OPPOSITION STATE TICKET.

We do not intend to say that the Opposition State Ticket is "taking the wind" or that its success is assured. We have heard with an attentive ear, and we have seen the result of the election in Louisiana. We have seen the result of the election in Louisiana. We have seen the result of the election in Louisiana.

As yet there has been no formal acceptance and no formal rejection. Hon. Chas. D. Drexel has declined to accept the nomination for the office of Secretary of State, and Mr. Thomas J. Durant, the eloquent, able and learned advocate, has accepted the nomination for the office of Secretary of State.

We have seen Mr. Durant's letter of acceptance: Hon. Chas. D. Drexel, Secretary of State, New Orleans, Sept. 17, 1859.

It is not our duty to receive your letter of the 12th inst., informing me that I had been selected by a number of citizens as a candidate for the office of Attorney-General of this State, at the approaching election in November.

Assumption, August 27, 1859. During the last rolling season, the Cotton Seed Oil made by P. Martin & Co., New Orleans, was used for light in the Sugar Houses on the Assumption and Wharf plantations of W. W. Pugh & Co., Mrs. Cynthia Pugh's New Hope plantation, and the plantation of J. J. Bonner & Co., and was, in every respect, found equal, if not superior, to either whale or lard oil.

Assumption, June 1, 1859. I certify that I have used Cotton Seed Oil for lighting my Sugar House, and consider it equal to any lard oil we have ever used, giving a clear light and less trouble than most of whale oil.

Assumption, June 1, 1859. I take pleasure in stating that I have used the Cotton Seed Oil manufactured by Messrs. P. Martin & Co., and found it to give complete satisfaction. A. GENTILE, During the last rolling season, I used the Cotton Seed Oil from the manufactory of Messrs. P. Martin & Co. This oil was as well as pure white oil, and it was used for light in the Sugar Houses on the Assumption and Wharf plantations of W. W. Pugh & Co., Mrs. Cynthia Pugh's New Hope plantation, and the plantation of J. J. Bonner & Co., and was, in every respect, found equal, if not superior, to either whale or lard oil.
