POLICEMEN REPORTED.—Lieut. Marshall, of the Fourth District, yesterday reported policemen W. T. Smith for not making an arrest on Saturday night, when requested, and for allowing John Phillips to escape him and defy him to attempt the arrest. Phillips was fined a fine of $1 just now, exemplified by the police of the Garden District.

CORONER'S INQUEST.—The Coroner yesterday held an inquest on the body of Morton, a slave woman belonging to Mr. Richard Crenshaw. It appeared that about a week ago the deceased and a negro man were in a skiff together, at Carrollton, when the wave of a passing steamer upset them, and the woman was drowned, the man managing to save himself; and the body of the woman was found floating yesterday, opposite Algiers. A verdict in accordance with the facts was rendered.

HARD FALL.—A man, whose name we did not learn, fell from the gallery of a house on Poydras street, on Sunday night, and was so badly hurt that he had to be taken to Charity Hospital. He was supposed to be intoxicated at the time.

THE NEGRO TAKING INSOLENCE.—The initiatory proceedings in this case were taken yesterday. Mr. Irvine, the prosecutor in this case with whom the negro was found. Firmin-ance showed the till of sale, by which he had obtained Ben from Thomas J. Reddy. Kenaly showed that he obtained Ben from Thomas J. Friby in an equally valid manner; and Friby showed that he had obtained Ben by regular purchase from Caleb Leonard, of Perdido street, with whom the thieves left Ben and the other negro slave, after bringing them down the river. Friby proceeded to make affidavit before Recorder Stith against Leonard, as an accessory before and after the fact, to negro stealing; and whilst he was doing this, Leonard was down at Recorder Fabre's, making affidavits of negro-stealing against both Friby and Kendig. These gentlemen, hearing of the doings, went down and surrendered themselves and gave bail; but Leonard adopted a different course. He made himself scarce, and has not been caught up to last night. The examination of the charge against Firmingman—which will doubtless clear Friby and Kendig, and throw the burden of the affair upon Leonard—takes place before Recorder Stith at noon to-day.

RECORDER STITH'S COURT.—Mike Callahan, for rioting a row on St. Thomas street, and drawing a cotton hook on officer Preston, was yesterday fined $25. L. Redon and G. Redon, for selling light weight bread to St. Mary's market, were fined each $25. Henry Pasquerant and James McEnally, for fighting on Rampart street, were fined $10 each. John Brown, for cavorting on St. Charles street, was fined $5. The usual batch of drunken loafers, male and female, were disposed of as usual. One of them, Tib Kelley, found sleeping on the steamboat landing, was sentenced to scrub out the lockup, and then travel. Mike Farrel, for cutting up on Bienvenue, was fined $10; and Henry McGuinn and James Meller, for fighting with knives on Girod street, were fined $10 each, and bound over in bonds of $25 each. John Quinnan, for setting like a savage on Annunciation street, was fined $20. George G. Kelley, for similar behavior on the steamboat landing, was fined $10. Wm. C. Cavanaugh, for drawing two pistols upon George Wood, on St. Charles street, was fined $10, and made a member of the Penne Society.

The following parties were severally arraigned and charged for examination:

H. C. Foster, charged by Jeremiah Collins with inveigling away the slave boy Charley, and attempting to invigle the slave boy Jake, both belonging to the estate of Pratt, in March last. (Some outline of Foster's adventures and return to the city we have already published.) Remanded to prison to be examined on the 10th inst.

H. C. Foster, (the above-mentioned,) Theresa Kelling, Margaret Jane Kelling, and another woman named Catherine, charged by Mrs. Mary Ann Green with burglary—Foster breaking into the room at the corner of Girod and Basin streets, on the night of the 8th of April last, and carrying off two trunks containing $230 in money and a wardrobe of clothing, besides a gold brass pin and miniature, taken from the bureau—all valued at $350—and the woman aiding and abetting him. Case fixed for examination at 10 o'clock to-morrow.

Thomas Fitzsimmons, charged by Walter Irving with receiving his slave man Ben, knowing him to have been stolen with another slave from his plantation near Natchez. Case fixed for to-day—bail of $3000 given.

Baptiste Fetch, charged by Alexander M. Summers with receiving stolen property—sundry hogsheads of tobacco, valued at about $900, being stolen at different times from his warehouse at the corner of Robin and Front streets, and a portion of the same being found in Fetch's house at the corner of Common and Liberty streets. Case fixed for the 18th—bail of $1000 required.

James Geary, charged by officer Thos. Kearney with carrying a concealed weapon, in the shape of a spring-dirk knife. Sent to prison in default of bail.

Henry Jones, charged with abusing and threatening John O'Connor, on board the steamship Texas. Bail given.

Albert Allen, charged with striking Nathan Solomon, on St. Charles street. Bail $25.

Francois Lafitte, charged with having in his possession, on Orange street, a watch he supposed to be stolen. Sent to prison.

Kitty Maid, charged with throwing clean water and foul language upon Mary Rooney, at No. 12 Calliope street. Sent to prison.

James McGreary, charged with beating John G. McLean at the Union Shipping. Sent to prison.

Steven Thompson, a mere sapling, and Jona, belonging to Mr. Womack, charged by A. Talbot with living and congregating with white persons in a house on Franklin street. Sent to prison.

Dolores Lopez, alias Nortez, charged by Maria Jasefa Raval with outrageously abusing and threatening her at her own house, corner of St. John and Poydras treets. Sent to prison.

Mary Winston, charged by A. Talbot with living with the slave above. Sent to prison.

J. Jackson, charged with collecting money in Arkansas under felonious circumstances, was discharged, there being no prosecutor, nor other testimony against him.

Mrs. Stafford and Mrs. Dingee were also dismissed from a charge of abusing and threatening John Gallagher.

RECORDER FABRE'S COURT.—Mrs. Louis Tanet, residing at the corner of St. Ann and Prieur streets, was yesterday arraigned on a charge of breach of trust in appropriating to her own use and benefit $32 of the proceeds of bread sold by her for Mr. Alcade Lapeyrolerie, at the corner of Prieur and Orleans street. She gave bail to appear for examination when required.

Bridget Teppan was arraigned on a charge of stealing $15 from Wm. Baxter, of Front Levee street, near Ursulines. She was sent to prison in default of bail.

Mrs Ann Stillman, Mrs. Herron and Emma Kirk, alias Waters, were arraigned on a charge of having jointly walloped Alice Seabright, in her room at the corner of Toulouse and Dauphine streets. Ann and Emma gave bail to appear. These two were further charged with beating Mary Shaw, a lodger at the same time and place, and on this charge they also gave bail.

C. F. Schneider was held for examination on a charge of striking Mrs. S. Hart, on Hospital street. Bail given.

Octave F. Sauer, f. m. c., was held on a charge of beating Wm. Cotterel, f. m. c., on Sunday afternoon. He gave bail.

Augusta Cognisse, G. D. Lang and Ann Dawson were severally dismissed from charges of assault and battery.

Mr. Fulcanelle also of Poydras was sentenced to receive ten lashes for stealing a pocket watch, $3 50 from J. LeBlanc, at 140 Old Levee street.

RECORDER SOLOMON'S COURT.—Francis Maclas was yesterday arraigned on the affidavit of Mrs. Pichaud, an old lady residing at the corner of Dorgenois street and the Bayou Road, charging him with visiting her on Saturday and stealing and threatening to kill her—all because she would not consent to his prostituting her grand-daughter. She stated that he had seduced her grand-child under a promise of marriage, pretending to be a single man, when in reality he was a married man; and that he seems determined to force the girl to live with him, and is in the constant habit of abusing and insulting her, the grandmother, and threatening to kill her. Maclas gave bail to appear for examination.

A. Durand, Joseph A. Petit and Felix Justin, were arraigned on a charge of being very dangerous and suspicious characters—officer Roth having, by his observations, come to that conclusion. Petit and Justin gave bail; Durand went to prison.

Alfred Adams and —— Gaspard were arraigned on a charge of fighting and firing a pistol in Charles Lehmann's house on Frenchmen street. Adams gave bail.

Peter Dalton was arraigned on a charge of raising a row in St. Vincent de Paul Cemetery—digging a grave only two feet deep, and in short informed by dinnick, the sexton, that the law did not allow such shallow interments, replying to him, "damn the law," and otherwise acting like a heathen. He gave bail to appear.

Mrs. Kennedy was arraigned on a charge of being a nuisance at the Union Shipping. Sent to prison.

Steven Thompson, a mere sapling, belonging to Mr. Shortridge, and Jona, belonging to Mr. Womack, charged by A. Talbot with living and congregating with white persons in a house on Franklin street. Sent to prison.

Dolores Lopez, alias Nortez, charged by Maria Jasefa Raval with outrageously abusing and threatening her at her own house, corner of St. John and Poydras treets. Sent to prison.
