THE RIVER AND MARINE DEPARTMENT.

River Intelligence.

General Remarks—Weekly Receipts—Arrivals for the Week—River Falling—Business—The Weather, &c—The Steamers for Louisville and St Louis—The Steamboat and Cotton Interest—Clippings from our Exchanges, Departures To-day, etc.

CRESCENT OFFICE, No. 75 Camp street, Monday Morning, April 16, 1860.

The weather during the past week has generally been clear and warm, and yesterday it was most unequivocally hot. About noon the mercury ran up to 84 in the shade.

The river continues to decline at this point: since our last report it has fallen 4 feet and is now 9 feet 8 inches below high water mark.

Business on the levee Saturday was active, but not as brisk as it is usually to be seen on that day. The landings are well filled so far as boats are concerned, while the wharf contains but a meager show of freight.

The arrivals for the week were seventy-seven.

The following are the receipts of the leading staples for the past week, ending Friday noon: Cotton, 21,216 bales; sugar, 3,528 hhds, tcs and bbls; molasses, 4,333 bbls; flour, 18,467; bbls bacon, 1,454 bbls and tcs and tanks; bagging, 837 pieces; rope, 4,049 coils; corn, 52,332 sacks; lard, 3,184 tcs and bbls, and 2,620 kegs; oats, 31,901 bbls and sacks; pork, 5,088 bbls and tierces; tobacco, 2,870 bales, and whisky, 3,333 bbls.

The great champion of the South, the Natchez, will leave here for Louisville on Monday, 7th of May. Passengers wishing to procure passage on this splendid fast and unsurpassed packet, can do so by applying to the agents of the boat, Messrs. J. J. Person & Co., corner of Carondelet and Union streets.

We refer our readers to the advertisement of the new and splendid Yazoo and Tallahatchie river packet Prince, Capt. Edwin S. Battles.

The Prince will take freight for all landings on the above rivers, and connects with the steamers Natchez and Vicksburg at Vicksburg, and also Monday morning's train of cars from the city. All freight consigned to her care will be taken through without detention.

The Doubloon and Bonita have both laid up on account of the water falling so very fast in Red river.

A Low River Expected.—The Baton Rouge Sugar Planter of Saturday last says:

The river at this point is falling with a rapidity almost unparalleled. At this time last year it was rising with the same rapidity that it is now falling, and continued to rise until sometime during the month of June, when it attained its highest mark. The upper rivers are all reported by telegraph to be falling, and there can be no doubt but that the river will fall lower this summer than it has done for many years. Some of our old citizens think it presages a sickly summer, and cite many similar instances of previous years to confirm their opinions. We hope their predictions may prove incorrect, but the conviction forces itself upon our mind that the summer will by no means be healthy.

Lafourche for Lafourche.—The new and fast passenger packet Lafourche, Capt. A. Dugas, commander, Mr. Eugene Latapie, clerk, leaves this evening at 5 o'clock for the above and all Coast landings.

Queen of the West for Cincinnati.—The staunch and regular passenger packet Queen of the West, Captain J. P. Wade, commander, Mr. M. McCullough, clerk, leaves positively at 5 o'clock this evening for Cincinnati, Louisville and all way landings. The passenger accommodations of the Queen of the West are complete in every particular. We cordially commend her and her worthy officers to passengers bound up the river to-day.

Cherokee for Tennessee River.—The fast packet Cherokee, Captain R. H. Rogers, commander, Mr. R. Whay, clerk, leaves at 5 o'clock this evening for Tennessee river and way points.

Atlantic for Louisville.—The regular, elegant and swift-running passenger packet Atlantic, Capt. A. The Atlantic's cabin is a model of beauty, her state-rooms large and convenient, and her general appointments of a very superior order. In point of speed she is not to be beaten, while the well-known ability of her officers, and her own inherent staunchness, establish her reputation for safety. Mr. John S. Woolfolk, the chief clerk of the Atlantic, is one of the princes of his profession, and makes friends with a facility which is all his own. Passengers who have taken passage on the Atlantic would advise no one to be on board at the above-named hour, as she leaves punctually.

Edward J. Gay—Railroad Line Packet for St. Louis To-Day.—This evening, at 5 o'clock, the new, splendid, regular and swift passenger packet Ed. J. Gay, Capt. Bart. Bowen, commander, Mr. J. Brooks, clerk, will back out for Memphis, Cairo, St. Louis and all intermediate landings. The Gay is in every and all respects a splendid passenger packet, and is a member of the famous and popular Railroad Line, connecting at Cairo and St. Louis with the great routes for the Northern and Eastern cities. The packet is one of the finest of the line, and is not eclipsed in grandeur, speed, safety or comfort by either of her comrades. In Mr. Brooks passengers will find a finished gentleman and a most agreeable companion. Passengers wishing to procure through tickets can do so by applying only to the office of the Company, No. 61 Camp street, corner of Commercial alley.

Attractiveness of Fat Men.—Fat men are the salt and savor of the earth; full of good humor, high spirits, the very essence of jollity. Of men, they are the measures, brimmed, heaped, pressed down, piled up and running over. They are as ships from Teneriffe, swimming deep, full of wine, and heavily stays down into their hold. Soft, susceptible all around, they are easy of entreaty, and for the very roundness they are too often advised to their undoing by unselfish knaves. Ah! a fat uncle, with a fat purse, is a joy and delight to all nephews; to philosophers, a subject of endless speculation, as to how many droves of oxen and cables of wine might have run through his great gut during the full term of his mortal career. Fat men are not immortal. Yet the very instant old Lambert is rubbing his jolly abdomen in Paradise.—[Melville's Mardi.

Second and Summer Clothing.—Pierson, Harlan & Co., corner Magazine and Canal streets, advertise an extensive line of goods suitable for the season.

Credit Sale.—We call the attention of the trade to the sale of spring clothing at new hats, etc., to take place this day at 10 o'clock A. M., at Bloche & Lemonnier's auction rooms, No. 66 Chartres street, corner of Bienville.
