New Orleans Daily Crescent:

WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE.

WASHINGTON, April 8, 1858.

Editors Crescent: Hon. Mr. McKibben, from the House Committee on Post-Offices and Post Roads, will ere long report favorably upon a bill in which, doubtless, the readers of the Crescent are largely interested. The Louisiana Tehuantepec Company proposes to undertake a weekly mail service between the ports, respectively, of New Orleans and San Francisco and New York and San Francisco. For performing this service from the ports last mentioned (New York and San Francisco) they ask $550,000 per annum. For the service between New Orleans and San Francisco, they ask $350,000; making an aggregate of $850,000.

This will be a vast improvement upon the existing service. The Pacific Panama Company, as I believe it is called, perform only a semi-monthly mail service, at a cost to the Government of $738,000 per annum. Their average term is twenty-four days, and they run only between New York and San Francisco.

Thus it will be seen that for the sum of $100,000 more, the Louisiana Tehuantepec Company propose to do quadruple the amount of work done by the Panama Company. They will run a double line of steamers from New York and New Orleans to San Francisco, the mail will be weekly instead of semi-monthly, as now, and the average time of trips will be, from New York to San Francisco eighteen days, and from New Orleans to San Francisco fourteen days.

This contract is not to take effect until October, 1859. Meantime, the Louisiana Company proposes to run, from the present date to October, 1859, from New Orleans to San Francisco, semi-monthly, alternating with the Pacific Panama Company, which will continue the usual service to and from New York. The time from New Orleans to San Francisco will be fourteen days, and for transporting the mails, etc., the Louisiana Company propose the moderate charge to the Government of $285,000 per annum.

I learn that this projet, in part and in whole, has the approbation of the Administration, and will in all likelihood go into effect at the earliest practical moment. The opponents of the bill contend with more than a show of plausibility that the Pacific mail service is already an enormous charge upon the Federal Treasury. In addition to the Panama service already mentioned, costing $738,000 per annum, there are three overland routes, by which trips are made on an average of thirty days, and the cost of which is stated as follows: By the Memphis route, $650,000; the San Antonio and San Pedro route, $150,000; the Salt Lake route, $300,000—making the grand total, including the Panama route, of $1,738,000. This is, indeed, an enormous charge, but it must be remembered that the overland routes are, properly speaking, not postal routes, but avenues for the transportation of Government supplies, for facilitating emigration, and for opening up and developing new and fertile countries. In view of the prospective value of these new Territories, the present nominally postal expenditures are abundantly justified, and as in no great time the Louisiana Tehuantepec Company is destined to supersede a much more costly company, and a much slower service, it is all important that the company should be put in working trim by a compensation sufficient to induce and sustain them in undertaking the alternating trips before mentioned. As the existing service is a monopoly, and the charges for passengers, if not for mails, are exorbitant, a cogent argument might be based upon that head; but, apart from this, the Louisiana Company holds out ample inducements to obtain the support and encouragement it asks at the hands of Congress.

Minnesota scuffled through the Senate yesterday by a large vote, every Senator but Clay, Kennedy and Yulee voting for it. Heaven knows there are features in the Minnesota Constitution infinitely more abominable and more in conflict with the spirit if not the letter of the Constitution of the United States than slavery; but suppose slavery had been in her Constitution, what a precious bubbub we should have had. But the readers of the Crescent need not be told that, disguise it as they may, the secret and the whole secret of the opposition to Kansas is the fanatical anti slavery spirit which impregnates the entire North.

The Crittenden-Montgomery amendment, disagreed to by the Senate, and unnecessarily detained there, goes down to the House to-day, and the vote on it will be taken at 1 o'clock. I have but little idea that the House will recede. The New York Herald has come out in favor of Crittenden's amendment, and the Black Republican successes at all the Northern elections which have been held within the past few days, added to the significant weight of the Herald's position, will fix the opposition beyond a chance of change. Of the majority of eight who voted against Lecompton as it came from the Senate, I have heard of but one man who has receded—Wall, of Ohio. The Administration has still seven men to purchase, and nothing to purchase them with. The result of the vote will reach you long before this letter; I therefore dismiss the subject.

Yesterday the Deficiency bill was virtually defeated in the House. It was referred back to the Committee on Ways and Means, who were instructed to report it again in sections. Our Democratic economists, smitten with a sudden conscientiousness, are determined to vote no longer for things in the lump; each item must undergo a rigid scrutiny before the good men will permit it to pass. Heaven bless their virtuous souls! why did'nt this excellent idea strike them in time to save the treasury from bankruptcy?

If we ever do get rid of Kansas, the next thing on docket will be the Pacific Railroad. I learn that no less than twenty or thirty speeches are already cut and dried for it—very many of them by Northern members who were too sensible to make blood and thunder speeches on Kansas. There is little chance of the various factions reaching a conclusion, and, I fear, no chance whatever for the Southern route to be favored as it ought to be.

Mrs. Senator Gwin's great fancy ball comes off to-night, and the whole town is run mad about it. Nothing else is talked off. It seems to be known that Keitt will appear as Claude Melnotte, Senator Pugh as Charles the something, Lord and Lady Napier as so and so, Senator Gwin as a gentleman of the revolutionary times, and Mrs. Gwin as a lady of that period. Upwards of four hundred invitations have been sent out, and as yet only some fifty or sixty gentlemen have accepted. So the ladies tell me. A sparcity of beaux is something they do not at all relish. As the cards of invitation contain a hint to the effect that "costume is obligatory," and as many of the invited are potent, grave and reverend Senators and members of Congress, who dislike to mar their original beauty by borrowed plumes, the probability is that the fair ladies will have quite a social time among themselves.

Our murder bill, in spite of recent stringent police regulations, foots up very well, averaging about one a day. John Brougham has taken his flight from the Greater; the stock actors have had their benefits; there is an interregnum until Monday next; then comes the opera.

MALOC.

RESCUE OF A SLAVE FROM THE U. S. MARSHAL AT BLAIRSVILLE, PA.—On Thursday, April 1st, a Mr. Stamp, from Virginia, went to Blairsville, Pa., to reclaim a fugitive slave. The Deputy U. S. Marshal, assisted by Mr. Stamp, caught the negro, and were about shipping him to Virginia, when the citizens became excited and surrounded the negro and his captors. Mr. Stamp discharged his pistol into the crowd, and then he and the Deputy U. S. Marshal left. The citizens took the slave away and concealed him, while the negroes followed the Virginian and the Marshal to the depot, hooting at them, and even pelting them on the way thither.

This is the sort of regard entertained North for the constitutional rights of the South. It is the spirit which governs the Northern opposition to the admission of Kansas at present.

[Nashville Patriot, April 10.

The above is only one of the hundreds of avidences which go to prove that neither the Constitution, nor the laws of Congress, nor the decisions of the judicial tribunals of the land, have any vital power whatever for the protection of Southern property or Southern Rights! But, this is a "glorious Union," and the American eagle is a great bird.

SHOCKING ACCIDENT.—The Mobile Register, of Wednesday last, says:

Richard Bastapol, a young ship carpenter, engaged at work at the Dry Dock, who had gone over to the saw mill connected with the yard to see the sawyer, while passing round the circular saw, was struck by it and his arm severed from his body and his head nearly sawed in two. He was not instantly killed, but when last heard from was not expected to live; in fact his head is so horribly mutilated that there is scarcely a possibility of his surviving.

Thirty-Fifth Congress—First Session

WASHINGTON, April 8.—Senate.—Mr. Clark presented the petition of David D. Porter, urging the payment of the claim of his father, Commodore David Porter, against the Mexican Government, for services rendered in the navy of that country, out of the Mexican indemnity fund or otherwise, which was referred to the Committee on Claims.

Mr. Hamlin, from the Committee on Commerce, reported a bill to amend an act entitled "An act for enrolling and licensing ships or vessels to be employed in the coasting trade and fisheries, and for registering the same," passed February 18, 1793, and a bill to amend or define the act of July 29, 1850, entitled "An act providing for recording the conveyances of vessels and for other purposes," which were severally read and passed to a second reading.

Mr. Douglas: From the Committee on Territories, to whom was referred the bill to organize the Territory of Arizona, reported it with an amendment in the nature of a substitute, entitled "a bill to amend the organic act establishing a territorial government for New Mexico."

Mr. Hunter: From the Committee on Finance, to whom was referred the bill from the House of Representatives, making appropriation for the consular and diplomatic expenses of the Government for the year ending the 30th of June, 1859, reported it with sundry amendments. The bill was subsequently taken up, and the amendments were concurred in.

On motion by Mr. Iverson, a resolution was adopted requesting the Secretary of War to transmit to the Senate a copy of the report lately made by a Board of army officers appointed to examine and test the improvement in fire-arms, invented and patented by Captain J. U. Ward, of the United States army, with his opinions as to the expediency and propriety of adopting said improvement, either in the construction of new arms or altering the old arms of the United States, and of an appropriation by Congress for the purpose.

Mr. Johnson, of Arkansas, submitted a resolution requesting the Secretary of the Navy to inform the Senate what measures, if any, are being taken, and under what law, for the publication of the results of the United States naval exploring and surveying expedition to the North Pacific ocean and China seas, under the command of Lieut. John Rogers, in the years 1853-'54-'55 and '56, and also the results of the United States naval expedition to the La Plata river in the same years, under the command of Lieutenant Thomas J. Page, or for the engraving of any of the maps, charts, or drawings which are intended to illustrate the reports of these expeditions to Congress, and out of what fund or appropriation in each and every case of work done in the premises have payments for the same been made, and if not paid, then from what fund or appropriation is it designed to make payment; and also to inform the Senate under whose supervision those works are being prepared, and how many parties are now engaged upon the preparation of the materials for them severally.

Mr. Johnson explained that his object in offering this resolution was to endeavor to ascertain how far these reports had gone, with a view of preventing such extravagant expenses in their printing as had been incurred in publishing the reports of the previous exploring expeditions. The Committee on Printing had been censured for the vast amounts expended in the publication of public documents, and they were determined, if possible, to put a stop to these abuses.

The resolution was adopted.

Mr. Johnson, of Arkansas, gave notice that on Thursday next he should move to take up for consideration the bill amendatory of the act entitled "An act to provide for executing the public printing, and establishing the prices thereof, and for other purposes," approved August 26, 1852. He believed that the passage of that bill would tend to put a stop to those abuses about which so much complaint had been made.

On motion by Mr. Fessenden, the Senate proceeded to the consideration of the joint resolution to extend the operation of the act approved January 16, 1857, entitled "An act to amend an act entitled 'an act to promote the efficiency of the navy,'" which had passed the House of Representatives with an amendment, and had been reported from the Committee on Naval affairs by Mr. Mallory, with an amendment to the amendment of the House of Representatives. The question being taken, the amendment to the amendment was agreed to,

The Senate resumed the consideration of the joint resolution directing the presentation of a medal to Commodore Hiram Paulding.

Mr. Slidell made some remarks upon the subject, saying that he had taken pains to examine the matter with some care; and although the subject had lost much of its interest, yet he would like an opportunity to express his views in relation to it. He went into a history of the career of General Walker, whose course he condemned; and he expressed the opinion that Commodore Chatard might have lawfully seized the steamer Fashion off Punta Arenas, and brought her to this country. Every vessel was considered a portion of the territory of the country whose flag it bears; and the obligation resting upon a government to execute the neutrality laws implied the existence of the powers necessary to perform that obligation. Mr. S. quoted Grotius and other authorities to sustain his positions, and made an able argument on the question of maritime jurisdiction. When he had concluded, the further consideration of the joint resolution was postponed, and the Senate adjourned.

House.—The Speaker stated the business first in order to be the consideration of the Deficiency bill, reported yesterday from the Committee of the Whole on the state of the Union, with the recommendation that it be recommitted, with certain instructions. The bill was engrossed, read a third time, and then defeated.

Mr. Montgomery, of Pennsylvania, asked unanimous consent of the House to take from the Speaker's table the Kansas bill, the Senate having disagreed to the amendment of the House.

There being no objection, the bill was taken up.

Mr. Montgomery moved that the House adhere to its amendment.

Mr. Bocock, of Virginia, stated that the effect of that motion would be to cut off all hope of settlement.

Mr. Montgomery demanded the previous question.

Mr. Seward, of Georgia, moved that the House recede.

The question recurring on the motion to adhere.

Mr. Bocock, of Virginia, demanded the yeas and nays, which were ordered.

The vote being taken, the House adhered to its amendment—yeas 119, nays 111, as follows:

Yeas: Messrs. Abbott, Adrain, Andrews, Bennett, Billinghurst, Bingham, Blair, Bliss, Brayton, Bufflington, Burlingame, Burroughs, Campbell, Case, Chaffee, Chapman, Clark of Connecticut, Clark of New York, Clawson, Clark B. Cochrane of New York, Cockerill, Colfax, Comins, Covode, Cox, Cragin, Curtis, Damrell, Davis of Indiana, Davis of Massachusetts, Davis of Iowa, Dawes, Dick, Dodd, Durfee, Edie, English, Farnsworth, Fenton, Foley, Foster, Giddings, Gilman, Gilmer, Gooch, Goodwin, Granger, Groesbeck, Grow, Hall of Ohio, Hall of Massachusetts, Harlan, Harris of Maryland, Harris of Illinois, Haskin, Hickman, Hoard, Horton, Howard, Owen Jones of Pennsylvania, Kellogg, Kelsey, Kilgore, Knapp, Knuket of Pennsylvania, Lawrence, Leach, Letter, Lovejoy, McKibbin, Marshall of Illinois, Matteson, Montgomery, Morgan, Morrill, Morris of Pennsylvania, Morris of Illinois, Morse of Maine, Morse of New York, Mott, Murray, Nichols, Olin, Palmer, Parker, Pendleton, Pettit, Pike, Potter, Pottle, Purviance, Ricaud, Ritchie, Robbins, Roberts, Royce, Shaw of Illinois, Sherman of Ohio, Sherman of New York, Smith of Illinois, Spinner, Stanton, Stewart of Pennsylvania, Tappan, Thayer, Thompson, Tompkins, Underwood, Wade, Walbridge, Waldron, Walton, Washburne of Wisconsin, Washburne of Illinois, Washburn of Maine, Wilson and Wood—119.

Nays—Messrs. Ahl, Anderson, Arnold, Atkins, Avery, Barksdale, Bishop, Bonham, Boyce, Branch, Bryan, Burnett, John Cochrane of New York, Corning, Craig of Missouri, Craige of North Carolina, Crawford, Curry, Davidson, Davis of Mississippi, Dewart, Dimmick, Dowdell, Edmundson, Elliott, Eustis, Faulkner, Florence, Garnett, Gartrell, Gillis, Goode, Greenwood, Gregg, Hatch, Hawkins, Hill, Hopkins, Houston, Hughes, Huyler, Jackson, Jenkins, Jewett, Jones of Tenn., J. G. Jones of Penn., Kelly, Kelly, Kunkel of Maryland, Lamar, Landy, Leidy, Letcher, Maclay, McQueen, Mason, Maynard, Miles, Miller, Millson, Moore, Niblack, Peyton, Phelps, Phillips, Powell, Quitman, Ready, Reagan, Reilly, Ruffin, Russell, Sandige, Savage, Scales, Scott, Searing, Seward, Shaw of North Carolina, Shorter, Sickles, Singleton, Smith of Tenn., Smith of Virginia, Stallworth, Stephens, Stevenson, Stewart of Maryland, Talbot, Taylor of New York, Taylor of Louisiana, Trippe, Ward, Warren, Watkins, Watkins, Whitely, Winslow, Woodson, Wortendyke, Wright of Georgia, Wright of Tenn., and Zollicoffer—111.

Mr. Branch, of North Carolina, moved to reconsider the vote by which the Deficiency bill was rejected. He gave notice that if the motion should prevail, he would offer a resolution for its recommitment to the Committee of Ways and Means, with instructions to report in lieu of the bill six different bills, for specific purposes. It was obvious that the bill was rejected in consequence of there being items in it that caused gentlemen to vote against it who were in favor of the main items in the bill. The resolution of Mr. Garnett was not satisfactory because of the difficulty in executing it. The resolution which he proposed avoided that difficulty by not going so much into detail, and requiring the committee to report in each bill the items belonging to each bill. He did not believe that any member would vote against a bill to supply deficiencies in the army, in view of the fact that unless these supplies were furnished the army now in Utah could not advance nor recede one step.

The motion was agreed to, and the House then adjourned.

Goon.—The Mobile Mercury gives the following version of an anecdote about the inventor of the famous Congreve rocket:

An anecdote which has been told in many forms originated in a visit of Col. Congreve to St. Paul's in company with Madame Vestris. While contemplating Hayden's epitaph—"He has gone to that region where alone his harmony can be exceeded," the witty lady remarked—"Colonel, charge harmony to fire works, and this would make an appropriate epitaph for you."

JURY SENTENCE.—A man named Lee, charged with abducting slaves, has been convicted at Norfolk, Va., on four indictments, and sentenced to receive fifty stripes, publicly laid on, at the rate of five a day, and to be confined in the penitentiary for twenty-five years.
