RELIABLE PROTECTION AT SMALL COST

THOUSANDS, OR TENS, OR EVEN HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS INSURED BY THE OUTLAY OF FIFTY-FIVE DOLLARS OR UPWARDS.

COURTHOUSES, Notaries, Jewelers, Brokers, Merchants, Captains, Planters, Bankers, Auctioneers, Families and other desirous of guarding from the ravages of fire and burglars, books, papers, money and other small valuables, should, without delay, procure a Chubb's Patent Detector Safe, as being the only description of safe that can be relied upon to ensure the subscriber's assurance of HALLS PATENT CONCRETE FIRE PROOF SAFES, pronounced by the Jurors of the Great Exhibition, London, to be the best in the world, and awarded the only prize medal for safes. The key of which is held in a leaf dollar case, and closes the safe locks.

In the preceding enumeration of safes article is enumerated by their of any other kind of safe, however, we can be shown to the satisfaction of persons who, while in greatly superior being exposed promiscuously to the ravages of fire, and burglars, are rendered a comparative nonentities between the Concrete and two or more popular sales of other description.

The Concrete will be found to be, in fact, the same as the former but a plate-iron interior box, and the latter one of wood, without any iron inside of its case, that the former was wrought and the latter cast-iron; moreover, also, that the former was made to be entirely united than the latter. The subscriber is prepared to demonstrate this fact to every inquirer, and guarantees as none can guarantee, and will be glad to hear from the skeptical.

The preserving powers of the Concrete Safe will eminently recommend it to the minds of those who have unfortunately suffered by the accompanying conflagration from the Salamander Safe, when kept carefully closed. This fact seems to very frequently be overlooked by Jewelers and dealers in fine horses, some delicate articles are materially injured by the steam always generated in Salamander Safes when exposed to fire, the following having been recently received and kindly requested to be shown to those who will call or address the undersigned, who has for reference, as many as sixty names of ministers, merchants, and others, who have used the Concrete and have more popular safes of other description.

N. B. The subscriber will be found at the store, 44 Camp street, next above the corner of Common.

NEW ORLEANS, April 28, 1846.

Mr. Isaac Bridge: Sir—As you have requested me to give you my opinion of your Concrete Fire-proof Safe, we may, perhaps, serve your interest by stating that one of the safes manufactured by you was in the store of Messrs. Bridge & Brother, on Magazine street when in the fire of the 13th March 1846, on Magazine street

The contents of your safe being filled with wooden ware, the safe was put to a most severe test; and notwithstanding the intense heat to which it was subjected, after being taken from the ruins on the 20th following was found to be perfectly uninjured, (about six days,) the contents, among which were about two hundred dollars in bank bills, were found to be perfectly preserved. Having had a safe of your manufacture tested, we have every confidence in the same in any other kind of Safe that we know of. Respectfully yours, Dennison Wood-ware, 18 Canal st.

Those using the old style of iron sheets are as subject to loss as those who have no safe, since such articles as will be found to possess a charred to fire, and offer but slight resistance when attacked by burglars.

The subscriber has also for sale second-hand Salamander Safes, cheap Iron Chests, Powder Proof Bank and Store Locks, Fire Proof Pain's Patent Saw-tooth Grates. ISAAC HALLS.

Cheap! Very Cheap!!

TO HOUSE-KEEPERS — ECONOMIZE AND JACKSON RANGES, GRATES AND STOVES.

Cooking Stoves of full size, and fully warranted to bake well, price from $11 to $16, all completed; and also the well known Economist Ranges.

The large number of these important Ranges I have lately sold, is a proof to me that an advantage of reducing prices has led to their introduction, who are well known firms in this city, and will substantiate and endorse the above statement, I am selling at 33 cents per foot, or 12 grammes per hour. The saving of fuel alone in these Ranges is sufficient to pay for them in a few months.

In short, the simple arrangement of the side water boiler with open top, which affords the escaping of steam and prevents it from scalding the cook, in connection with the oven, which is similar to ordinary stoves, all this combined, makes it one of the most appropriate Ranges, particularly for families in charge of domestics.

Japanned and Tin Ware, Brooms, Tubs and Pails, Kitchen Utensils, Spun Gas.

All sorts of Work and Repairing done at the HOUSE FURNISHING AND STOVE ESTABLISHMENT, No. 122 Camp st. not, adjoining St. Patrick's Church. W. L. HODGSON,

THE BOSTON POST,

THE PRESS AND POST,

AND THE

BOSTON STATESMAN AND WEEKLY POST,

FOR 1855.

The Terms of our Journals for the coming year are: For the DAILY POST, $6; for the PRESS AND POST, $4; for the STATESMAN (Morning and Traveller), $6, and for the STATESMAN AND WEEKLY POST (Tri-Weekly), $4.

These papers have been published in Boston during the last twenty years, and have steadily increased in popularity and influence. Their range of circulation is extensive, and their interest is engrossing by no paper in the New England States.

They are edited by CHAS. G. GREENE and RICHARD FROTHINGHAM, Jr., and employ a corps of able writers and a large staff of editors, reporters and correspondents. Neither labor or expense is spared to render them the best papers of their class.

Their READING MATTER is arranged in the most careful and systematic manner. In the VARIETY may be found the source of the interest which the POST has created among the masses of general readers. In the editorial department the combination of correspondence, the judicious selection of matter from the Daily Journals, the condensed news paragraphs, the reports of local matters, the comments, giving which some about two hundred dollars in bank bills, were found to be perfectly preserved, and the thorough and accurate financial and commercial information in this and other kind of Safe that we know of. Respectfully yours, Dennison Wood-ware, 18 Canal st.

THE SPRINGS.

CULLUM'S SPRINGS, CHOCTAW CO., ALA., eighty-six miles above Mobile, twenty-three miles east of Macon and forty-five miles west of Columbus, Miss.

The undersigned takes pleasure in announcing to his friends and the public generally, that the above Springs is now open for the reception of visitors. During the past winter many improvements and additions have been made, as well as a large new basement carried on, comprehensive, not only to the invalid, but to others seeking recreation and pleasure, together with an augmentation in the management of the whole establishment, will render it second to no watering place in the South. Nothing will be left undone on the part of the proprietor to make it pleasant and agreeable to all. Advertising residents they are overpowered, according, as long do, into such a variety of household medicated over the whole Union, and need as they are by all classes of the community, they remain no opportunity for the diffusion of information, which can scarcely be obtained elsewhere.
