NEWS OF THE CITY.

INTERMENTS.—The following are the only cemeteries reported for the week ending on Sunday, the 16th April: Protestant, Girod street, 11; St. Patrick's, 21; Catholic No. 1, Second District, 5; Catholic No. 2, Second District, 18; Lafayette, Fourth District, 8.

CHIEF OF POLICE.—The Police Board met on Saturday last, and elected Wm H. James Chief of Police, vice Stephen O'Leary, whose term of office expires on the 1st of May next. Mr. James received four votes, and Capt. Youenes one.

THE STRAW-BAIL SYSTEM.—Several suits have been instituted in the Fifth District Court against sureties on forfeited bond. We are well pleased to see a disposition towards reform in this matter of taking bail; one of our Recorders at least (Mr. Summers) has put an end to the straw-bail system in his court.

CHARGE OF ARSON.—One Joseph Johnson and his wife, who kept a boarding-house at No. 102 Chartres street, were brought before the Recorder of the Second District, Saturday, on a charge of having set fire to their said boarding-house, the upper portion of the building having been almost entirely consumed in consequence thereof. Geo. Paneky, who occupied the basement story, made affidavit against the parties and was the principal witness. He stated among other things that Johnson had previously insured all his furniture, and that after the fire a number of sheets, towels, etc., saturated with turpentine and partially burned, were found in a corner of one of the rooms. The examination was not concluded, and accused were required to give $2000 security each for their re-appearance. The lady furnished her bond and was released.

DREADFUL ACCIDENT.—A lady residing in a house on Baronne street, between Hevia and Girod streets, as has been her custom, placed her candle near or upon her bed, for the purpose of reading, when, after a time, she had fallen asleep, the candle, by some movement of hers, fell upon and set fire to the covering of the bed, and, in an instant, enveloped the curtains, etc., in flames. The flames, smoke and supplicating cries of the lady quickly aroused those occupying the adjoining rooms, just in time to save the house from destruction, but not until the lady was very severely burned upon her neck, breast and arms. This should be a warning to all persons who are in the habit of reading in bed before going to sleep, and keeping a light near such combustible materials as bedclothes and musquito bars.

SHOOTING.—Michael Schrilly came to the police office of the First District at 12 o'clock on Saturday night, stating that he had shot a man who attempted to enter his yard at the corner of Hevia and Galvez streets. Lieut. Petrie proceeded to the spot and found the man badly wounded in the abdomen by a charge of buckshot, and had him immediately conveyed to the Charity Hospital. Schrilly stated that he discovered the man, who gave his name as James Morrison, in the act of clambering over a fence into an alley leading into the yard of his house; that he called out to him several times while in the alley, and receiving no answer, fired upon him with a gun loaded with small shot. Schrilly was taken into custody to await an examination.

SHOCKING.—On Saturday last Recorder Summers, of the First District, sent James Fitzgerald and his wife before the First District Court, under bond of $1000 each, for trial on a charge of assaulting and maiming an old lady named Mary Gillan. Mrs. Gillan is over sixty years of age, she lost one of her eyes by the terrible treatment she received from the accused, and was otherwise so severely beaten as to be confined to her bed for several days.

SAVAGE ASSAULT.—An affidavit was made on Saturday last by John Cellars, a discharging clerk of the steamer John Strader, against several persons engaged as laborers on said boat, charging them with a brutal assault and battery upon Michael Gleason, mate of the Strader Gleason was knocked down by them, beaten, stamped and torn with cotton hooks, and altogether injured so severely that his life was considered in a critical condition. An individual named John Harley was arrested yesterday as one of the party, and locked up in the Second District police jail.

DANGEROUS DARKEY.—Officer O'Farrel attempted to arrest a slave on Circus street, night before last, at the request of his mistress, Mrs. Gasker, when he was assaulted and well peppered with brickbats by the rebellious darkey. He was finally arrested and locked up.

LARCENY.—Charles McCarty was arrested yesterday afternoon on the Levee, charged by Captain Wallace, of the steamboat Afton, with having stolen a quantity of clothing from on board that vessel. He was locked up.
