LAW BOOKS.
NEW AND VALUABLE WORK
 FOR LAWYERS, JUSTICES OF THE PEACE,
 And all Connected with the Judicial Administration of the Government.

THE STATUTE
 OF THE STATE OF INDIANA,
 CONTAINING THE REVISED STATUTES OF 1852 with the amendments thereto, and the subsequent legislation, with notes and references. Judicial decisions.

EDITED BY
JAMES GAVIN AND OSCAR ORD.
 Volume 1, Published by
BINGHAM & DOUGHTY,
 INDIANAPOLIS.

Judge David McDonald, one of the most eminent lawyers of the State, volunteered the following recommendation of the work:
 "STATUTES OF INDIANA, BY GAVIN & ORD.—Some months ago, the above named gentleman presented proposals for publishing, in two volumes octavo of some 800 pages each, all the statutes of the State passed since 1852, with annotations. The first volume of the work is now published, and the manner of its execution, both mechanically and editorially, deserves the thanks of the profession."
 The imperfect manner of publishing our statutes under State authority, has always been a source of great inconvenience to the Indiana lawyer. The revision of 1852, as well as the statutes passed since that year, might almost as well have been unprinted, had it not been for the fact that the time the lawyer has constantly been under the necessity of turning over, leaf by leaf, the volumes of our statutes to find any particular enactment. And every one knows how annoying and provoking this is, especially in the hurry of business as in our Courts. Happily for the profession, the publication of this excellent work is now a better state of things in the future. The first volume of Messrs. Gavin & Ord's work contains an excellent and copious index, which to every practicing lawyer in the State is itself worth as much as the volume contains.
 The volume under review contains an excellent and copious index, which to every practicing lawyer in the State is itself worth as much as the volume contains. It is a glance at the margin is sufficient to apprise the reader of the contents of the book.<
