THE RIVER AND MARINE DEPARTMENT.

River Intelligence.

General Rumors—The Weather—Business Dispatch from the Imperial—Departures To-Day, etc., etc.

Custom Office, No. 76 Camp street, Friday Morning, Feb. 24, 1860.

Business on the levee yesterday was not to say dull though less active than for several days previous. Freights are very scarce at present, which is owing mostly to the large number of boats in port. The weather was cool and pleasant.

A deal of serious swearing can be seen by referring to our Marine columns.

We return our thanks to Mr. McChesney, of the Steam Tender, Mr. Lasalle, of the Planet, Mr. Donnally, of the Tigress, and Mr. Wiley, of the Cherokee, for fine favors.

By a dispatch received by Mr. Jas. F. Allen, we learn that the Imperial will arrive this evening, and will leave again on Tuesday, 28th.
