New Orleans Daily Crescent.

FRIDAY MORNING, JULY 8, 1859.

River Intelligent.

Crescent Office, No. 79 Camp street, }
Friday, July 8, 1859. }

[illegible] W. Morrison arrived at St. Louis at last, in 5 days 16 hours from this port.

The St. Louis Republican of the 4th says:

The rivers have fell six inches in the twenty-four hours ending at dark on Saturday. All the upper rivers are falling rapidly. The Illinois river is falling [illegible] to the mouth, with 3½ feet on the sand bar at Naples. There is no appearance of improvement in the weather to check the fall. There are prospects of extremely hot Saturday. Business [illegible]

The Missouri Journal of the 4th says:

The river was at a stand yesterday, with 4 feet [illegible] water in the canal. A fine rain fell on Saturday night, which continued for several hours. The [illegible] is much in need of it, and must have been [illegible] by it.

The Quincy Gazette of the 4th says:

The weather was mild and pleasant yesterday, with a slight rain and storm during the night previous. The river was stationary last night, with 6½ feet in the channel. Business is unusually dull along the levee; and will continue, of course, until the close of the low water season.

The Keokuk Dispatch of the 4th says:

The Jennie Deans arrived at Warsaw on the 2d inst., with a good trip. The Keokuk Packet Co. have now [illegible] boats on the line, and a large number of passengers [illegible] at Warsaw for Keokuk. The boats from the Upper [illegible] are crowding pretty good loads, for these times. The New Falls City, one of the Keokuk packets, left yesterday with a [illegible] and a large number of passengers. The Jennie Deans will be put in Wisconsin [illegible] in the coming trade of ours. The Landlubber will be in with a good trip of freight and people for [illegible]

The Clifford O. Jr., we understand, has been [illegible] to the city for the purpose of leasing [illegible] to run between here and San Diego. A better selection [illegible] and we congratulate the [illegible] upon the [illegible] of such a trustworthy and [illegible] by her arrangement passengers can [illegible] from San Francisco to New Orleans by the Great Railroad Line of packets to [illegible] the Eastern and Western cities.

The steamer Louis was sold yesterday to our [illegible] company. The price paid was $15,000

The steamer G. D. Jr., came over to the landing [illegible] looking as bright and new as when she [illegible] first. She has been thoroughly repaired [illegible] and will leave on her first trip to [illegible] the lower coast, and will hereafter leave [illegible] and Wednesday mornings at 10 [illegible]

Capt. J. A. Cotton will command, and [illegible] McLain will be found in charge of the [illegible]

The steamer W. M