peech of Perry, of South Carolina, GEO. P. DOERN, Before he knew of His Appoint. nent as Governor.

New York, July 20 -Governor Perry made a remarkable speech at Greenville, South Carolina, on the 3d inst . before he knew of his appointment. Its tenor may be inferred from the following expressions: "Mr. Chairman, I will here frankly sav, as I have often said during the past four years, that JULIUS WINTER, there was not a man in the United States who more deeply regretted the secession of the Southern States than I did in the beginning of the CAPT, S. F. HILDERTH, revolution. And there is not now in the Southern States any one who feels more bitterly the MAJ. L. T. THURSTON. the Union than I do. Still, I know that we shall be more prosperous and happy in the Union than we would out of it.' He also said that Jeff Davis was not specially to blame for the failure of the rebellion; that the people having tired of fighting, had skulked from the field; that Johnston had 75,000 men on the muster rolls of his army, but only 14,000 in his ranks, and adds: "Congress too, Mr. Chairman, is greatly to blame for their exemptions. All between the ages of eighteen and forty-five should have been forced into the army and kept there It mattered not whether he was a doctor, lawyer, preacher, politician, editor, or a school Galen's Head Dispensary been sent to the army. Stronge to say, these ecurity, promptitude and liberality, are unsurpassed classes of men, who were mainly instrumental in plunging their country into this mad revolution were all exempted by Congress from fighting I allude to the politicians, editors and preachers This was not fair. The man who gets up a fight should always take his share of it." He also said that President Lincoln's death was no loss to And all Affections of the Urinary and Get the South, and that he was a Whig and nonslaveholder, while Johnson is a Democrat who has held slaves and who voted for Breckinridge A PRESVATE MEDICAL THEATTER in 1860, therefore, the people should have every confidence in him. > South Carolina Belegation-Interview with the President. NEW YORK, July 20 - The Times' Washington special says: The South Carolina delegation, headed by Governor Perry, had an interview with the President at 4 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, which resulted to the mutual satisfaction of all parties. It appears that the delegation was suggested at various town meetings throughout the State, and the members had been selected and were on the way to this city before the news that Governor Perry had been appointed Provisional Governor of the State. Gov. Perry first heard of the ap pointment seventy miles from home. In the course of the interview this morning, Governor Perry assured the President that South Carolina would be represented by her Congressmen in the month of December next, and doubtless by the first day of September that State would adopt the amendment to the Constitution abolishing slavery, and that the present system will be abolished; that the President will hereafter be elected by a direct vote of the people in general, and the State laws conform to the special form of those of the Northern States and the Federal Constitution Governor Perry issued a proclamation this Saurson.-The glory of a woman, like the strength of Sampson, lays very much in her luxuriant hair. To preerve this in all its glory, requires care, and the use of a carefully prepared and scientifically compounded vegetable wash, such as you have in Kendall's Amboline. It has no deleterious ingredient-it refreshes, strengthens and preserves the flowing tresses, and cannot be surpassed as an innocent and valuable preparation. The Amboline can be procured at any Druggists. Je24-d3m

Its general introduction into the army will save the lives of thousands of our soldiers:

Louisville, June 3d, 1863. We, the undersigned, have seen the good effects of Dr. JOHN BULL'S CEDNON BRITESS in case of general debility and prostration of the system, and believe its general use would prevent disease and relieve much suffering. Among our soldiers particularly would this be the case, especially those who are exposed to the miasmatic influences in the Southern climate.
