ORLEANS FEMALE ACADEMY—
VERANDA BUILDING,
313 Old No., Camp street, between Poeyfarre and Calliope sts.

Seventeenth Annual Session.

The Seventeenth Annual Session of this Institution begins on the First Monday of September, 1859.

The plan of instruction comprises a general and extensive system of education. It offers great advantages for the acquisition of languages. The French is daily spoken in the school, and the Modern Classics are thoroughly analyzed.

The location is central, and the apartments are spacious and well ventilated. The school is provided with a choice library, the best musical instruments and complete philosophical apparatus.

References are innumerable. Among them the Alumnæ of this institution, who now number among the gems of society.

Students admitted at any time during the session.

For further particulars, apply in person or by letter, at the Institution. M. D. DEMITRY, A. M.,
President of the Board.
