

UNION DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

WHEREAS, The Democratic party, having from the date of its organization, been in favor of the maintenance of the Union and the preservation of the Constitution...

1. That we reaffirm and endorse the political principles that from time to time have been put forth by the National Conventions of the Democratic party.

2. That we are unalterably attached to the Constitution, by which the Union of these States was formed and established; and that a faithful observance of its principles can alone continue the existence of the Union, and the permanent happiness of the people.

3. That the present civil war has mainly resulted from the long continued, unwise, and fanatical agitation, in the North, of the question of domestic slavery, the consequent organization of a geographical party, and the development thereby of sectional hate and jealousy, producing (as has long been foreseen and predicted by us) its counterpart in the South...

4. That in rejecting the propositions likely to result in a satisfactory adjustment of the matters in dispute between the North and the South, and especially those measures which would have secured the border slave States to the Union, and a hearty co-operation on their part...

5. That if the party in power had shown the same desire to settle, by amicable adjustment, our internal dissensions before hostilities had actually commenced, that the Administration has recently exhibited towards the Southern States...

6. That the maintenance of the Union upon the principles of the Federal Constitution should be the controlling object of all who profess loyalty to the Government...

7. That the Republican party has fully demonstrated its inability to conduct the Government through its present difficulties.

8. That we are utterly opposed to the twin heresies, Northern sectionalism and Southern secession, as inimical to the Constitution; and that freedom, as they value the boon of civil liberty and the peace of the country, should form indignantly upon them.

9. That in this national emergency the Democracy of Indiana, banishing all feeling of passion and resentment, will recollect only their duty to the whole country; that this war should not be waged in the spirit of conquest or subjugation...

10. That we will sustain, with all our energies, a war for the maintenance of the Constitution, and for the integrity of the Union under the Constitution; and that as soon as these objects are accomplished the war ought to cease.

11. That the purposes avowed and advocated by the Northern disunionists to liberate and arm the negro slaves, is unconstitutional, insulting to loyal citizens, a disgrace to the age, is calculated to retard the suppression of the rebellion and meet our unqualified condemnation.

12. That the total disregard of the writ of Habeas corpus by the authorities over us, and the seizure and imprisonment of the citizens of loyal States where the judiciary is in full operation, without warrant of law and without assigning any cause or giving to the party arrested any opportunity of defense, are flagrant violations of the Constitution and most alarming acts of usurpation of power...

13. That liberty of speech and of the press are guaranteed to the people by the Constitution, and none but a usurper would deprive them of these rights; they are inalienable to the citizen and inalienable to tyrants only. And the attempts which have been made since our present unfortunate troubles, to muzzle the press and stifle free discussion, are exercises of despotic power which freedom revolts and which can not be tolerated without converting freemen into slaves.

14. That the seizure of Sidel and Mason, on board a neutral vessel, on the high seas, was either in accordance with international law, or so legal, or else in violation of such law, and so illegal, if the former, we lament that our nation has been humiliated by their surrender, under a threat; if the latter, it was the duty of the Administration at once to have discovered the act of their officer, and instead of incarcerating the captives in Fort Warren, to have immediately repaired the wrong by placing them, as far as practicable, in the hands of their friends, and to have held them in either event, the action of the Administration was vacillating and cowardly, and degrading to the dignity of a great nation.

15. That the action of the Republican party, as manifested in the partition character of all appointments of the Administration to civil office, and in holding party caucuses by the Republican members of Congress, is an impugning upon the legislative action of that body the regular dogmas of that party, have demonstrated that their professions of "sacrificing party platforms, and party organizations, upon the altar of their country," are but so many hypocritical and false pretences by which they hope to divert the attention of their support; and we warn all loyal persons, as they love their country, not to be deceived thereby.

16. That the disclosures made by the investigating committee in Congress of the enormous frauds that have been perpetrated in the various departments, implicating the heads of those departments in a connivance at, if not an actual participation in a system of corruption, and in which our brave soldiers have been defrauded of their proper supplies, and our Government has been enriched with bankruptcies, demands a thorough investigation into all our expenditures, both State and National, and that a speedy and marked example be made of all such "hard-core" men, who, taking advantage of the necessities of our country, have fed and fattened upon public plunder.

Resolved, That the meritorious conduct of the Indian troops, in every battle field where victory has prevailed upon the Union side, should be the people of this State with the highest gratitude to their gallant sons, and that we send our best wishes to officers and men, dispersed throughout the country, and in the heartiest greetings of every Democrat to the brave and noble achievements in the coming contests for the maintenance of the Constitution and the Union.

Prof. O. J. Wood, Dear Sir—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to try your medicine, and find your Hair Restorative a perfect rest.

On the 3rd of June, 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my saddle against a rock near the road side, from which my head received a most terrible blow, causing a great deal of irritation, which continued to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effect of which my hair was finally destroyed over the entire surface of the head. From the time I first discovered the dropping, however, up to the time of the total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of being a professional man myself, and, as I thought understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.

These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy Hair Restorative, which I have every reason to believe produced a permanent cure. I had a very young hair as ever again, for which I certainly owe you most sincere thanks. Had I not used your Hair Restorative, I should have been obliged to have had my hair shaved, which I would not have done for any reason, as I have a full head of hair, and I am happy to inform you, are using it with like effect. Very respectfully, A. A. Attorney and Counselor at Law.
