

The Weekly State Sentinel will be published this morning, containing a large amount of interesting news, miscellany, correspondence, military items, &c., &c. The Weekly Sentinel has the largest circulation of any paper in the State, being sent to every advertising establishment within its borders, and is the very best advertising medium that can be selected. Single copies can be obtained at the office—subscription price $1 a year.

Council Proceedings.
The City Council met in regular session on Saturday night last, present his Honor, the Mayor, the City Clerk, and a quorum of distinguished individuals.

Mr. Wallace, from the Civil Engineer, exhibiting an account for the improvement of property on Delaware street. Referred.

By the same, from Ambrose Shortridge in relation to school matters. Referred.

Mr. Brown, from property holders on Railroad avenue, asking for the repeal of the ordinance for the improvement of the bluff road. Tabled.

Mr. Haughey, from the Sisters of Providence, in relation to taxes. Referred.

Mr. Richmond, from property holders on Maryland street, between Alabama and Delaware. Tabled.

THE BOARD OF HEALTH.
Reported to the satisfaction of the Council. There is no epidemic raging now in the city, and the general health of the inhabitants is good.

REPORTS.
By Mr. Brown, recommending the purchase of J. B. Stumph's plate of the city. Concurred in and $300 ordered to be paid Mr. Stumph for his book of plates.

By Mr. Haughey, refunding $417.59 for erroneous taxes to certain parties. Concurred in.

By Mr. Fletcher, an ordinance for the payment of study claims, amounting to $245.33. Passed.

By Mr. Wallace, that the Chief Fire Engineer be allowed $225 for fuel. Concurred in.

A communication from the Gas company with regard to the breaking of lamps was read by His Honor the Mayor.

On motion of Mr. Brown, the Mayor was authorized to offer a reward of five dollars for the apprehension of each offender in this regard.

Mr. Metzger, from the Market Master, presented a petition asking that the rent of stalls be ordered to be collected at one time. Referred.

Mr. Haughey, from Committee, reported favorably with regard to the contract proposed by the Messrs. Glenn for city offices. The proposition for a lease for five years, with the privilege of ten was accepted, provided the Messrs. Glenn build an iron railing around the entrance to vestibule of the new municipal quarters, and otherwise abide by contract. Concurred in unanimously.

By Mr. Wallace, an ordinance repealing the ordinance with regard to shade trees and side walks. Read a first and second time.

Mr. Richmond presented an ordinance for the grading and graveling of the south side walk between Alabama and Delaware streets, on South street. Read twice and referred.

After the transaction of further unimportant business the Council adjourned.

Military Items.
—Capt. Jacobs, of the 19th Indiana, is home on a short leave of absence. Capt. Jacobs' purpose is to recruit for his regiment. He is an accomplished commander, and, without doubt, here where it is well known recruits will flock to his standard. Capt. Jacobs speaks in the highest terms of Col. Meredith, who commands the corps to which he is attached, and declares that the 19th is the crack regiment now on the Potomac.

—Col. John C. Walker, of the 35th Indiana (1st Irish) arrived in the city on Saturday last, from Kentucky, on business connected with matters concerning his command. Col. Walker looks exceedingly well. Evidently camp life and the bustle and stir of the soldier agrees with him.

—The Chelsea Telegraph reports that one day last week, a lady of that city went out to make a "call," after finding the bell tiddy came to the door, and the following dialogue ensued:—"Is Mrs. — at home?"—"No, she's gone to the circus."—"To the circus? (greatly surprised.) What circus has she gone to?"—"To the sewing circus, mum."

—The 19th United States regulars paraded the principal streets of Saturday last, making a fine appearance. On yesterday (Sunday) the band drilled most eloquently on University square, and the men were put through their drill just as if it was the 1st day.

—We understand that one of the editors of the Indianapolis Journal is going south of the 32d Indiana, "the Railroad Regiment." He goes to war because it pays, and he will discount the State of Indiana, but also of those towns lying within a radius of thirty-five or forty miles of the capital. Even from Muncie, fifty or more miles distant, many persons go regularly to do their shopping at the New York Store. The great success of the well known establishment is, first, the multitudinous variety, superior quality and low prices of the articles kept there; secondly, the vast sums spent yearly in judicious advertising; and, thirdly, the never varying urgency of the calling of the gentlemanly proprietors and clerks. Do your trading in Indianapolis at the New York Store—Delaware County Times.

—Assignees sale of clothing and gents for their country will be made by S. J. Mosser, at his sales room No. 10 West Washington street, continuing Monday morning, Jan. 27th, 1862. A chance for great bargains. Also a large assortment of plated ware of the best quality. 2c.

The Laborer.
Stand up—erec! Thou hast the form,
And likeness of thy God—who more?
A soul as dumbless mid the storm
Of duty, which thou mightiest cast
Aside, as if by the blast
Of pure, as breast'er were.

What then?—Thou art as true a man
As moved the human mass among;
As much a part of the great plan
That with creation's dawn began,
As any of the throng.

Who is thine enemy? the high
In station, or in wealth the chief?
The great, who coldly pass the by,
With proud step and averted eye?
Nay, none of these!

True, wealth thou hast not—'tis but dust;
Nor peace—uncertain as the wind;
But that thou hast which, with thy trust
And both, may please the last
Of better, may please the wind.

These are thine enemies—thy worst;
Thy chain thee to thy lowly lot;
Thy labor and thy life accused,
Oh, stand erect and from them burst!
And longer suffer not.

Thou art thyself thine enemy;
The great—'tis what letter thee than thou?
As there, is not thy will as free?
Has God with equal favors thee?
Neglected to endow?

True, wealth thou hast not—'tis but dust;
Nor peace—uncertain as the wind;
But that thou hast which, with thy trust
And both, may please the last
Of better, may please the wind.

admiration the honorable and generous act of the Major, we cannot but regret the loss which it has occasioned us.
Revised. That in our intercourse with the Major we have found him to be an eminent degree of those qualities which reflect honor alike upon the soldier and the man; that in his resignation, we have lost a true man, an excellent soldier, and a valuable officer, and an honorable soldier.

Revised. That we tender the Major our sincere expression of friendship and our fervent wish that success and prosperity may attend his future career, which we feel well assured will be honorable and useful.

CAPT. Z. S. MAIN, Pres't.
LAMAR W. MARSH, Sec'y.
Dr. Mason, Surgeon of the 13th Indiana, has resigned, and Dr. Gall, the Assistant Surgeon, has been promoted.

—The 52d (Illinois) regiment, has now over 900 men, and is now under marching orders for Kentucky.

—The rebels claim that in the interval between the departure of Gen. Kelley and the arrival of Gen. Lander they captured or killed all the Federal cavalry in Romney, amounting to between three and four hundred.

—Gen. McClellan attended the opera last Thursday night, with the family of President Lincoln. He appeared in civilian's dress.

—Dog stealing in the second degree—Hooking town-made sausages.

—The Common Pleas Court commences one week from to-day, on the 31st of February, Judge Ray presiding.

—The crossing from the Bank building on Illinois street to the corner above on Washington street, opposite the Palmer Hotel, is to be improved by the indefatigable Street Commissioner by order of the City Council.

—The editor of a paper in Indiana wants to know if Western whisky was ever seen "coming through the eye." The same editor says he once partook of a beverage so strong that he could not tell whether it was brandy or a torchlight procession going down his throat.

MILITARY GOODS.—Bart & Hickox, a well known and enterprising firm of Cincinnati, advertise another column of to-day's paper, an assortment of military goods complete and unsurpassed. To gentlemen in Indian, officers, private, quartermaster's and sutlers, in need of anything in this line of Messrs. Bart & Hickox would respectfully commend that firm.

THE BURNS FESTIVAL.—The 102d anniversary of the birth of Robert Burns was duly commemorated by the Caledonian Society of Indianapolis, and others, on Saturday night last. The gathering was unusually large. The supper is spoken of as having been sumptuous. After the cloth was removed there were toasts, speeches and songs. Altogether the affair was worthy of the day celebrated. Spirits were evoked from the "vasty deep" and baptized in "mountain dew."

MAN SUOT.—On Friday night last a gentleman named Lonngren, residing on the corner of Tennessee and Michigan streets, got into a dispute with his mother. Another gentleman named Sullivan interfered, whereupon Lonngren drew his revolver and shot him in his left breast. Lonngren subsequently made a like violent demonstration on his own wife, discharging his pistol at her, without effect, however. Sullivan was lying yesterday in a critical condition, and Lonngren, we understand, made his escape.

METROPOLITAN HALL.—To-night will be presented the long promised Fairy piece of the "Invisible Prince." We are assured that no expense has been spared in the presenting of this piece to our public in the most gorgeous style. The scenery is all new and painted by the admirable artist, Gleising, which is a guarantee of its goodness, as solid as the State Bank of Indiana. The Fairy changes and the dresses will all be in keeping with the scenery. Miss Macarty will play the Invisible Prince and Felix A. Vincent the Infant Furiolus. The piece is full of beautiful music which we know will be well rendered. The remainder of the characters will devolve upon Messrs. Hamilton, Ashmer, Hill, White, Hill, Madams, Pope, Ashmer, Hill, Hight, Miss Endress, Fletcher, &c., aided by an efficient corps de ballet. Everything has been done to insure its success, and we are certain its success will be insured. Go and take your little ones.

THE GLENS.—There are but few people in the State who visit the capital on business or pleasure who are not more or less acquainted with the Glens and their mammoth and justly celebrated New York Store. Everybody speaks of it and everybody trades at it. It is not only the resort of the citizens of Indianapolis, but also of those towns lying within a radius of thirty-five or forty miles of the capital. Even from Muncie, fifty or more miles distant, many persons go regularly to do their shopping at the New York Store. The great success of the well known establishment is, first, the multitudinous variety, superior quality and low prices of the articles kept there; secondly, the vast sums spent yearly in judicious advertising; and, thirdly, the never varying urgency of the calling of the gentlemanly proprietors and clerks. Do your trading in Indianapolis at the New York Store—Delaware County Times.

—Assignees sale of clothing and gents for their country will be made by S. J. Mosser, at his sales room No. 10 West Washington street, continuing Monday morning, Jan. 27th, 1862. A chance for great bargains. Also a large assortment of plated ware of the best quality. 2c.

The Laborer.
Stand up—erec! Thou hast the form,
And likeness of thy God—who more?
A soul as dumbless mid the storm
Of duty, which thou mightiest cast
Aside, as if by the blast
Of pure, as breast'er were.

What then?—Thou art as true a man
As moved the human mass among;
As much a part of the great plan
That with creation's dawn began,
As any of the throng.

Who is thine enemy? the high
In station, or in wealth the chief?
The great, who coldly pass the by,
With proud step and averted eye?
Nay, none of these!

True, wealth thou hast not—'tis but dust;
Nor peace—uncertain as the wind;
But that thou hast which, with thy trust
And both, may please the last
Of better, may please the wind.

These are thine enemies—thy worst;
Thy chain thee to thy lowly lot;
Thy labor and thy life accused,
Oh, stand erect and from them burst!
And longer suffer not.

Thou art thyself thine enemy;
The great—'tis what letter thee than thou?
As there, is not thy will as free?
Has God with equal favors thee?
Neglected to endow?

True, wealth thou hast not—'tis but dust;
Nor peace—uncertain as the wind;
But that thou hast which, with thy trust
And both, may please the last
Of better, may please the wind.

These are thine enemies—thy worst;
Thy chain thee to thy lowly lot;
Thy labor and thy life accused,
Oh, stand erect and from them burst!
And longer suffer not.

Thou art thyself thine enemy;
The great—'tis what letter thee than thou?
As there, is not thy will as free?
Has God with equal favors thee?
Neglected to endow?

True, wealth thou hast not—'tis but dust;
Nor peace—uncertain as the wind;
But that thou hast which, with thy trust
And both, may please the last
Of better, may please the wind.

These are thine enemies—thy worst;
Thy chain thee to thy lowly lot;
Thy labor and thy life accused,
Oh, stand erect and from them burst!
And longer suffer not.

Thou art thyself thine enemy;
The great—'tis what letter thee than thou?
As there, is not thy will as free?
Has God with equal favors thee?
Neglected to endow?

True, wealth thou hast not—'tis but dust;
Nor peace—uncertain as the wind;
But that thou hast which, with thy trust
And both, may please the last
Of better, may please the wind.

These are thine enemies—thy worst;
Thy chain thee to thy lowly lot;
Thy labor and thy life accused,
Oh, stand erect and from them burst!
And longer suffer not.

Thou art thyself thine enemy;
The great—'tis what letter thee than thou?
As there, is not thy will as free?
Has God with equal favors thee?
Neglected to endow?

SPECIAL NOTICES.

PUBLIC NOTICE.
TO LINDSAY & COX, Druggists, No. 15 East Washington Street.
Have been appointed auctioneers for the sale of
BRANDEN'S TUNNAGE,
THE WONDERFUL GRANULITE, for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throats, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, and all the Cures and Diseases of the Lungs. Sold in large boxes, 25 cts., 50 cts., and 1 dollar each. W. S. BRANDEN.

OAK HALL,
NO. 3 WASHINGTON AND NO. 2 ILLINOIS STS.
Hats House.

OUR FALL AND WINTER STOCK OF BEAVERS,
CASTORS, CLOTHS, MELTON'S CASSIMERES AND VESTINGS OF EVERY GRADE AND STYLE AS WELL AS OF READY-MADE CLOTHING FOR MEN AND BOYS WEAR, IS NOW COMPLETE.

GLASER & BROTHERS, Prop's.
R. B. MELVILLE, Cutter.

GROCERS.
A. G. H. SCHNELL,
Wholesale Grocers.

Table with 4 columns: Item, Price, Item, Price. Lists various goods like Flour, Corn, and other staples.

FOR SALE.
Corner Washington and Delaware Streets, Indianapolis.

FOR SALE OR TO EXCHANGE.
553 Acres, the Gallaudet Farm, Situated eight miles from Indianapolis.

GROCERS.
Beebe & Hawes,
Wholesale and Retail Dealers in Groceries and Produce.

MILITARY GOODS.
INDIAN RUBBER OUTFITS.
BLANKETS, Mexican Ponchos.

SUTLERS.
BART & HICKOX,
INDIAN RUBBER DEPOT.

AMERICAN CEMENT CLUE.
Something for the Times.

A NECESSITY IN EVERY HOUSEHOLD!
Johns & Crosley's
AMERICAN CEMENT CLUE.

FOR CAULKING WOOD, LEATHER, GLASS, IVORY, CHINA, MARBLE, PORCELAIN, ALABASTER, BONE, CORAL, &c.

EXTRACTS:
"Every housekeeper should have a supply of Johns & Crosley's American Cement Clue."—N. Y. Times.

Price 25 cts. per Bottle.
VERY LIBERAL REDUCTIONS TO WHOLESALE DEALERS.

TERMS CASH.
JOHNS & CROSLY,
75 WILLIAM STREET, N. Y.

STOLEN.
Horse stolen from the office of the City Clerk.

COMMERCIAL.

New York Stock Table.
Table with 2 columns: Item, Price. Lists various stocks and bonds.

STATE STOCKS.
Table with 2 columns: Item, Price. Lists various state securities.

LIVERY STABLES.
O. W. JOHNSTON,
Livery and Sale Stables.

C. W. HALL & CO.,
EXCHANGE STABLES.

NOTICE.
United States of America, District of Indiana.

New York Cattle Market.
MARKET DAY, Wednesday, Jan. 22, 1862.

FOR SALE.
The market of this week has been a hard one for the buyers.

FOR SALE.
The market of this week has been a hard one for the buyers.

FOR SALE.
The market of this week has been a hard one for the buyers.

FOR SALE.
The market of this week has been a hard one for the buyers.

FOR SALE.
The market of this week has been a hard one for the buyers.

FOR SALE.
The market of this week has been a hard one for the buyers.

FOR SALE.
The market of this week has been a hard one for the buyers.

FOR SALE.
The market of this week has been a hard one for the buyers.

FOR SALE.
The market of this week has been a hard one for the buyers.

FOR SALE.
The market of this week has been a hard one for the buyers.

FOR SALE.
The market of this week has been a hard one for the buyers.

FOR SALE.
The market of this week has been a hard one for the buyers.

FOR SALE.
The market of this week has been a hard one for the buyers.

FOR SALE.
The market of this week has been a hard one for the buyers.

FOR SALE.
The market of this week has been a hard one for the buyers.

FOR SALE.
The market of this week has been a hard one for the buyers.

FOR SALE.
The market of this week has been a hard one for the buyers.

FOR SALE.
The market of this week has been a hard one for the buyers.

FOR SALE.
The market of this week has been a hard one for the buyers.

FOR SALE.
The market of this week has been a hard one for the buyers.

FOR SALE.
The market of this week has been a hard one for the buyers.

FOR SALE.
The market of this week has been a hard one for the buyers.

FOR SALE.
The market of this week has been a hard one for the buyers.

FOR SALE.
The market of this week has been a hard one for the buyers.

FOR SALE.
The market of this week has been a hard one for the buyers.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Noon Reports.
From New York.
The most severe storm of the season has prevailed all night, and the snow has fallen to a depth of 1.500, but afterwards found to be 14.000.

From Washington.
The following has been issued by the War Department:
The Department requires as the first duty to take measures for the relief of the brave men, who have imperiled their lives in the military service of the Government, are now prisoners of war.

From Missouri.
St. Louis, Jan. 26.—Official dispatches from Cape Girardeau state that the expedition which left that place a few days since for Benton and Bloomington, returned, having captured Lexington, Col. 22d Mo. regt., 400 men, arms, and 600 prisoners of war.

From Baltimore.
BALTIMORE, Jan. 25.—The Ohio Point boat has not arrived, owing, no doubt, to the heavy storm last night.

From Cairo.
CAIRO, Jan. 25.—Since the return of the troops from Kentucky a detachment of rebel cavalry visited Alexandria and removed the county records to Cairo.

From Memphis.
MEMPHIS, Jan. 25.—The Memphis Herald of the 15th inst. has published the following article:
The Little Rock Journal of the 17th says: Gen. Frost, a Camp Jackson prisoner who has been on parole, is now at Jacksonport with 100 adherents waiting recruits to the gallant old chief Sterling Price.

From New York.
NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—The Fulton Bank and other buildings on the corner of Milton and Pearl streets were closed this morning. Loss about a quarter of a million.

From Washington.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The War Department received a dispatch from General Halleck to-night saying that the expedition sent from Cape Girardeau to Benton and Bloomington was entirely successful, capturing Lieutenant Colonel Farmer and one other officer, sixty-five men, and a quantity of arms, &c. The rebel officers were captured in a ball room.

From Maryland.
BALTIMORE, Jan. 26.—The Baltimore News was introduced into the Maryland Legislature on Saturday requesting Senators Pearce and Kennedy to resign.

From Liverpool.
LIVERPOOL, Jan. 26.—The Europa from Liverpool on the 11th via Queenstown on the 12th arrived last night.

From New York.
NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—A tremendous gale prevailed all through Western Vermont this morning. As the train which left Troy for Rutland at 7:15 A. M. was five or six miles above Bennington, in the town of Shalstead, it encountered the gale while passing an embankment, and was overturned. One of the cars was broken from its coupling and thrown by the force of the wind down the bank.

From New York.
NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—A Memphis dispatch of the 24th inst. says:
There are 12,000 Federals at Murray, Kentucky, threatening Fort Henry and the Memphis and Ohio Railroad; their object being to cut off communication between Columbus and Bowling Green.

From New York.
NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—A tremendous gale prevailed all through Western Vermont this morning. As the train which left Troy for Rutland at 7:15 A. M. was five or six miles above Bennington, in the town of Shalstead, it encountered the gale while passing an embankment, and was overturned. One of the cars was broken from its coupling and thrown by the force of the wind down the bank.

From New York.
NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—A Memphis dispatch of the 24th inst. says:
There are 12,000 Federals at Murray, Kentucky, threatening Fort Henry and the Memphis and Ohio Railroad; their object being to cut off communication between Columbus and Bowling Green.

From New York.
NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—A tremendous gale prevailed all through Western Vermont this morning. As the train which left Troy for Rutland at 7:15 A. M. was five or six miles above Bennington, in the town of Shalstead, it encountered the gale while passing an embankment, and was overturned. One of the cars was broken from its coupling and thrown by the force of the wind down the bank.

From New York.
NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—A Memphis dispatch of the 24th inst. says:
There are 12,000 Federals at Murray, Kentucky, threatening Fort Henry and the Memphis and Ohio Railroad; their object being to cut off communication between Columbus and Bowling Green.

From New York.
NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—A tremendous gale prevailed all through Western Vermont this morning. As the train which left Troy for Rutland at 7:15 A. M. was five or six miles above Bennington, in the town of Shalstead, it encountered the gale while passing an embankment, and was overturned. One of the cars was broken from its coupling and thrown by the force of the wind down the bank.

From New York.
NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—A Memphis dispatch of the 24th inst. says:
There are 12,000 Federals at Murray, Kentucky, threatening Fort Henry and the Memphis and Ohio Railroad; their object being to cut off communication between Columbus and Bowling Green.

From New York.
NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—A tremendous gale prevailed all through Western Vermont this morning. As the train which left Troy for Rutland at 7:15 A. M. was five or six miles above Bennington, in the town of Shalstead, it encountered the gale while passing an embankment, and was overturned. One of the cars was broken from its coupling and thrown by the force of the wind down the bank.

From New York.
NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—A Memphis dispatch of the 24th inst. says:
There are 12,000 Federals at Murray, Kentucky, threatening Fort Henry and the Memphis and Ohio Railroad; their object being to cut off communication between Columbus and Bowling Green.

From New York.
NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—A tremendous gale prevailed all through Western Vermont this morning. As the train which left Troy for Rutland at 7:15 A. M. was five or six miles above Bennington, in the town of Shalstead, it encountered the gale while passing an embankment, and was overturned. One of the cars was broken from its coupling and thrown by the force of the wind down the bank.

From New York.
NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—A Memphis dispatch of the 24th inst. says:
There are 12,000 Federals at Murray, Kentucky, threatening Fort Henry and the Memphis and Ohio Railroad; their object being to cut off communication between Columbus and Bowling Green.

From New York.
NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—A tremendous gale prevailed all through Western Vermont this morning. As the train which left Troy for Rutland at 7:15 A. M. was five or six miles above Bennington, in the town of Shalstead, it encountered the gale while passing an embankment, and was overturned. One of the cars was broken from its coupling and thrown by the force of the wind down the bank.

From New York.
NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—A Memphis dispatch of the 24th inst. says:
There are 12,000 Federals at Murray, Kentucky, threatening Fort Henry and the Memphis and Ohio Railroad; their object being to cut off communication between Columbus and Bowling Green.

From New York.
NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—A tremendous gale prevailed all through Western Vermont this morning. As the train which left Troy for Rutland at 7:15 A. M. was five or six miles above Bennington, in the town of Shalstead, it encountered the gale while passing an embankment, and was overturned. One of the cars was broken from its coupling and thrown by the force of the wind down the bank.

From New York.
NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—A Memphis dispatch of the 24th inst. says:
There are 12,000 Federals at Murray, Kentucky, threatening Fort Henry and the Memphis and Ohio Railroad; their object being to cut off communication between Columbus and Bowling Green.

From New York.
NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—A tremendous gale prevailed all through Western Vermont this morning. As the train which left Troy for Rutland at 7:15 A. M. was five or six miles above Bennington, in the town of Shalstead, it encountered the gale while passing an embankment, and was overturned. One of the cars was broken from its coupling and thrown by the force of the wind down the bank.

From New York.
NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—A Memphis dispatch of the 24th inst. says:
There are 12,000 Federals at Murray, Kentucky, threatening Fort Henry and the Memphis and Ohio Railroad; their object being to cut off communication between Columbus and Bowling Green.

From New York.
NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—A tremendous gale prevailed all through Western Vermont this morning. As the train which left Troy for Rutland at 7:15 A. M. was five or six miles above Bennington, in the town of Shalstead, it encountered the gale while passing an embankment, and was overturned. One of the cars was broken from its coupling and thrown by the force of the wind down the bank.

From New York.
NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—A Memphis dispatch of the 24th inst. says:
There are 12,000 Federals at Murray, Kentucky, threatening Fort Henry and the Memphis and Ohio Railroad; their object being to cut off communication between Columbus and Bowling Green.

From New York.
NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—A tremendous gale prevailed all through Western Vermont this morning. As the train which left Troy for Rutland at 7:15 A. M. was five or six miles above Bennington, in the town of Shalstead, it encountered the gale while passing an embankment