has been appointed Assistant Surgeon of the 30th regiment, vice Renick, resigned.

Colonels Kimball and Sullivan, of the 14th Indiana regiments, who have been here for some days on a visit, received dispatches directing them to report to their regiments without delay, as an attack is expected from Winchester within a few days.

DEATH OF CAPT. BACON.—We extract the following from the Evansville Journal, with reference to the recent skirmish on Green River, Ky.:

From all the facts in the case, it appears that Col. Menzies, aided by the Secessionists in the neighborhood of Gen. Crittenden's camp, formed the design of surprising the whole, or a large part, of Col. Jackson's cavalry, with the Colonel at the head. Word was sent by the rebels to Gen. Crittenden that a small body of troops was foraging in his immediate vicinity.

As they anticipated, that officer immediately ordered a portion of Col. Jackson's regiment in pursuit. They secured that part of the country in which the rebels were supposed to be, as we stated before, and were on their return home. They marched in the most careless manner, not suspecting that they were within miles of them, when, to their astonishment, they were fired on from all sides.

A portion of the men became panic-stricken, and putting spurs to their horses sought safety in flight. The rebels, mistaking Captain Bacon for Colonel Jackson (as is supposed), charged directly on him in order to secure him as their prisoner. But the brave soldier disappointed their expectations. Rallying some of his men, and surrounded by the officers of the platoon who had deserted him, he made a most desperate resistance. Several times was the little band surrounded by superior numbers of rebels, and as often did they cut their way out and continue their march toward Sacramento. At last, some three miles from where the action first began, Captain Bacon fell from his horse, pierced through the groin with a ball, which also cut one of his arteries. Captain Davis, leading his regiment in blood, and others of the little party which by this time had dwindled down to ten or twelve, covered with blood from many wounds, and exhausted by their protracted struggle, finally surrendered.

To the credit of the rebels, he is said, they made every exertion to render Captain Bacon, who evidently was dying, as comfortable as they could under the circumstances. They removed him from the road, placed a blanket under his head and a cup of water by his side. At his own request, his arms were untouched. His watch was taken, but nothing else on his person was disturbed.

The panic-stricken troopers were most terribly frightened. When they came in sight of the camps at Cahoon, they paid no attention to the picket guards, but rushed over the bridge regardless of sentinels and everything else, and never saw until they were in the midst of the camp and surrounded by excited soldiers. It appears to have been a scare unrivaled since the days of Bull Run.

Lieut. Kane, an old Mexican soldier, who served under Col. J. W. Watson, and who was with him when he fell at Monterey, is in the city offering his services to the State. Certainly the country needs such experienced and capable officers at this juncture.

State Board of Agriculture. The Annual Meeting of the Indiana State Board of Agriculture convened in the Hall of the House of Representatives yesterday, at 10 o'clock A. M.

President James D. Williams, of Knox county, took the chair, and called the Board to order. Whereupon on motion, W. H. Loomis was elected Secretary pro tem.

On a call of the members elect of the State Board, pro tem, only seven answered to their names, and only two county societies were represented by delegates.

After a brief discussion as to the propriety of the Board in the past, and its prospects in the future, by several members, the Board adjourned to 2 o'clock P. M.

ATTENTION SOCIETY. Two o'clock, P. M.—Board met, the President in the chair.

The President made some appropriate remarks concerning the condition of Agriculture as well as to our own beautiful but now damaged Fair Grounds, by which means the prospects of the Board in future were likely to be extremely embarrassing. He also alluded to the fact that the heavy expenditures of the Board on account of the New Fair Grounds and a $12,000 premium list, together with the meager receipts, had all combined to place the Board in a very embarrassing condition financially.

After some preliminary business had been acted upon the Board proceeded to an election to fill the vacancies occasioned by the expiring terms of eight members, which election resulted as follows:

First District—Nathan Platt. Second District—James D. Williams. Third District—John C. Shoemaker. Fourth District—J. F. Carr. Fifth District—C. J. Fletcher, Jr. Sixth District—J. H. Holmes. Seventh District—Mr. Crawford, of Laporte. Eighth District—W. B. Corey.

Mr. W. H. Bennett, of Union county, was elected to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Mr. Holloway from the Wayne district.

Mr. Fisher, of Wabash, made some interesting remarks concerning the progress that had been made in Indiana during and since the organization of the State Board, which had been marked with great advancement during the period alluded to. He also alluded to the progress made by the State Board and contrasted the number of entries and the amount of premiums paid at the first State Fair with those of the last one. At the former $1,600 was awarded in premiums, and at the last upwards of $8,000 were awarded, all of which would have been paid ere this had the State been able to do so.

On motion the Board adjourned to meet at 7 o'clock P. M.

Hogs are selling at Delphi for $2.25 to $3 per cent, gross.

Madame Anna Bishop is giving concerts in Louisville.

Wicked Booth and Prof. Anderson, the Wizard, are at St. Louis.

The Missouri is frozen solid at Leavenworth. Teams cross with difficulty.

There is a new counter for the State Bank of Iowa, of the denomination of $5, in circulation. Look out for it.

HARD ON THE BARBERS.—Since the full beard has become Americanized the number of barber shops in Philadelphia has fallen away from 200 down to thirty.

Hoots.—The slaughtering season is about over at this point. The arrivals on foot are scarcely 100 per day. We quote a sale of 250 head yesterday, choice, at $2.96.

INDIANAPOLIS GRAIN MARKET.—Wheat, red, 70¢ to 73¢; white, 72¢ to 75¢. Corn, 25¢. Oats, 22¢. Rye, 30¢ and scarce. Buckwheat 40¢, and none coming in. Hay, 10¢ to 11¢ per ton; loose, 9¢.

The next Annual Indiana State Fair will be held in the city of Indianapolis, commencing on Monday, September 29th, to continue during the week.

A good blacksmith is needed at Millersville. There is a good shop there, with tools and all appliances, and an industrious and capable man can establish himself there and make certainly a good living and probably a fortune.

HEADQUARTERS FOR AMERICAN WATCHES AND FINE JEWELRY.—Be sure to call and examine W. P. Bingham & Co.'s stock of genuine American watches. Their stock of watches and jewelry is large and prices as low as can be had any place. Their store is No. 20, East Washington street.

Dr. A. J. Merrill.—This distinguished physician, known among the most famous and successful practitioners of New York, has, we are glad to learn, been induced to prolong his stay in Indianapolis, as will be seen by advertisement. The afflicted should certainly seize the opportunity of consulting this eminent physician, who treats all diseases upon the theory of electricity, peculiarly his own.

THE HOLMAN TROUPE.—To-night is the last night of the performances of this celebrated and unrivalled troupe of young masters and misses at Masonic Hall. Mrs. Holman, who has schooled these children, until they surpass older and famous actors, is one of the most accomplished and gifted women of the time. Any entertainment, under her superintendence, our citizens may well feel assured, will be such as a cultivated and intelligent community can appreciate and applaud.

BAKER & MELVER.—To strangers visiting the city during the week, we would say call at the famous establishment of Messrs. Baker & Melver, No. 22, East Washington street. The most magnificent stock of furs, the most fashionable hats, and all other desirable articles in their line, are offered by Messrs. Baker & Melver at the very lowest cash prices. Call on them before purchasing elsewhere.

The Auditing Committee on Military Claims, now in session, have allowed, for the traveling expenses of companies and recruits and persons on military business, $104,441.15. The number of men, ascertained by the vouchers, was 90,218. This expense which the State has incurred is, it is understood, exclusive of the cost of the transportation of regiments enrolled for service, and persons actually in the service of the United States.

Gov. Wright's Eulogy on Judge Douglas.—To-night, in the Hall of the House of Representatives, Gov. Wright, upon an invitation extended to him by a committee appointed by citizens of Indiana, will deliver a eulogy on the departed statesman, Stephen A. Douglas. Gov. Wright will take the stand at 7 o'clock. The doors will be thrown open early, so that all, especially ladies, may be comfortably seated.

ME. H. LIEBER, in the Etma Insurance Building, Pennsylvania street, is prepared to furnish, at short notice, at wholesale or retail, pictures, looking-glasses, artists' materials, French and American glass, oval and square frames of all sizes. Give Mr. Lieber a call, he sells cheap and is an obliging gentleman.

One of the best hotels in Indianapolis is the Spencer House, near the Union depot. Mr. M. Harth, the gentlemanly proprietor, deserves great credit in having, in consideration of these war times, reduced his price to one dollar per day, and at the same time give his guests all that they can get at any of the first class hotels in any Western city.

Time is money, and to have correct time, you must have your watch or clock repaired by one who understands his business. Mr. John A. Beck, at Vickers's drug store, in Old Fellows Hall, repairs watches, clocks and jewelry on short notice and does his work well and cheap. We say to our friends, give Mr. Beck a call, and you will find him a gentleman deserving of patronage.

BECKE & HAWES, No. 9, WEST WASHINGTON STREET.—At this celebrated establishment, the depot for oysters, as well as for every delicacy of the season, fresh codfish, a rare luxury, have just been received from Boston. Tongues and sounds, a still rarer luxury, are also on hand and for sale by Becke & Hawes. We would incidentally remark, too, that their stock of family groceries is among the most complete in the city, and everything is furnished, pure and nice, at the lowest cash prices, and delivered in any part of the city free of charge.

THE NEW YORK STORE.—This splendid establishment, East Washington street, south side, is now replenished with everything desirable in the dry goods line. The most magnificent fabrics are piled on its counters. Goods the most durable, too, may be obtained at the New York Store. Strangers visiting the city should by all means, even if they do not wish to purchase, call at this unrivaled house—unrivaled anywhere, East or West. A beautiful present might be taken home, bought there, for a wife, a mother, a sister or a sweetheart; but of this we say nothing.

The Messrs. Glenn, the proprietors of the New York Store, we understand, take Eastern money at par.

The first annual promenade party of the Phenix Society will take place this (Wednesday) evening, at Military Hall. The affair will undoubtedly be a brilliant one. Beave men and beautiful women will be there, and all will "go merry as a marriage bell." The committee of arrangements are: Mr. Wm. McLaughlin, Mr. John Reimold, Mr. Richard Simpson, and Mr. John Simpson. The floor managers are among the most accomplished gentlemen in the city.

We thank the committee of invitation for cordially inviting us to be present to-night. We shall be there.

Rest of Steam Strains.—It is estimated both by Europeans and Americans that any one may reach the world over for spectacles equal to those offered by Moses, 20 East Washington street, and search as long as they please, but in vain for more like his equal in his line and has arrived at a degree of perfection in his glasses that exceed all antecedents.

Business.—This accomplished and enterprising merchant, determined not to be outdone by any of his competitors in business, authorizes us to say to citizens as well as strangers visiting the city during the week that his stock of hats, caps and furs is perhaps the most extensive in the market, and with articles selected therefrom will be afforded at the very lowest prices.

Dr. C. W. ROBACK.—Dear Sir: I have used your Blood Purifier for a nervous affection, from which I have suffered much at times. While it is pleasant to the taste, it certainly has a happy effect upon the nerves. Please accept my thanks for your kind regards, and believe me Yours, J. W. T. McMULLY.

THE BUNTON HOUSE, TERRACE HAVEN.—This is the very best hotel in the Prairie City, and is kept by the most accomplished and genial gentlemen in the country. In absolute verification of what we say, we have only to mention the names of Frank B. Nofsinger and Edward Haire, both formerly of this city. The fare at the Bunton House is not excelled by that of any hotel East or West, and the charges are moderate. Those who stop there always stop again.

DELEGATES ATTENTION.—We would recommend all our friends attending the Convention to pass their evenings at Metropolitan Hall where they will enjoy themselves. They will probably have the only opportunity of witnessing the exquisite performances of Miss Annette Lee, one of the best and most truthful persons now on the stage. It is a fact that it is the place to spend an evening. Besides the great attraction of this lady there is a magnificent company to support her. We would also mention to our friends from the surrounding counties that they have an opportunity of seeing those favorites Miss Marion McCarthy and Felix A. Vincent, which will certainly induce them to go, independent of the other great attractions. To-night "Ingomar" and "Rascal Jack."

The subscriptions to the national loan at Indianapolis amounted to only $40,000. Much of this was subscribed by citizens of other portions of the State—only one subscription of $5,000 being by a citizen of this district. The subscription at New Albany amounted to nearly $70,000, while a considerable amount was taken at Jeffersonville, only four miles distant.—N. A. Ledger.

From Boston. Boston, Jan. 7.—The steam boiler at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, connected with the Ordnance Department, exploded yesterday, killing Mr. Bridges the engineer, demolishing the chimney 100 feet high, and doing other damage.

The mails, per the steamer Niagara, will close at 10 o'clock to-morrow, Wednesday, morning. She will not sail, however, till about noon.

NIGHT DISPATCHES. WASHINGTON, January 7. SENATE.—Messrs. Pomeroy and Chandler presented various petitions for the emancipation of slaves.

Mr. Hale gave notice that he should introduce a bill to punish frauds in the Treasury.

Mr. Foster introduced a bill to abolish the franking privilege.

Mr. Davis offered a resolution that the Secretary of War be requested to report to the Senate the aggregate number of three years volunteers in what classes they serve, &c.

On motion of Mr. Sherman, the bill to increase the number of cadets at West Point was taken up.

The question was on the amendments that the cadets be dismissed if deficient in their studies. Disagreed to.

Mr. Trumbull opposed the passage of the bill. He believed that it was owing to West Point officers that the war has languished as it has. He opposed to increasing cadets, especially at this time.

Mr. Lane, of Kansas, said the greatest trouble was, we have no army bold to separate the State constitutions from the ranks of the army. One objection to West Point was its exclusiveness.

Mr. Wilson was ready to abandon the bill on the ground of economy. He thought we should reduce the economy, and if necessary, reduce all the salaries in the army, but on no other ground would he vote against the bill.

On motion of Mr. Wilson the bill in relation to the arrest of prisoners who claimed to be held to service by labor, by officers of the army and navy, was taken up.

Mr. Salsbury moved to postpone it indefinitely, which was disagreed to—yeas 13, nays 20.

The bill provides that any officer detaining soldiers or sailors in violation of the law, should be liable to arrest.

On motion of Mr. Carlisle the bill was postponed for the present.

On motion of Mr. Foster the report of the Committee on the Judiciary on the Kansas contested case was taken up.
