THE DAILY CRESCENT

ALARM OF FIRE.—The alarm of fire, about 6 o'clock last evening, was caused by the accidental ignition of one of Phillips' Patent Fire Annihilators on board a vessel lying at the wharf, which caused a great deal of smoke to issue from the vessel, and led to the false supposition that it had caught fire.

INQUEST.—The Coroner yesterday morning held an inquest on the body of Christian Mohringer, a native of Germany, aged 60 years, found dead at the Charity Hospital. The verdict of the jury was, "Came to his death from injuries received by the passage of Poncechartrain cars over his body—the accident being the result of his own recklessness." This is the same individual already reported as having been injured on Thursday morning.

BREACH OF TRUST.—Wm. Werner was yesterday arrested on a charge of having committed a breach of trust, by defrauding Martin Rhodes out of $5 in cash; the money being part of the proceeds of some wine entrusted to the accused for sale on account of the prosecutor. Werner was examined before Recorder Summers, and the evidence not substantiating the charge, he was discharged.

DISCHARGED.—H. Geyer was to have been examined yesterday on a charge of having committed the proprietor of the "German Gazette" out of $175, but the prosecutor failing to appear, the case was dismissed.

LARCENY.—Jim Casgrove, a notorious loafer, was yesterday examined on a charge of having stolen $18 from Frank Sallizman. The Recorder, in consideration of the fact that Jim had been up before him the previous day on a similar charge, committed him to the Work-house for ninety days.

BONDS FORFEITED.—A slave girl named Hannah was to have been examined yesterday on a charge of having stolen $20 in money from Miss Emily Terrell; the accused, however, failed to appear, when her bond was called and declared forfeited.

HUNTING PIGS.—James Griffin went into the hold of the steamboat Sultana, yesterday, in search of a couple of truant pigs, when he officers finding him there, had him arrested as a suspicious character; having explained the nature of his visit to the Recorder, he was discharged.

DISCHARGED.—John Touro was yesterday examined before the Recorder on a charge of having committed willful and corrupt perjury by swearing to an affidavit before Recorder Summers, charged one Frederick Block with having committed an assault and battery upon him. After hearing the evidence the case was dismissed.

NICHOLAS GEORGE was examined and discharged from an accusation brought against him by John Bretar, for assault with a bowie knife with intent to kill.

WITHDRAWN.—The charge of kidnapping made against William Taylor, f. m. c., by Samuel J. Bennett, in which the former was accused of having enticed away and concealed the slave Nancy and her two children, was yesterday withdrawn by the prosecutor, it having been made in error.

LARCENY.—A poor fellow named Moran is under arrest on a charge of stealing three pieces of timber from the levee, the property of the city.

SELLING LIQUOR TO SLAVES.—Louis Farrel was arrested, charged with selling liquor to slaves, at his coffee-house, corner of Magazine and Race streets, in contravention to law.

STREILING LINEN.—A warrant was issued yesterday for the arrest of Celastine, a slave girl belonging to Mr. Blaine, on suspicion of having stolen a piece of linen, val. at $12, from the premises of Mr. Etienne C. Adolphe, corner of Duane and Royal streets.

FINE.—Joseph Batin, driver of cart No. 3600, was yesterday arrested and fined $10 for having grossly insulted a colored woman named Maria M. Trice, on the previous day, while driving his bread cart along St. Phillip street, in which thoroughfare the fair damsel resides.

STREILING A WHITE PERSON.—A warrant was issued yesterday for the arrest of a negro, who is charged by Mr. Santa Masomeghy with having assaulted and struck him in the face with some sharp instrument, cutting him severely, in violation of the 40th section of the Black Code—a statute which is falling sadly into disuse in this city, and is almost daily violated. The negro has not yet been arrested.

DISORDERLY.—The keeper of a St. Phillip street restaurant, who gives his name as Aziz, was yesterday arrested for allowing his boarders to make night hideous with their bacchanalian revellies, and passing their time in the delightful art of throwing bottles, tumblers, dishes and kindred missiles at each other's head.

"HOLD HIM BY THE TAIL!"—An Alabama editor pays the following grandiloquent tribute to Fanny Littlebee. We would not be surprised if the venerable defunct were to haunt that editor for the rest of his life. If the fellow were to fall from his stilts, he would most certainly break his neck.

Thomas Ritchie is Dead!—Yes, all that was mortal of this truly great and good man sleeps in the silent chambers of the tomb. That form which towered majestically erect amid the storms and vicissitudes of active life for half a century, has prostrate in the cold embrace of death. That brilliant eye, which scanned the arc of human science, and borrowed strength from an iron constitution, has pale before the vivid flash of that brighter light which issues from the penetrating glances of insanity in the Providence—that gigantic intellect, which fathomed principle in the world of truth, and gave to political economy shape and utility, moulders in the patric atmosphere of the sepulchre—many a voice which called our countrymen to arms, many a cheering friend, is hushed—many a bold vigorous pen, which won for its possessor the proud title of "the Napoleon of the press," rests, with the brave soldier, from its labors. Truly, "a great man has fallen in Israel!"

A single family in Sangamon county, Illinois, have seventeen thousand sheep, and all of good blood. Sheep raising is a fine business in Illinois. It is said that every farmer who has tried the business has amassed a fortune.

NOT IN THE BILL.—The citizens of Madison, Wis., were favored with a visit from the Hippodrome on the fourth of July. Every thing passed off well enough in the day time, but in the evening the audience were furnished with an exhibition "not advertised in the bill," which is thus described in the Madison Argus:

"In the evening the immense crowd was again attracted, though the number was not so great as that which attended the first performance. The exhibition passed off satisfactorily till the racing of the ladies, who were passing the short stretch at the corner, when one of the horses stumbled and went over, carrying the rider with him. He rolled completely over her, by which her ankle was badly hurt, the ligament being torn off from one side of the joint, leaving the foot hanging loosely and helpless. Her thigh also received an ugly flesh wound, her arms and shoulders were sprained and her face lacerated considerably. As her horse fell, another horse directly behind attempted to jump over the fallen horse, which, partly rising at the time, caused the jumping horse to execute a perfect somersault, alighting on his back, and falling on his side, and then walking over her happily without injury. The riders who were borne out of the ring from the presence of the horrified audience, many of whom supposed that one or both were fatally injured. The one who first fell was taken to the hotel and her wounds dressed. The other recovered in the short time, mounted her steed again and took the next heat."

FATAL ACCIDENT.—The Auburn (Ala.) Gazette, of the 21st inst., has the following: "It is our mournful duty to record the sudden death of our esteemed fellow-citizen, Dr. T. B. Hardin. It is stated that he met his death in this wise: In attempting to hitch his horse to his buggy, at the residence of his father's residence, the animal became frightened at the noise of the machinery, suddenly started, and dragging him in the lines, and dragging him over logs and refused lumber, that encumbered the ground. After the occurrence he walked to his father's, a mile distant. Externally there were no observable injuries. He died of internal hemorrhage."

PROBABLE MURDER IN PUGHKEEPSIE.—On Wednesday, a farmer named Phillips, while riding in a team along Church street, Poughkeepsie, was accosted by three or four Irishmen, and from words they came to blows, when Phillips suddenly drew a knife and struck one of the Irishmen twice, once in the stomach and again in the side. Phillips immediately gave himself up to the authorities, and while on his way he called at the house of a friend, related the circumstances of the case, and was accompanied by the team. His friend complied, but upon arriving at the spot, one of the remaining Irishmen struck him a violent blow upon his face. A doctor of Poughkeepsie examined the wound of the Irishman, which proved to be very dangerous. Report says he died yesterday morning. [New York Times, 21st.]

ATTACK UPON A POLICEMAN.—Death of the policeman.—On Wednesday, a man named Patrick Gerity attended a ball at the house of Lawrence Riley, No. 136 1/2 Mulberry street, and toward midnight started, with others, for home, but the party soon got into a fight, when policeman arrived, and seeing Gerity, a large and powerful man, very angry, attempted to arrest him, but one of his number was knocked down by him. He was proceeding to serve others in the same manner, when a blow from the club of one of the policemen brought him to his knees. He got up and fought him with desperation, but was again overpowered and brought to the station house, where he died soon afterwards. An examination was made upon his body, when one side of the skull was found to be split, and the brain was done by the policeman with his club, or was the result of his falling upon the pavement, will probably be ascertained to-day, when an inquest will be held upon the body. [New York Mirror, 21st inst.]

BLOODY AFFAIR.—Our readers are aware that some weeks since, in Port Gibson, Mr. G. Moody and Mr. Blain had a bloody rencontre, in which the latter was severely injured in the abdomen. Another affair occurred the latter part of last week. We have been informed that Mr. Blain posted himself, with two friends and three negroes, the three former armed with double-barrel shot-guns, in a house, and as Mr. Moody was passing on the opposite side of the street, fired upon him six times. Mr. Moody took refuge in a house at hand. He was wounded in five places, but, we learn, not dangerously. [Memphis Register, 21st.]

AN OVERSEER SLAVER.—On Sunday, the 19th inst., Mr. Dunbar, overseer of Mrs. Orr's plantation on Bayou des Glaises, was stabbed by a negro of the name of King. The negro, who was attending to some matter about the house, when the negro refused, a scuffle ensued, in which Mr. Dunbar was seriously if not fatally stabbed by the negro, who immediately made his escape. The negro, who was arrested, is a culprit, has been arrested as a runaway, and is now lodged in our jail. We have not been able to learn any thing of Mr. Dunbar's situation since. [Marksville (La.) Villager.]

NEW YORK AUCTIONS.—In New York city three-fourths of the furniture sold at auction is moved from the dealer's store into the house where it is sold the day before the auction. It is then advertised in the papers, and on the day of sale a regular mock auction commences, only one purchase out of twenty being real. The same furniture is often put up for sale, and sold three or four times in different houses within a month.

The entire assets of a recent bankrupt were nine small children! The creditors acted magnanimously, and let him keep them.
