Pittsburg that Mrs. Senator Sprague was injured by the accident on the Cleveland Railroad is incorrect. She was here at the time. Gen. Butler will remove his Headquarters from Fortress Monroe to Norfolk. Gen. Stoneman has gone West to report to Gen. Grant.

Charles A. Dana, Esq., formerly of the Tribune, EAST will probably be appointed Assistant Secretary of War. The Tribune says the receipts from internal revenue from January 1st last, to January 14th, amount to $47,641,000. With expected changes in the excise law, the lowest estimates for the second year are $142,-500,000, while the highest estimates would add $25,000,000 to $30,000,000 thereto. With no change in the revenue law about $85,000 would Stoves. Hollow and Tin-Ware, be produced.

The Herald's letter from the squadron off Wilmington, dated the 9th, reports the chase and destruction, on the 8th, of the rebel blockade runner steamer Dove, by the Montgomery and Aries. Her crew ran ashore 13 miles north of Georgetown Light, S. C. The crew escaped. Boats crews from the Montgomery and Aries boarded and burnt her. A boat's crew from the Aries was swamped in leaving her, and Acting Master Pendleton, of the Montgomery, in charge of a launch, picked up five men while returning to his ship. He saw others, and, turning to save them, his boat was thrown on the beach, where all were captured by the rebel cavalry. The U. S. schooner George Manyham at day break the next morning ran close in shore and shelled the rebel cavalry The Dove was a side wheel steamer of 900 ton burthen. She was totally destroyed. Her cargo was apparently not large, but probably some distinguished rebel persons were on board. The Dove was chused 60 miles.
