I do this more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejuded against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alco olie mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker. Esq., fo the removal of this presudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued deblity. The use of three bottles of these bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despated of regaining. PHILADELPHIA, August 23, 1863. Masses Joses & Evans Well gentlemen, your Hoof-land's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is wonched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Capt. R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for 72 days in the hospital. This was followed by great debiling, hightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer State of Maine, from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow an thing, and if I did force a morsal down, it was immediately thrown up agefu.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach.

Life could not last under these circumstances; and accordingly the physicians who hat been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my itmited funds as best suited An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Stephenbron, of Sixth below Arch street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have guined ten pounds, and I feel sangulue of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen mouths; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters in the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again classing to my bosom those who are described to me in life.
