

Proceedings of the 5th of January Convention, being exhausted, and to meet the additional orders we are daily receiving for them, we have concluded to publish another edition in larger type. Those of our friends who desire to order them will please do so promptly. Price $1 per hundred.

No better document can be circulated to disseminate the public mind of the true condition of affairs than our newspapers and politicians have attempted to create in regard to the character of the Convention and its action upon the momentous issues now before the country.

Miss MASHON MACARTHY—We would call attention to the fact that this lady has announced her intention to take place on tomorrow, (Friday) evening. She has contributed very much to the amusement of our citizens; let her be regarded with an overflowing love. She deserves it.

Understand from Mr. Dennis Loomery, agent for the company, that the Indiana Central Railroad is now doing a heavy business, both as respects passengers and freight. Passengers taking the Indiana Central reach any point Eastward cheaply and expeditiously, making all connections without delay.

THE FEMALE ZOUAVES, Tim Woodruff, are playing, we see, at New Albany. The printers at New Albany and all other points, had better get their pay from this company in advance. In this city they have several unpaid accounts with printers, this office among them. Pass this printer-cheating company round.

Have you seen those beautiful sets of jewelry in W. H. Talbot & Co's show window which they are selling at risk cost? If not, we say to you go at once, as such a chance to procure a nice set of jewelry at the prices they are offering them may never happen again. Go before all the prettiest sets are taken. Store No. 24 East Washington street.

LADIES WITH HEADRISKS—The Congressional Directory, at the head of its alphabetical list of Senators and Representatives, says, in a bracket: "The asterisk (*) denotes those whose wives were in company with them." This has given rise to the slang word in Washington society, "How is your asterisk?" being the common inquiry of a Congressional lady's husband.

"THE GARDEN STATE"—Illinois formed her present State Constitution in 1820, with a population of 64,000. She is now forming a new Constitution, her inhabitants having increased to 1,711,000, and far outgrown the old fixtures of government. The "Garden State" has, in forty-one years, multiplied her people thirty-one times—a more rapid growth than any other American State can show.

GENERAL TOM THUMB—This renowned military chieftain, will visit this city, we are informed, sometime during March next. The General's hosts of friends will, undoubtedly, be exceedingly happy to greet him. General Thumb is among the greatest of our Generals and if he was in command of our armies he would carry us in order to Brooklyn, routing the Amazons and the giant-killers, horse, foot and dragons or die with the star spangled banner waving over him.

METROPOLITAN HALL—The Invisible Prince is in the full tide of success at our popular theatre. It is most beautiful, and well worth a visit from our citizens. The story is an interesting one, the scenery gorgeous, the dresses dazzling and costly, the acting all that could be desired, and when we add that the principal part of the vocalization is entrusted to and executed by the charming cantatrice, Miss Marion Macarthy, that is of itself a guarantee that it is well executed. The run of the piece rests with Felix A. Vincent; that, also, is a sufficient assurance.

EXHIBITION AT THE SCHOOL OF SISTERS OF PROVIDENCE—Last night the parents and guardians of the children taught by the Sisters of Providence were surprised and delighted by an exhibition of the proficiency of the pupils, given at the school room of the noble ladies who so self-sacrificingly devote themselves to all good works. Nothing in the world could better illustrate the conscientious pains and the unselfish devotion of those who teach than did the excellent and admirable performances of the children who attend the school of the Sisters of Providence.

FURS—We call the attention of the ladies and the public generally to the circulars issued by L. I. Mossler, No. 10 West Washington street. He has unquestionably the finest and most extensive stock of elegant, rare and rich furs ever offered in Indianapolis. He, that these desirable articles may be brought within the reach of all, will offer them at auction. The sales will commence this morning at 10 o'clock, and continue from day to day. Ladies are particularly requested to call and examine the stock. Mr. Mossler's courteous clerks will take great pleasure in showing them everything they wish to see. 20 U. S.

BURGLARY—One of the most amusing burglaries (if laughing at another's misfortunes is at all admissible) occurred on Tuesday night. The wall paper establishment of Mr. W. H. Roll, on South Illinois street, was entered by burglars, and what amuses us is, his safe, a medium-sized one, which would require at least four men to move, was carried off. We have not learned what valuables it contained, or the further extent of Mr. Roll's loss. The amusing part of this robbery is, the coolness of the act, and the indifference evinced by the robbers for our night police. The clock of the front door was picked, which must have taken some time; the store is one of our most public thoroughfares, yet the robbers were not detected. Oh! most vigilant guardians of our property! The safe was taken out the back door, evidently causing some noise, and carried off on a dory, or other vehicle, yet there was no detection. How valiantly, vigilantly, efficiently and effectively are our houses guarded and protected by our well-paid and unequalled night guardians! Burglars, murderers, thieves and marauders act with impunity, and set our police-men at defiance.

THE BASKET TRICK—The latest and basest trick to defraud the United States Treasury, is that stated by the Washington correspondent to have been resorted to by a Colonel of a regiment, who had his son—who knew little more about music than a jackass—appointed to a place in the regimental band, drawing a Lieutenant's pay, to carry an instrument on which he could not play a note. If the thing was not so monstrous, such a solemn farce would provoke a horse laugh. The army of leeches sucking the life-blood of the nation appears more numerous and insatiable than the great and devouring cloud of locusts that plagued and "darkened all the land of Nile," and if prompt, bold and severe measures are not taken to rid the service of them, it will be useless to attempt to prosecute this expensive war for a very long period. Give us the name of this Colonel; we are anxious to give it an airing.—Ch. Press.

THE AMERICAN HOME, MADISON—This is one of the best hotels in the State. It is elegantly situated on the corner of Mulberry and Ohio streets, convenient to the river and the railroad depot. Mr. P. Wateries, one of the most accomplished of gentlemen, is the proprietor. We commend the American to all our friends visiting Madison.

REVIVALS OF RELIGION

It is said that Miss Ann Shaw will shortly appear at the Metropolitan, in the city, to be succeeded by Ada Isaac Menken Hoeman.

Basnet Taylor will lecture before the Young Men's Christian Association on Monday evening, February 2d, at Masonic Hall. Subject:—The American People, socially and politically.

THE VOLUNTEER

'Tis ever, one bright beaming star, Shines from the eastern heaven afar, To light the footsteps of the brave, Slow marching to a comrade's grave.

The chill North wind has sunk to sleep, The sweet South breathes, as low and deep, The martial clang is heard, the tread Of those who will be silent dead.

And whose the form, his stark and cold, Thus ready for the loosened mold, And stretched upon so rude a bier? Poor volunteer, the soldier's peer.

Alas! no wife's fond arms caressed, His cheek no tender mother pressed, No playing son, or his side's aid, Alone in his tent he lies.

He died—the Volunteer—small platoon, At evening came the fatal noon, That soon will leave him to his rest, With sods upon his manly breast.

Hark to their first, his only knell— More solemn than the passing bell; For, all it tells a spirit found, Unshriven, to the dark unknown.

His deeds and fate shall fade away, Forgotten since his dying day, And never on the roll of Fame Shall be inscribed his humble name.

How! like him, how many more, He died upon Potomac's shore, How many green unmarked graves Are border'd by those placid waves!

Sleep, soldier, sleep from sorrow free, And sin and strife, 'Tis well with thee, 'Tis well; though not a single tear Laments the buried Volunteer!

Which Western Governor? The New York Tribune publishes the following as "well authenticated": How it is done—SOMETIMES—A clerk of the Department in Washington was lately detected in the act of communicating information to the rebels, and was immediately discharged. A few days after he appeared at the Secretary's office with a letter, asking his reappointment. This letter was from a Governor of one of the Western States. He writes to the Secretary that the clerk is an old and intimate friend of his, a good and loyal citizen, has been most unjustly dealt by, and winds up by asking it as a particular personal favor that Mr. Sec. should reappoint him. The request was immediately complied with. Directly after, an acquaintance meeting Mr. Reappointed, said to him: "Where did you get acquainted with Governor—?" "I never was acquainted with him—never spoke to him in my life."

"How, then, did you get such a strong letter from him to the Secretary?" "Oh, I have a pretty sister, who went to Alex. when the other day with the Governor. She procured the letter for me!" QUIT YET.

From Rev. Mr. McMullen, Pastor of Roberts Chapel, Madison, Ind., October 6, 1857. DR. C. W. ROBACK—Dear Sir: I have used your Blood Purifier for a nervous affection, from which I have suffered much at times. While it is pleasant to the taste, it certainly has a happy effect upon the nerves. Please accept my thanks for your kind regards, and believe me, Yours, J. W. T. McMullen.

MEDICAL

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES. In the month of December, 1856, the undersigned for the first time prepared for sale the DR. J. BOVEE DODS' IMPERIAL WINE BITTERS, and in this short period they have given such universal satisfaction to the many thousands of persons who have tried them that it is now an established article. The amount of bodily and mental misery arising simply from a neglect of small complaints is surprising, and it is therefore of the utmost importance that a strict attention to the least and most trifling bodily ailment should be had; for diseases of the body most invariably affect the mind. The subscribers now only ask a trial of DR. J. BOVEE DODS' IMPERIAL WINE BITTERS! from all who have not used them. We challenge the world to produce their equal.

These Bitters for the cure of Weak Stomach, General Debility, and for Purifying and Enriching the Blood, are absolutely unsurpassed by any other remedy on earth. To be assured of this, it is only necessary to make the trial. The Wine Bitters is of a very superior quality, being about one-third stronger than other wines; warming and invigorating the whole system from the head to the feet. As these Bitters are tonic and alterative in their character, so they strengthen and invigorate the whole system and give a new and healthy action to all its parts, by equalizing the circulation, removing obstructions, and producing a general warmth. They are also excellent for Diseases and Weakness peculiar to Females, where a Tonic is required to strengthen and brace the system. No lady who is subject to indigestion and nervousness should be without them, as they are revivifying in their action.
