WEDNESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 26, 1870.

The power of the steamship Mexico has out-thanked Galveston papers.

The Washington Union and Walker—Let our readers persevere the vigorous and interesting article, headed as above, to be found in another column, taken from the Liverpool Gazette of the 15th inst., a paper which, by all odds, the ablest and most influential Democratic organ in North-West Louisiana.

The Gazette doesn't mind matters in talking of the Buchanan-Walker-Kansas betrayal of the South. It doesn't denounce the agent, and hold the principal guilty, as so many leading Louisiana presses do. It meets the whole question boldly and manfully, and does not hesitate to lay denunciations at the head of the highest official in the land, for his complicity in the Walker treachery.

This is alike right and sensible. The effort to excise Buchanan, without venturing upon any justification of Walker, is the baldest baldness that was ever thrust under the eyes of an intelligent people.

The First Rail-We have from the Ocala River—the strange Bagnon Belle arrived yesterday from Trenton, having one bag of new corn, from the plantation of P. C. Bridges, Esq., near Columbia, parish of Calhoun.

Postal Treaty—We learn from Washington that a postal convention has been concluded between the United States and Hamburg. The mails are to be exchanged by means of the United States or Hamburg mail steamers running direct between New York and Hamburg. The routing of the mails between the United States and Hamburg under this arrangement is to consist of the single letter of half an ounce weight or under, prepayment optional, and two cents on newspapers, prepayment required. The rates to all countries and places beyond Hamburg, whether upon letters or printed matter, are identical to the same in all respects as the rates charged by Bremen, under the United States and Bremen postal convention.

Post-Office at Cleveland—The Plain Dealer contains an account of the detection of a youth who has been engaged in robbing the Cleveland Post-Office of letters, addressed to the publishing house of the German Evangelical Association, of which Rev. Charles Fanning is the managing and financial director. Some ninety letters, containing $1000 or $2000, have been missing. The youth is only sixteen years of age, and the son of a respectable physician. He has made a confession implicating a son of the Rev. Mr. Hammer, with whom, he alleges, he divided the money. They were not connected with the Post-Office, but one of them was in the habit of going to the office, and with a false key opening Mr. Hammer's drawer, who the letters were placed, and helping himself. He was trapped by means of a "decoy" letter.

A Gang of House Thieves Broken Up—The Memphis Evening Post states that a gang of house thieves and mules had been stolen from citizens of Memphis and vicinity, and two young men under suspicion were arrested, when one of them, John Mitchell, betrayed his complicity in the house-stealing, and betrayed the existence of an organized band of horse thieves in Memphis and vicinity, and that its operations extend through North Mississippi and West Tennessee. He stated that this band had taken some two hundred horses and mules from Memphis and vicinity, within the last two years. He gave down upon him. It was two to retire, and he accordingly made an effort to get over the road before the train reached the place; but he was struck down by the train while yet upon the track, and a mangled and bleeding corpse.

A SKEEL—The editor of the Selma Sentinel has been shown a silver skeel, which was struck in a mint of Judas 1750 years ago. The coin, which is the property of an Israelite living near Selma, in whom faith it has been 350 years, is about the size of a half dollar, but the silver is so impure that its intrinsic value is but fifteen cents.

Convict in Georgia—The Columbus (Ga.) Enquirer of the 22d says that twenty in that region is doing well, but is twenty or twenty-five days behind in the usual process of maturity.

On Mrs. Unfortunate—On the morning of the 18th an unknown girl, about twenty years of age, threw herself upon the track of the Germantown railroad in advance of the train, near Philadelphia, and was torn to pieces. She stepped off the track as the train approached, and then on again, when too near for the stoppage of the train. It was evidently a case of suicide.

Decision Under the Dead Scott Case—The decision has been made in the General Land Office that a colored man, whose ancestors were brought into this country as slaves, is not entitled to pre-emption of the public lands. This is the first case based on the decision in the Dead Scott case.

Child Flagged to Death—On the 1st inst., in Denmark, Me., a man named Grover shot a dog that was standing near a little daughter of Mr. John Blake. She was immediately seized with nervous spasms, continually clinging to her father, and crying that she should be shot, etc. This continued until Tuesday morning, and in the afternoon she died. There is no doubt in the minds of those competent to judge, who saw the child, that her death was caused by fright from the shooting of the dog by her father. Grover was arrested.

A Sorrowful Fate—The Webster City (Iowa) Freeman states that the bodies of two men who perished on the expedition this spring in pursuit of the Indian murderers of Spirit Lake had been discovered. These men were named Johnson and Burkholder, and were lost while the volunteers were on their return. One cold morning their boots were frozen so that they could not get them on. Trailing thus exposed to the piercing cold, they soon began to fall behind. Presently their little party of fellow sufferers passed out of sight—their fate was sealed, and the above is the first intelligence that has been received in relation to them.

Fishing Business of Lake Ontario—Some of our Canadian friends express a prosperous business in the fishing line along the northern shore of Lake Ontario. It is reported that the season has been within ten days 40,000 white fish, which are worth $20,000. Other persons have taken similar numbers, and it is believed that the season will be a successful one. They are expected to be distributed in all directions, considerable quantities being sent to this city.

Supplies Coin—A quantity of spurious coin, purporting to be five dollar gold pieces of Becker's North Carolina, were offered at the office of F. C. Barber, Exchange Bank, New York, on the 21st inst. The money came from Elizabeth City, N. C., where there is, no doubt, a gang of coiners and counterfeiters in operation. [Signed] C. W. Linnell.

TRUTH RISING.

The New York Day Book, says the Charleston Mercury, in an elaborate article on the slavery question and its effect upon the Union, has hit upon that instrumentality to save the Union or the South, which we have so frequently advised and supported—a Southern party united on the simple point of the maintenance of the rights of the South on the subject of slavery.

By the way, the policy we have been advocating by many presses in the South. Even Northern men are now seeing the correctness of our views and policy, continues the Mercury, and dare even in the North to support them. The Day Book uses the following language:

Let an honest and true Democracy organize at the South. Let such men as Quitman and Davis, Pickens and Sumner, get possession of the present party organization, or if the leaders and hucksters prevent them, let them thrust aside, and reorganize anew on sound principles. Let the Democracy of the South, and let that North men, pro-slavery or anti-slavery, patriot or traitor, honest man or fool, can mistake a moment, and the Democracy of the South will be made aware that the South must have the same recognized rights in the Federal Territories that the North claims, or there must be a separation of these States.

They will, by this time, be at it once again, and the issue can be fairly tried in the next Presidential election. The Democracy may win the greatest triumph in its history, and the Democracy of the North may be a candidate for the Presidency, and the Democracy of the South may be a candidate for the Presidency.
