GENERAL NEWS.

THE PARAGUAYAN WAR.

AFFAIRS IN THE SOUTH.

ROBBERY BY A BRIGADIER GENERAL.

Arrest of Brig. General Briscoe for Robbery.

New York, Oct. 2.—The Herald's Washington special: About the middle of last month Gen. Baker received information of a plot at Lynchburg, Virginia, to rob the Post-Quartermaster's safe of a large amount of money it was known to contain.

The case was worked up and has resulted in the arrest and incarceration in the Old Capitol prison last night of Brig. Gen. S. C. Briscoe, of the One Hundred and Ninth Pennsylvania Volunteers, commanding Post at Lynchburg, and A. W. Lackey, of Worcester, Mass., formerly aide of the Post.

Gen. Briscoe is an Irishman by birth, and has been in command of the Post at Lynchburg since Lee's surrender.

Captain W. A. Alberger, son of Canal Commissioner Alberger, has been Quartermaster at Lynchburg, and had in his charge on the 21st of September, $150,000 in greenbacks, besides a large amount of captured gold coin and bullion, which had been placed in his charge for safe keeping.

Briscoe approached Alberger through Lackey, and proposed to him, as the war was about to close and none of them had money out of it, they should make a grand haul in concert, and pocket $50,000 a piece in a flash.

Alberger kept the funds in a safe which formerly belonged to a rebel officer, and this fact was given color to the charge which was made, that the rebel had a duplicate key to the safe had robbed it. Briscoe was to arrest the Quartermaster, his clerks and half of the people of Lynchburg.

To avert suspicion the General took an impression of the safe key in wax and sent Lackey to Philadelphia to get the key made.

Alberger, ostensibly in the plot, informed the Secretary of War, and two of three of General Baker's officers were sent down to Lynchburg to arrest the guilty parties. These officers saw through the holes in the ceiling of the office General Briscoe came in while the Quartermaster and his clerks were gone to dinner, and he unlocked the safe with the false key, take out three packages of greenbacks, of forty thousand dollars each, and laid himself down with coin and bullion to the amount of $15,000, having previously ignited a paper and cloth, with a view to burning the building. They followed him across the hall of his office, and burst in on him counting and arranging the money behind his bolted doors. The wax models and false keys were found upon him, and the proof was indisputable. These proofs are now in Gen. Baker's possession.

Briscoe and Lackey are in the Old Capitol awaiting trial, and Alberger, the honest Quartermaster, is on duty at his post.

Adjournment of the South Carolina Convention.
New York, Oct. 2.—Advices from Charleston to the 29th of September have been received. The South Carolina Convention passed the Constitution with some slight amendments on the 26th.

On the following day the Convention adjourned after passing resolutions complimentary to Hon. D. L. Mitchell, the President of the Convention, by the constitution the right of voting is given to every white man of full age, who has been two years a citizen of the State, and who is not a pauper nor a non-commissioned officer or private soldier in the army nor a member of the navy of the United States.

An amendment introduced by General Connor confers the right to vote upon European emigrants who have declared their intention of becoming citizens of the United States two years previous to the day of election, and have resided six months in the election district.

The first election for Governor and Lieutenant Governor will be held on the 10th of November, and the election to the General Assembly on the third Wednesday of the present month.

A request was signed by all the members of the Convention and the President, Dr. Orr, to announce himself as a candidate for Governor.

Mississippi Affairs.
New York, Oct. 2.—The Herald's Jackson, Miss., correspondent reports that the election in the State appears to have proceeded upon quiet terms. The salient features of the Republican and Democratic platforms elsewhere seem to be the same in Mississippi. The negro comes to the surface there as elsewhere, but the people are more anxious to make him work than to give him the right of voting.

The players fear an emigration of their colored adherents to the larger towns, and a lucrative employment can be had, and on falling in this employment they anticipate that the negro will become a vagrant and rely on the State for support. Accordingly they urge that an act of Congress should be passed to permit cotton-growing States to make such laws as will compel the negroes to work for stipulated wages, and for stated lengths of time.

The Paraguayan War.
New York, Oct. 2.—Further details have been received respecting the war in South America. The Paraguayans were actively pushing forward, while their opponents, the allied forces remained motionless, but concentrated at Cordoba waiting the attack.

The Brazilian fleet on Porosra river had commenced a retrograde movement, fearing that the Paraguayans would construct batteries below so as to gain command of the river.

The magnitude which this struggle is assuming may be estimated from the fact that at the date of our last advices there were 113,000 men under arms, of whom 55,000 were Paraguayans and 57,000 allies.

Three American vessels were injured in the late sale off Montevideo, the bark Editha Ross losing three sailors.

Great Gales From Little Acorns Grown.
The worst diseases known to the human race spring from causes so small as to almost defy detection. The volumes of scientific lore that fill the tables and shelves of the medical fraternity only go to prove and elaborate these facts.

Then guard yourselves while you may. The smallest pimples on the skin is a tell-tale and indicator of disease. It may fade and die away from the surface of the body, but it will reach the vitals, perhaps, at last, and death be the result and final close. Maggie's Bilious Dyspeptic, and Hilaria's Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chills, Gout, and all abrasions of the skin, Maggie's Bilious is infallible. Sold by J.
