Subscription, $10 00. By the Week, 20 cents. Advertisements inserted in the usual rates. A Special Notice, 25 cents per line for the first week.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 26, 1860. AUCTION SALES THIS DAY.

6. Government Bonds at 10 o'clock, at No. 69 Chartres street, a large assortment of bonds, also new foreign clothing, etc.

7. We think that the large edition yesterday printed of the Crescent would meet the requirements of any possible demand, and much as we pressed our regularly written Christmas gifts, our friends and patrons, if possible, a still higher appreciation of its many beauties.

8. Yesterday was generally observed as a holiday, consequently our Financial and Commercial departments are this morning omitted. Our columns, however, were with new, important news, among which is the account of horrible atrocities by the Indians in Texas, and several home items detailed in our local columns.

9. More than 1000--This being the regular egg season, we have received several "flying boys" of the same, and among the rest one from Clafay's Pelican Home, No. 32 St. Charles street. Our special drawing editor, after drawing the last drop of ink, remarked with emphasis that it was "spilled."

10. Good Christmas--We have received many Christmas presents, and feel greatly obliged to the donors. Among them we mention genuine specimens of Chas. Heinecke's and Lele-gard's champagne, from the firm of Forwood & Grubbe, 108 Camp street.

11. We are informed that the Pelican Flag will be displayed to-day, at 12 o'clock, M., from a building on New Levee street, between Gravier and Vidua streets.

12. Consistent Lodge No. 8 I. O. F.--The last regular meeting of this year of Crescent Lodge will be held on next Thursday evening, at 7 o'clock. A punctual attendance is requested.

13. First Brigade, First Division--The volunteer companies composing this Brigade are ordered to assemble at their respective armories, at 7 o'clock on to-morrow evening, for the purpose of drill and inspection in battalion movements. The line will be formed on Lafayette Square, at 7 o'clock.

14. A Christmas Present--The Clerks of the Adams Express Company, and the South Western Express Company, yesterday presented Mr. J. J. McKeever with a magnificent gold pen and pencil case, the finest articles of the kind that can be produced. It was accompanied, too, by a photograph of the donors, executed (the picture, not the donors) by Advenon & Blasing, in their usual superior style. We don't know any man more useful to the community than Mr. McKeever, nor one more deserving of a compliment like the above mentioned, from those who know him. We will say, too, that from our knowledge of the gentlemen who made the presents, we believe them to be the right men in the right place.

15. Arrangements to-night--New Opera House--Third appearance of Adolphe Patti; her first appearance in Patti's opera of "Maidin."

Will the South Stand Firm? TO HER INTERESTS! Or will she do as she has heretofore done--remain the North by trying all her Yankee traps in the shape of MACHINERY, MILLS, etc., that come along?

This is a question of grave importance to the underdog, who has spent the best part of his life and energies in conducting a Southern manufactory, and performing the best Corn and Flouring Mill that ever existed.

This Mill took the Premium in Gethse, over the best Northern-manufactured Mill, of more than double the size, which Premium was won at No. 35 St. Charles street, where the celebrated Mills are for sale. 172 1/2 St.
