RECORDER'S COURT, FIRST DISTRICT—Rough and Tumble.—T. W. Hannan and Joseph Johnson were indicting in the recession of an old-fashioned fight on Tuesday night, in Feydras Market, when the watchman ended the fun by arresting the combatants. They were consigned yesterday, and the examination fixed for Friday next.

CUTTING.—John Murphy and Jas. Brennan will have their examination on Saturday the 11th, for resisting, striking and cutting the officer who arrested them for creating a great disturbance in a disorderly house on the Levee, on Tuesday night. The assault charges and the cutting was with intent to murder.

DISTURBERS.—John King, William Collins and James Walsh were arrested at 8 P. M. on Tuesday, in Baronne street, for fighting and disturbing the peace, and as vagrants. On examination yesterday, Collins was sent to the Work-house for thirty days, Walsh and King required to give bonds for good behavior.

DRUNKARDS.—Rosina Kearney, arrested at 8 P. M. Tuesday, drunk on St. John street, made earnest, entreaty for release; said she had two children, but not a friend in the world to protect them. Being an old offender, she was sent to the Parish Prison for fifteen days Alice Quaid, a Quadroon and a vagrant, was sent to the Work-house for thirty days. John Finney, for similar charge, was fined five dollars.

SHINDY.—James Kennedy and Thomas Reddington went into an oyster saloon on Tchoupitoulas street, at 2 o'clock on Wednesday morning, called for and ate some oysters, and when the proprietor asked for payment, they commenced breaking plates, and threatening him. When the officer went into the house for the purpose of ridding the premises of them, he was assaulted and struck. Bonds for good behavior were required of both.

STRIKING AN OFFICER.—Thomas Flannery was yesterday fined five dollars for thrusting officer Conway out of a cab, on Common street, at 4 o'clock on Tuesday evening. Conway, in the discharge of his duties was citing the cab, when accused clenched him, and they both fell out upon the sidewalk, in the midst of the officer, who was under, being pretty severely hurt.

Henry Warren, found lying drunk on the corner of Common and Magazine streets, at 7 P. M. Tuesday, proved to be not so very drunk but that it required three to get him to the lock-up. He violently assaulted and struck the five officer who took him. Amused had to give bond for good behavior or go to prison.

USING A COLT.—Jacob Hubbard, a watchman, was arrested on St. Charles street on Tuesday night, for assaulting and beating one James Malone with a colt. A charge of this nature against a constituted guardian of the peace should be thoroughly investigated on the examination, which will occur on Wednesday next.

SPURIOUS COIN.—The city in the last few days has had a great accession to to the bogus half dollars in circulation. Cops, Xerno and his aids, in the First District, are upon the trail and will no doubt in a day or two discover and break up the fountain from whence flows this impure stream. John Devlin was arrested on Tuesday morning in Dryades Market, on a charge of uttering two counterfeit half dollars. He was allowed to go in custody of an officer for the purpose of pointing out a butcher from whom he said he received them. The case was continued. James Mcorcraw also arrested on a similar charge preferred by J. A. Kreyder, for dispensing that Moore, who did not know the coin was bad, had received it from the steamer Mary Foley, he was discharged.

DARK DOINGS.—Margaret, slave of Taylor, and Emily, slave of Ferrier, for creating a disturbance and using indecent language at 11 o'clock Tuesday night on Philippa street, were respectively sentenced to receive 25 lashes and pay a fine of $5.

BROTHEL.—Mrs. Buck and George Myers will be examined on Monday, on the charge of keeping a brothel on St. Charles street, near St. Joseph.

THE SHELUCK MURDER.—The examination of Murphy and others on this charge was necessarily postponed until Saturday, in consequence of the indisposition of the Coroner, who is the witness for the State.

NEGRO DOCTOR.—Gabriel, f. m. c., had his examination yesterday on the charge of having, about two months ago, administered medicine to a white woman, from the effect of which she suffered serious illness. Accused went to the house of the woman, and representing that he had been sent by her husband, gave her a bottle of liquid medicine, and afterwards returned with several powders, which she was to take at intervals of an hours duration. On taking the fifth powder her mouth became inflamed and her stomach commenced swelling, accompanied by violent retching, from which she was relieved by an emetic of warm milk, administered by her husband. A powder said to be one of those prepared for the woman was in court. It was evidently a mineral and weighed about 40 grains. Accused was sent to the First District Court.

RECORDER'S COURT, SECOND DISTRICT.—The cases in this Court yesterday were devoid of interest.

Catharine Kelly complained to the Recorder that in the forenoon, while she was passing in the yard of her premises, at the corner of Treme and St. Peter streets, interfering with no one, and "at peace with all the world and the rest of mankind," she was then and there assaulted with many opprobrious epithets and on her former good name, by Patrick Reynolds, who further complained that, "from the nature of the blows" which he had been made she apprehends, and is in fear of bodily injury "from his part."

Another much injured feminine, rejoining in the appellation of Rebina Mansell, displayed a tale of terrible vengeance wreaked upon her by one Catharine Eits, a free cyprian of a mahoghany aspect. The story is that Catharine Eits, not having the fear of the Police before her eyes but being moved and instigated by the devil, with a most malicious disposition, did draw a certain unlawful and unmentionable weapon upon the unoffending Rebina, the contents of which she emptied upon the head of her fair enemy, to the great offence of her mostrils and against the peace and dignity of the State.

In addition to these, Margaret Brennan was brought to the bar of justice, charged on the corporal oath of Elizabeth Noel, with having by foul means caused the death of her infant child, which Mother Brennan thought to be less than the ace of spades and the shame of whose birth she had thought to hide by the dark concealment of the grave Margaret was sent to prison to await her examination.

NEGOTIATION ON THE FISHERIES.—In the English House of Commons, November 12th, Mr. McGregor adverted to the passage in the royal speech referring to the American Colonial fishing question. During the administration of the noble lord, the member of Tiverton, the intimate and pacific relations which had been established between the two countries in the waters of the United States (Hear, hear.) the Chancellor of the Exchequer replied that the Government of the United States had agreed to enter into negotiations with her Majesty's Government, in the most friendly spirit, that might lead to the renewal of the friendly relations between the two governments. The spirit in which she communications between the two Governments were carried on was of the most friendly character, and he thought it was to be regretted that the House could not hear; but under the existing circumstances the House could not expect that the Government would lay any papers on the table.

ROMAN CATHOLIC CONSECRATIONS.—The Church edifice in Third street, near avenue A, was consecrated yesterday with the customary ceremonies of the Roman Catholic denomination. Archbishop Hughes was assisted by Bishop Wadhams, of Ogdensburgh, Bishop McCloskey of Albany Bishop Wheedan, of Richmond; and Archbishop Mosquera, of Santa Fe de Bogota. Bishop McCloskey delivered the sermon. A company of German Riflemen guarded the entrance to the church. It is supposed that the congregation inside and outside numbered nearly eight thousand persons, among whom were delegations from Roman Catholic associations in other cities, bearing banners. Tickets of admission were sold at one dollar each. [New York Commercial, 29th ult.

POLISH EXILES.—This morning at 8 o'clock the twenty-third anniversary of the Polish revolution of November 29, 1830, was celebrated by a mass in the Church of St. Andrew, in Duane street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Tokwein, and a large concourse of foreigners were present to witness the scene. The Committee of Polish Exiles in America were all in attendance. [New York Express.

MURDER BY A FUNERAL PARTY.—On the 29th ult., a party of about forty persons, on horseback, while returning from an Irish funeral near Louisville, commenced racing, and coming up with Dr. J. W. Campbell, of that city, who was riding in a buggy, knocked him down, killing him instantly. But one of the party was arrested, and he has been held to bail for manslaughter.

The U. S. squadron at China, consisting of the Susquehanna, Plymouth, Saratoga, and store-ship Supply, were still stationed about the Canton Estuary, September 29, awaiting orders. It is supposed, to proceed to Japan, whither, it is said, the British ship Serpent will be sent to report their movements, if they go within the present year.

THE "CONVOCATION OF CANTERBURY."—Both houses of the "Convocation of Canterbury," a body of the Church of England dignitaries who formerly did its legislation till usurped by Parliament, were in session at London on the 12th. The ill disguised scope of the present agitation is to set the authority of the Convocation above that of the Crown.

LATER FROM ST. DOMINGO.—Captain Button, of the bark Clara Windsor, which arrived at New York last week, from Port au Prince, reports the fever as still raging there. Several foreigners had died during the ten days previous to his sailing, 17th ult.

Julien, in his approaching trip to the United States, expects not only pecuniary gain to himself, but some new ideas wherewith to delight the European republic. His popularity has been chiefly acquired by his picturesque arrangements of dance music, his eccentricities, etc.

A LEGAL STRIKE.—A curious "strike" has taken place in Cleveland. The lawyers of that city have banded together and increased their fee bill several per cent. The people have therefore determined to discontinue going to law, and in the end the lawyers may find it a very fee-ble strike.

DEATH OF AN EDITOR.—We learn from the St. Landry Whig, that Mr. Geo. W. Addison, proprietor and editor of the Opelousas Gazette, died suddenly in the town of Opelousas on the 1st inst. Mr. Addison had been publisher of the Gazette for about twenty-three years. He leaves a family to deplore his loss.

ARKANSAS RIVER.—The Little Rock True Democrat, of the 20th ult., says the river is in fine boating order for the largest of our steamers.

BREACH OF PROMISE.—At the recent term of Court in Wayne county, Ohio, Eleanor McConnell received a judgment of $1500 against John N. Reynolds for breach of a marriage promise.
