BOSTON CORNERS, N. Y., Dec. 27th, 1861. WM. H. GREGO & Ce: Gents: I freely give you liberty to make use of the fol-lowing certificate of the value of Constitution Water, which

I can recommend in the biguest manner: My wife, who was attacked with pain in the shoulders, whole length of back, and in her timbs, with Palpitation of the Beart, attended with Falling of the Womb, Dysmenorrhoa, and Irritation of the Bladder. I called a ysician, who attended her about three months, when left her worse than he found her. I then employed one of the best physicians I could find, who attended her for about nine m-nths, and while she was under his care shedid not suffer quite as much pain; he finally gave her up and said, "her case was incurable" For, said he, she has such a combination of complaints, that medi cine given for one operates against some other of her difficulties." About this time she commenced the use of Constitution Water, and to our utter astenishment, al most the first dose seemed to have the desired effect, and she kept on improving rapidly under its treatment, and now superintends entirely her domestic affairs. She has not taken any of the Constitution Water for about four weeks, and we are happy to say that it has produced

The Sentinel for 1863!

THE governmental and political questions of the coming year will have an absorbing interest for every citizen. We are engaged in a gigentic civil war, the resuit of which none can foresee. It threatens a radica change in the institutions and principles upon which the Government was founded, and the destruction of the liberty and rights of the citizen, such as the BROWNING & SLOAN, people of no other nation have enjoyed, and t which may be attributed our unequaled progress in national prosperity and greatness. The issue will soon be upon us, whother this free Government shall be preserved and maintained and the rights of the States under the Constitution perpetuated, or a powerful central authority be permitted to grow out of this war, obliterating State lines, State institutions, and all those checks upon the Federal Government, rights reserved by the States, which have constituted the excellence and supe riority of our nationality-States "one as the sea" for the common objects set firth in the Constitution, but "distinct as the billows" in the management of their purely domestic affairs. These questions were involved in the recent elections, and the voice of the people was most emphatically expressed for the "Constitution as it is and the Union as it was." Never was there a time when it was so important that the people should be thoroughly advised as to the progress and condition of public affairs and of passing events. A people are not fit for self-government unless with an intelligent judgment they is the full and accurate index appended to each. In Indiana, there never has been a good index to any volumes o statutes published by authority. This provoking defect has been completely remedied in the volumes under resiew; and these indexes will greatly lighten the labor of all who have occasion to look into our statutes. This is the first time that private enterprize has attempted the publication of Indiana statutes. The attempt, I do not doubt, will be successful, and will duly reward the learned editors and enterprizing publishers. Every lawyer will, of course, purchase these volumes;

DAVID M'DONALD. Indianapolis, June 5, 1862. The foregoing notice by Judge McDowald, of Gavin & Houp's Compilation of the Statutes of Indiana, is not designed as a puff of the work, but is an unsolicited commendation of the ability, accuracy, and completeness with which these volumes have been prepared. The second volume, which has just been issued from the press, is being delivered to subscribers as rapidly as possible. This edition of the statutes will be found a ne-WHOLESALE AND RETAIL censity to every lawyer, justices of the peace, and county officers in the State. The publication of the work is a private enterprize, and the publishers' only hope for remuneration is in its sale to those for whose convenience it was prepared. The two volumes contain about 1600 pages of matter, hearly double the quantity embraced the revision of 1852.

The price of the work is $4 50 per volume, or $9 00 for
