New Orleans Daily Crescent, Tuesday Morning, August 9, 1859.

New Orleans Daily Crescent.

TUESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 9, 1859.

River Intelligence.

Office Crescent, No. 70 Camp Street, } Tuesday, August 9, 1859.

The Mississippi has risen 2 inches at Cairo since yesterday. Steamers from ... Tuesday ...Departure from ... Tuesday ...Departure.

The Eclipse will leave for St. Louis and intermediate ports this day, Business ... and Memphis Saturday evening, and will not be detained by ... She will have ... and will leave for St. Louis ... The Eclipse will be followed ... by the Princess on Thursday ... Memphis Saturday evening, and ... Bostick, E. H. Fairchild and Highflyer ... Napoleon 34 feet water on Scuffletown ... Memphis 7 feet at other points. The Mode... over 31 Island, and was tugging at ... Cairo 4 feet and falling fast.

The Eclipse for New Orleans, was ... French Island Monday evening, under ... six miles passed up. She left here Sun... she succeeds in getting over Scuffletown, ... Island, she can ... French Island, she can ... The Memphis Avalanche of the 3d says:

The river fell another inch yesterday, with ... Cairo 4 feet and falling fast.