

DAILY SENTINEL

MONDAY MARCH 21 THE DAILY SENTINEL ON EARLY TRAINS.

The Daily Sentinel is sent by all the early morning express and freight trains, and delivered to subscribers in adjacent towns about the same time it is distributed in this city.

SPEECHES OF Hendricks and Voorhees.

The speech of Hon. Thomas A. Hendricks, before the Democratic Convention on the 18th of January, 1862, and the speech of Hon. Daniel W. Voorhees, in the House of Representatives, February 20, on the day of the Federal Government in its relations to the rebels.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

To-morrow is the 1st of April. Look out.

Four more rebel prisoners died at Hospital No. 3, Meridian street, night before last.

March winds prevailed yesterday. We never saw ladies' dresses fit so tight before and behind.

The New Albany Ledger says that a considerable breadth of land will be planted in flax in that section of the State the coming season.

$100 REWARD.—We call attention to the advertisement of a "Bag lost," elsewhere in to-day's paper.

GIRL WANTED.—To do general house-work for a small family. Apply at No. 65 West New Street.

Parson Brownlow, at last accounts, was in Cincinnati. He will probably visit Indianapolis. The Young Men's Christian Association propose to invite him to lecture.

Nothing of importance transpired in the Marion Circuit court on Saturday last. A recess was taken at 12 o'clock M., until to-day 9 o'clock A. M.

The most magnificent Fall Creek and White River suckers are now wonderfully abundant. At this season of the year these fish are excellent.

Ice! Ice!—George W. Pitts informs us that his plant is plenty of ice in store to supply all his customers in this city and any amount of town ones, and also can spare from 1,000 to 1,500 tons for shipping to other places.

WANTED.—We direct the attention of those wishing to improve their premises by shade trees, shrubbery, &c., to the advertisement of Messrs. Goldsmith & Co. in our paper to-day. They can supply all demands in their line.

There is a rich man in this city, who was very poor when he was a small boy. In fact, he came into the world in a state of nudity, having not even teeth or hair, to say nothing of store clothes and a plug hat.

The Terre Haute Journal says: "Magnificent fish, consisting of white, yellow and black bass, perch, sunfish, and other rare species from the reservoir, are sold by the pound, and the reservoir is one of the greatest fisheries in the Western country."

The friends, relatives, and acquaintances of the rebel prisoners in the hospitals, are allowed every afternoon, until 5 o'clock, to come to the city to visit them. This is humane, and speaks volumes in behalf of the Union men of Indiana, and of those in authority.

Three more rebel prisoners escaped from hospital No. 2, on Meridian street, on Saturday night last. Their names were Walter G. Thompson, Samuel Lindsey, and Joseph Woodfolk, all of Kentucky. They fled thence, out in the free air of liberty from a back window of the institution.

On Saturday afternoon last, on the corner of Meridian and Washington streets, a horse attached to a buggy caught himself by a swinging telegraph wire under his tail. After kicking up his heels awhile he was extricated to the infinite and inexpressible joy of his driver.

An aged and infirm gentleman was seriously injured on Saturday last near Old Fellows' Hall by being, while crossing the street, driven over by a buggy driven by a man and which was being driven rapidly. Certainly those who have the reins should guide their animals with a more gentle hand.

We call the attention of our Democratic readers to the Indiana Daily Sentinel. It is the Democratic paper of Indiana, and costs only ten cents per week, arriving in Attica and this place by Express the same day it is issued. Give it a wide circulation. It can be obtained by calling on "mine host" David Adler, at the Merchants' Hotel.—Carrollton Friend.

When you want a step-ladder, don't go and pay a carpenter two prices for making you a heavy, clumsy step, that will not come to the person has to move it about, but buy one of those patent steps, weighing only 14 pounds, and which cost only $3. For sale at No. 26, opposite opposite Glenn's. Steps from four to ten feet kept constantly on hand.

EXCESS OF WOMEN.—In 1850 the excess of white women in the city of New York over the white men was 5,716, and in 1851 it had increased to 19,368. The excess of negro females was 1,699, or a total excess of females of 21,063. The New York Tribune says that a census at this time would show an excess of 50,000 females over the males in that city.

LEGAL.—Not a thousand miles from Indianapolis is a lawyer who, it is said, advised a farmer to bring an action of assault and battery against his neighbor for feeding his chickens. The farmer has the advice under consideration.—Ind. Sentinel.

We would advise the farmer to disregard the counsel of his legal adviser, and institute a suit for slander.—Dayton Enquirer.

The firm of Verden & Co., opposite Glenn's Block, have a large collection of medical books, comprising all the latest works and editions, and at the lowest prices. A good medical library can be selected from their stock upon more favorable terms than in any other Western town. Foreign works ordered. Physicians and medical students, send in your orders, and they will be promptly filled.

STOCK BY LIGHTNING.—The dwelling adjoining that of William P. Fishback, the accomplished City Attorney, was struck by lightning on Friday night last. Rents and seams were made in the walls, the fluid descending the chimneys. The inmates of the house, of whom there were several, including women and children, were started considerably, but it gives us pleasure to state that nobody was seriously hurt.

A bite and golden streak in the progress of the universe from the beginning towards eternity was yesterday. In less substantial, metaphysical, alchemical, metaphysical, and transcendental words, we may say that the day was an exceedingly fine day, and all the little pigs, large hogs, the dogs, women, children, hens, woodpeckers, moles, tipels, and quadrupeds generally, enjoyed it. We smiled upon the blue-eyed and the lovely as their ribbons fluttered past in the virgin air, and we saw what chance the strand they were incantly bent. We saw the pigs curl their tails with no concern what ever.

TO THE PUBLIC.—The Sanitary Committee are anxious to make preparation to meet the demands for clothing, &c., that may be occasioned by the campaign of the Tennessee river.

TO THE PUBLIC.—The Sanitary Committee are anxious to make preparation to meet the demands for clothing, &c., that may be occasioned by the campaign of the Tennessee river. We have a large stock of labor, and must have the materials. An assessment of ten cents is not enough. The subscribers to the soldiers' relief fund will be waited on by Mr. James Turner, Jr., and a demand made for an assessment of ten percent. But one call can be made, and promptness is extremely recommended.—ALFRED HARRISON, Treas.

THE GREENS.—The magnificent improvement in this city, is thus noticed in a recent number of the Indianapolis American: "It was completed last night by competent observers, with the aid of several powerful glasses, that the city is the highest point of the city fire tower, on Glenn's beautiful Block, to the moon was a trifle over 850,000,000 miles. It was further estimated that the distance back again was precisely the same."

A RUMOR AT CAMP MORTON.—Rumors were rife throughout the city yesterday that the night before sundry prisoners had attempted to escape from Camp Morton, and that volleys from a hundred muskets had been fired on the rebels. On the eight, ten, or fifteen. We have traced the rumor to its source, and have ascertained that there was a dispute in front of a pump usually used by a shop at half a mile this side of the camp, and accidentally a fellow's gun flamed, loaded to the muzzle, discharged itself. Patriots cringing pulled the trigger.

"Justice."—Some fellow writing to the Journal over this signature, complains that we made such an appropriation of a communication he addressed to us that we thought fit. We have that right, and if he had any common sense he should know it. We declined to publish his reply to "a church-going" fellow, for the reasons that his communication is ample evidence that he is neither a Christian or a gentleman, and no man professing to be either would use the language and the sentiments used to a woman. This fellow "Justice" calls himself a doctor, and thinks that an application of the "tincture of iodine" to the back of the neck is a sovereign remedy for every disease that flesh is heir to. He can see no good or beauty unless in a black skin.

St. John's Catholic Church was crowded on yesterday and last night to hear the Rev. Father Smarius on the opening of his mission. He was but one opinion as to his great power, and that the Rev. Father's language and oratory are perfect; he speaks without any effort, and never halts or pauses for a moment, but goes right on with such ease and in so rapid a manner that his hearers are never tired; and, so much so in this respect that a hundred sermon does not appear to exceed half an hour. The Father speaks twice a day—at 9 o'clock A. M. and 7 1/2 o'clock in the evening. His subject to-night will be "Confession," and consequently will be most interesting and useful in its character. That it will be interesting to no one that heard him yesterday doubts. All are invited to attend the services.

MILITARY ITEMS.

Colonel Wilson, of the 40th Indiana, has resigned.

DOINGS of a "SECESSIONIST."—Intelligence comes that General Shields is being fought by way of inch by inch toward rebellion by way of Strasburg, forty miles southwest of Harper's Ferry. This is the man against whose confirmation both Howell and Beall voted, because he is a "Secessionist." It is to be regretted that just such Secessionists as General Shields don't fill the dishonored places of our Senators.—Milwaukee News.

Capt. Chris Miller lead the advance at Rich Mountain, and was the first man shot down.

Colonel T. Crittenden, of the 6th Indiana, is spoken of at Washington in connection with a nomination as a Brigadier General. If he receives it, Indiana will have twelve Brigadiers and a Major General.

The following Indiana soldiers have died, recently, in Louisville.

March 22—James Smith, co. C, 17th Ind. Co. W. Fuller, co. I, 34th Ind.; J. Bishop, co. F, 19th Ind.

March 26—L. Crandell, co. H, 9th Ind. M. Hays, co. A, 36th Ind.; M. Carrico, co. C, 9th Ind.

March 27—Thomas Westlake, co. A, 48th Ind.; Edward Dyer, co. E, 31st Ind.

March 28—John Skelton, co. A, 58th Ind.; Michael Bone, co. G, 10th Ind.

Squads of sick soldiers are arriving on every train from Kentucky on the sick leaves obtained by Capt. Wilson, Assistant Adjutant General of this State.

Leut. Worden, the gallant commander of the Monitor, is still very ill. A letter from one of his friends at Washington says: "Erasmus has broken out, and for two or three days we feared for his life. He is rallying a little now, and with my wife and his wife in the city, we hope to bring him round, though he will be awfully scarred. But he will have the consolation of knowing that he is the first man who ever laid a score of men in shells, within ten inches of his head, and live to tell of it."

INDIANA SOLDIERS DECEASED AT NELSON FERNACE, NELSON CO., KY.—Feb. 16—James Reator, private, 50th Indiana Co. K; Feb. 17—Charles Horner, private, 36th Indiana Co. K; D. K. Brown, private, 44th Indiana Co. K; Feb. 22—Aaron Merritt, private, 36th Indiana Co. I; Feb. 23—David Stout, private, 15th Indiana Co. E.

THE WINCHESTER FIGHT.—The following is a list of the killed and wounded: Seventh Indiana—John McKnight, H. Thompson, John W. Jones, George R. Covert, George Holmes, Matthew R. Pander, H. Ridgeway, Orderly Sergeant L. Davis, Charles Montague—all wounded.

FOURTEENTH INDIANA.—Howard Laner, J. H. Simson, Adm. Marx, L. Briggs, J. Rogers, C. Warner, C. Mews, J. Crump, E. Barrett, P. A. Miller, A. Nellis, J. Webster, J. Miller, H. Hollie, H. Hooker, E. J. Smith, J. H. Miller, James Wallis, W. H. Statt, Lieut. D. Bean, Lieut. John Lindsey, Lieut. E. Slocum, Capt. J. B. Kelly—all wounded.

THIRTEENTH INDIANA.—Daniel W. Morgan, Andrew Fullum, John Conrad Rohmer, J. F. Graham, G. W. Baker, J. S. Ellison, Frank Pesch, Andrew Levy—all wounded.

Three of the Thirteenth Indiana were killed, names not yet ascertained.

THE NEXT BATTLE WITH THE REBELS.—It is generally believed that the next battle will take place at or near Corinth, Mississippi, where it is said a very large rebel force is accumulating under Beauregard and Polk. Corinth is a village in Tennessee county, Mississippi, usually called Fannin county. It lies at the junction of the Mobile and Ohio with the Memphis and Charleston railroads. The possession of this point, commanding the two railroads, one leading to Memphis and the other through Western Tennessee, is important to the issue.

THE UNITED STATES NAVY seems to be engaged in the useless occupation of "Dropping buckets into empty wells." And growing old in doing nothing up.

INDIANA PATRIOTISM.—During the Mexican War, a fragment from Indiana seemed to alter its sentiment, possibly from the fact that the officer of the day, John Davis, in a speech in the United States Senate, subsequently cast a sneer at the bravery of the people of that State, and taunted them with the remark that the Mississippians had saved their regiment on the occasion alluded to. The present war has enabled the Indiana boys fully to avenge themselves for the insult; for in every battle which has taken place, the brave Hoosiers, if in the matter, have proved themselves equal to any troops in the field, and they are to be found in every army, South or West. No State of her population, has sent forth to the war, more or better soldiers than Indiana, and recruiting still actively progresses.—Chn. Press.

SOUTHERN NEWS.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—A special dispatch to the Tribune says: "The quartermaster of General Blenker's Division states that a party of rebel soldiers, numbering about fifty, visited Fairfax Court House yesterday, there being at the time no troops there, and with arms in their hands attacked and drove out the soldiers and destroyed their stores, at the same time tearing down all the Union flags."

A party of the Green Division was ordered from Centerville to guard the town from such marauders. The President will to-morrow send into the Senate the nomination of Bayard Taylor as Secretary of Legation at St. Petersburg.

The President placed at Minister Cameron's disposal a frigate to convey him to Europe, but he has declined the courtesy. It is said that Secretary Stanton authorized Judge Thomas' report from Boston to say that the Union troops advanced yesterday upon the rebel outposts beyond Warrenton Junction, driving the enemy, estimated at 10,000, before them along the line of the Gordonsville railroad.

The road beyond Warrenton Junction is utterly destroyed, bridges, the cross-ties burned and the rails bent into every conceivable shape.

The Union troops are in excellent health, and are pushing after the retreating rebels as rapidly as circumstances will allow.

The telegraph lines follow the advancing army, and offices are established from day to day. An excursion party went on the Manassas Gap road, about five miles beyond the Junction, cutting a way for the army, and the rebels were driven from the track. The road was otherwise in perfect order and the water stations unimpaired. They also proceeded on the road to Gordonsville as far as Bristol's Station, at which point the bridge over the road was destroyed.

James Crockett, who has been an engineer on the Manassas Gap Road nine years, accompanied the party. He remained with the rebels until the recent evacuation of Manassas and brought down the train from Gordonsville to the Junction. He states the rebels commenced evacuating Manassas on the 2d of March.

The troops moved off very hurriedly, and were in such great haste of being driven by the advancing Union troops that their officers threatened instant death to every man who fired a shot, alleging as a reason that a smoke would hasten the retreat of the army.

The rebel cannon, he says, were of small caliber and few in number, but had enormous quantities of stores, much of which could not be removed, and was burned after the main part of the army had left.

The inhabitants at Frederickburg are in great consternation, expecting an immediate attack from the Union troops. Many are leaving with their effects.

It is expected there that the rebels will fall back towards Richmond, between which place and Frederickburg they will give battle.

The report at Aquia creek was not burnt as late as Monday, for the rebels plainly visible from the vessels of our Potomac flotilla.

On Friday last a schooner from Baltimore went by the Rappahannock, having on board a large quantity of stores and clothing for the rebel troops.

The Times' dispatch says: "The President to-day nominated Gen. Caldwell as Major General of volunteers. He will take the field at once."

Francis Gallagher, of Baltimore, a prominent lawyer there, and well known in this city, was killed at the battle of Winchester on Sunday last while fighting for the cause of the Union.

The Senate Committee agreed yesterday to reduce the tax upon newspaper advertisements proposed in the tax bill, from five to three per cent, and decided to establish an ad valorem tax of three per cent upon paper, instead of the proposed tax of three mills per pound.

The Tribune's dispatch says: "To-day the President nominated, at the recommendation of the Indiana delegation, the following Colonels of Indiana volunteers, as Brigadier Generals: A. P. Hovey, W. Kimball, W. P. Benton, J. C. Veitch and P. A. Hackleman."

Secretary Chase means to carry out the principle announced some time ago, that commerce shall be free from the day to-day reports a general insubordination, and but little confidence is felt even in the large force concentrating at Corinth.

Night Dispatches.

From Washington. WASHINGTON, March 20.—A military department to be called the Middle Department, and to consist of the States of New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, and the Eastern Shore of Maryland and Virginia, and the counties of Cecil, Harford, Baltimore, and Anne Arundel, has been created, and Maj. Gen. Dix, U. S. volunteer, is appointed to command it, with his headquarters at Baltimore.

No troops in the United States service will be sent to the city of New York without reporting to the United States military authorities entrusted with the duty of providing subsistence and transportation in that city.

The Times' correspondent, writing from Warrenton Junction says: "The rebels have been crowded steadily from the Rappahannock. Four of the New York 66th, Col. Pinckney, were captured night before last while on picket duty."

Snobs were exchanged constantly with the rebels during yesterday.

Two brigades of the rebels being closely pursued retreated across the Rappahannock towards Gordonsville and blew up the railroad bridge. The rebels are now south of the Rappahannock river.

The commission appointed by the War Department to adjust the claims of contractors have made many important reductions in the final settlements of some of the contractors. The commission will save the Treasury millions of dollars.

The committee on the bankrupt law had a long session last evening and agreed to report Mr. Conkling's bill with some amendments.

From Missouri. ROLLA, March 20.—Reliable persons just from our army in the south west, say the rebels, some 25,000, under Vandorn and Price, have retreated entirely across Boston Mountains, and are now at Van Buren and Fort Smith, receiving supplies from Memphis and Little Rock, via Arkansas river, which is high.

Texas troops are much disheartened at the defeat of the rebels at Manssah, and Arkansas fell the loss of Gen. McIntosh very severely.

The rebels are badly off for clothing and shoes. The rebel Indians have mostly returned to the Indian nation. They were not formidable in battle, being panic-stricken at the effect of our artillery.

Price received a Major General's commission in the Confederate service on the 16th.

A regiment of Texas troops reached Van Buren on the 18th to reinforce Vandorn, and more were expected from Louisiana.
