He was seen on Saturday morning near the Lafayette Cotton Press, about 8 o'clock on the evening of the 23d of June, 1859, and from other rewards I was reported at the residence of the undersigned. It is supposed that he has been chased into the river by a watchman and was drowned, as a dog of the kind has been accustomed to swim the river for about 10 years old, his color is black, but not of the deepest shade, and does not shine much; has a few white hairs among it, thick hair and rather short tail; is well made, stout, active and well spoken. He has not when he left home a pair of cottonade pants and a black cut away coat.
