THEATRICAL ITEMS.

BOSTON.—Agnes Robertson and Dion Boucicault are playing an engagement at Barry's theater. The company is giving a comedy, consisting of two members, to wait upon the President of the United States and inform him that unless he has the necessary communications to make, the Senate is now ready to adjourn.

NEW YORK.—Miss Heron's success at Wallack's continues unabated. On the 20th she was to appear as "Leonore" in a new tragedy in five acts of the same writer by a lady of literary reputation expressly for that theater. The Broadway has been devoted to legitimate comedy, owing to Mr. Forrest's production. "The House of the Seven Gables" is a spectacular drama called "The Harper of Salem," to be produced, introducing the two performing comedians, Albert and Victoria. Burton's has produced a three act play entitled "Wat Tyler," by Wallack, Jr., as the hero. It is splendidly put on the stage, and has met with corresponding success. Laura Keane has produced a translation of "Memoirs du Diable," under the title of "The Black Book," which has well received. The American theater, under Mr. T. W. Robertson and Wallack's management, have reduced the prices of admission, and are producing the "Ladies of Rome" stories with success. Brougham has relinquished the legitimate entirely, and is now catering to the tastes of the East-siders. A New York paper says: At the Bowery they have fallen back upon the old red fire, double combats, patriotic "shiver my timbers," "eye-for-eye" and "red-hot" re-roberts, and "with my last gasp I defy your tyrant," style of ultra-patriotic melodrama. The new piece for the Bowery, who are to play a lengthy engagement, alternating with Max Marcella's opera troupe.

E. A. Marshall has purchased the Broadway theater for $200,000—$100,000 cash, and the balance on time. Mr. Kent, the comedian, has returned from California and joined Laura Keane's company. Refugio—Mr. Locke, the Yankee comedian, is starting at the Metropolitan theater. He is to be succeeded by Mr. Chaffin and Miss Dean. Chicago—Mr. Maguire Mitchell has met with good success here. ALBANY.—Mrs. McMahon has been playing to excellent success. The critics here, as elsewhere, have commended her as entirely cast for the stage. MEMPHIS.—Mr. Nestle closed here on the 18th; he has gone to St. Louis. LOUISVILLE.—Eliza Logan was announced to appear on the 19th. PITTSBURGH.—The Tyne & Harlow opera troupe are meeting with success at the theater. CINCINNATI.—Mr. Joseph Proctor and J. E. Owens closed at Wood's theater on the 18th. The Conway's were open at the 18th. RICHMOND.—Miss Fanny Morant is playing a star engagement here. CHARLESTON.—Miss Jane M. Davenport succeeded John Drew, and commenced on the 18th. ST. LOUIS.—The Grand Opera was playing to full houses at the Grand Opera house. The Grand Opera was playing to full houses at the Grand Opera house. UNITED STATES SENATE.—Special Session.

WASHINGTON, March 14, 1887.—On motion by Mr. Thompson, of New Jersey, a resolution was adopted, providing for the appointment of a committee, consisting of two members, to wait upon the President of the United States and inform him that unless he has the necessary communications to make, the Senate is now ready to adjourn.

Resolved, That the Committee on Printing be instructed to inquire into the propriety of printing the report of Captain McClelland, of the United States army, on the campaign of the Crimea, and that five thousand extra copies be printed for distribution, one thousand of which shall be for the use of the War Department.

Mr. D. remarked that three officers had been sent to the Senate by the President, and that the report of one of them. These officers were not to report as a committee, but separately; and the report now before the Senate was very interesting in its character, and likely to be highly useful both to the militia and the army. This was the first time that we had ever had in the English language an account of the organization of a military campaign, and its mode of conducting it. Captain McClelland acquired the Russian language while abroad, and has translated some of his most valuable works into English, and has furnished the Senate with a translation of one of them. It is a most interesting and valuable work, and is well calculated to improve the performance of the military officers who are called upon to perform the duties of a military campaign.

Subsequently, Mr. Johnson, from the Committee on Printing, reported in favor of the motion to print Captain McClelland's report; and the report was agreed to. On motion of Mr. Stuart, the journal of yesterday was corrected by striking out that portion which related to the report of the Committee on the Judiciary. Mr. Bright said his credentials were on file and if a motion be made to refer them, he wished to be heard. The report of the Committee on the Judiciary was read, and was under consideration, and not his. Mr. Trumbull ineffectually sought to have the introduction of the report postponed until to-morrow. The Vice President has retired from the chair, calling Mr. Stuart to preside. Mr. Fitzpatrick said it was necessary to have a report of the Committee on the Judiciary, and that Mr. Trumbull be chosen for that station, but, on motion of Mr. Wilson, the Senate proceeded to ballot for a speaker. Mr. Trask, who received 23 out of 47 votes, was elected.

Mr. Trask has received a majority of all the ballots cast, and has been declared elected; and upon being sworn, he delivered a short address to the Senate for the honor which had been conferred upon him, and said he would endeavor to discharge his duty to the best of his ability. Mr. Jones, of Iowa, made an ineffectual attempt to open the resolution which he offered yesterday, providing for the publication of the report of the Committee on the Judiciary, but was unsuccessful. Further Foreign News by the America.

The London Post's Paris correspondent writes on Thursday evening, 27th ult.: Persian affairs will remain in the same state until dispatches arrive from England; here, peace is declared in general.

The London Post's Paris correspondent writes that the question is whether the treaty with Persia, when agreed to in London, will be ratified at Teheran, much depending on the amount of Russian influence at the court. The Liverpool Journal, of the 28th ult., says: "The Dallas treaty, respecting Central America, has been approved by Congress. The shareowners of the steamer 'Albatross' have been notified that they are to be sold to the United States, and the steamer is to be used in Nicaragua and the adjoining States, and this induced them at once to send back the treaty.
