Particulars under advertisements under notice before, 6th page.

Copies of THE CRESCENT, containing the official proceedings of the Convention, can be had at our counter, in wrappers for mailing.

The official proceedings of the Louisiana Convention, in French and English, of the 21st instant, appear on to-day's third page.

We are indebted to H. C. No. 61 Exchange Place, for the London Punch and the last number of Harper's Weekly pictorial.

The gentlemen of Adams' Express have our thanks for New York papers of the 18th and Western papers of the 19th, in advance of the mails.

"Ephraim" desires his professions ventilated through the columns of the Crescent, he must make his identity known to the "Col." or his representative. No admission to anonymous papers.

Monday's Crescent.

Monday's paper will be covered with original and selected matter. The edition of Monday has grown to an extraordinary size, as well as every other day.

Advertisers will perceive this fact by finding a copy of the Crescent in almost every family dwelling in the city.

Weekly Crescent.

The number of our Weekly, issued this morning is an exceedingly interesting paper, and can be had in wrappers for mailing to friends at a distance at the office, corner of No. 10, Morgan & Co.'s Exchange, Exchange and Commercial Places, and at Gen. Davis' opposite the new Post-office.

Secretary's Notice.—From Mr. Satterly's Newsroom, under the St. Charles Hotel, we have received the Ketchikaner for April, Punch, Harper's Weekly and Frank Leslie's Illustrated Paper. Punch has a funny picture of the secession of Louisiana, representing a jockey-looking chap riding away at break-neck speed on a hybrid animal, which seems to be a cross between a zebra and a donkey, followed by a pack of queer looking dogs. Mr. S. has received a fresh supply of Harper's Monthly for April.

Obituary.—A few days ago we published a very interesting article entitled "A Purgatorial Hellish" giving a sketch of the life of the famous English life Guardsman, John Shaw, giving details of his military career, and relating the story of his "spelling book" for Wilkes' Spirit of the Times, for which it was written and in which it first appeared.

A FARE FOR THE ORPHANS' HOME.—An entertainment to be given by the ladies at Old Fellows' Hall, beginning on Monday evening, for the benefit of the Orphan's Home in the Fourth District. It will be beautifully gotten up and charmingly conducted. The lady managers have our thanks for the complimentary tickets sent.

Orphan's Home.—Capt. Drexel and his company intend going over to Gretna this evening, to undergo a 24 hours' endurance exercise, finishing to-morrow evening. The members of the company will please observe the Captain's call, advertised in another column.

Restoration of Payment.—We are pleased to notice the card of Messrs. Robert E. Adams & Co., to-day published. It will be seen that they have resumed payment in full.

Southern American Party.—The nominations for Judges of the several District Courts, made by the Southern American Party, are elsewhere published. The gentlemen whose names are mentioned in the tickets will be recognized by our citizens as of worth, ability and approved merit. Due and proper consideration should be had to this ticket, as the matters involved in the election of the Judiciary are of the utmost import.

The Judiciary.—A "People's Ticket" for Judges of the District Courts of New Orleans, is to-day published. The names of the gentlemen composing the ticket are well known, and will command the attention of the community.

French District Court.—Judge H. B. Eggleston is elsewhere announced as a candidate for reelection to the responsible office of Judge of the Fifth District Court.

Sixth District Court.—The card of B. S. Tappan, Esq., declining the nomination for Judge of this Court, is to-day published.

Mississippi Fire Company No. 2.—The members of this Company are elsewhere notified that their regular monthly meeting will be held on Monday, 23rd inst., at 7 o'clock P. M.

The Metairie Races.—The spring meeting at the Metairie begins next Saturday. The stables are full of famous and mettlesome racers, all in excellent condition and eager for the fray. A glance over the programme, advertised in another column, will satisfy all judges of horses that lively times are ahead of a glorious old Metairie.

L. W. Lyons & Co.—This widely known and popular Southern clothing establishment, No. 26, 28 and 30 St. Charles street, offers a large stock of spring and summer clothing, both wholesale and retail. The goods have been selected with an especial view to the taste and convenience of our customers. We will particularly call attention to our assortment of young boys' and children's clothing. A complete stock of our quality can be had at their establishment, No. 26, 28 and 30 St. Charles street, which is especially desirable to the mothers of our young people, who are so anxious to have their children well clothed and comfortable.

Valuable Real Estate.—By notice advertised elsewhere it will be seen that valuable property offered for sale on March 23rd.

OUR RECOGNITION ABROAD.

The New York Tribune says: PROTEST AGAINST RECOGNITION.—Mr. Black recently addressed a circular letter to all foreign Governments, protesting in decided terms against the recognition of the Confederate States as an independent Government, and assigning the reasons at length and in the most forcible manner. The protest will, of course, be renewed, and perhaps emphasized, by the present Administration, so that Mr. Black's energy and his collection of signatures may be discovered that recognition by the Great Powers is less easy than was supposed at Montigny.

Mr. Black, it will be recalled, was made Secretary of State under the last Administration, after the resignation of that office by Gen. Cass. We suppose it was in his official capacity that this supercilious gentleman addressed letters to foreign Governments, protesting against the recognition of the independence of the Confederate States. We are, however, slightly of the opinion that Mr. Black, in legal parlance, will "take nothing by his nation." That it will prove to be a case of "labor lost," that he has covered his diplomatic seal upon rocky and barren ground. In short, that Mr. Black's enterprise will not prove a profitable one, either to himself or any other man.

The future relations between the Confederate States and foreign Governments will be settled between themselves, and we do not recognize the right of Mr. Black to put his opinion in the dish at all. It was none of his business, nor is it any of the business of his successors in office, Mr. Seward. They will consult propriety and decency by respectfully standing one side, while the parties interested settle the matter among themselves, as to them may appear best.

No doubt, it will travel all Abolitionism immensely if the Southern Confederacy should be recognized by foreign Governments. But we cannot help that. If the Northern Union were to open the ball by its own recognition of us, we are of opinion it would be much better for them in the long run, and save them a considerable quantity of future trouble and embarrassment. If they wish to do the clever and the correct thing, they ought to recall and repudiate Black's protest, and cordially unite with England, France, and all the other great powers of the earth in recognizing our independence and sovereignty. After France and other nations shall have recognized us, our position may possibly be reversed, and the North may be sent to our Court for the recognition it now refuses us.

As bearing upon this subject, we find in the Charleston Mercury the following extracts from private commercial letters received in this city. Northern Abolitionism will scarcely be able to keep much consolation from their personal but they have made their own bed and now they must lie on it.

ENGLAND AND THE CONFEDERATE STATES. EXTRACTS FROM PRIVATE COMMERCIAL LETTERS. Merchants, Feb. 23, 1861. We are looking for you to be received, we feel sure, on the basis of no sympathy with you. Of course the slavery question is the question of all questions. But your trade and would not like to see it extended, but we are, as a matter of course, the workings of the market, and we are, as a matter of course, the workings of the market, and we are, as a matter of course, the workings of the market.

LIVERPOOL, Feb. 23, 1861.—I am sorry to see the Border States are so indifferent to your secession movements and their own interests. I am surprised at Messrs. Davis and his friends, who have been so active in the federal paper, and his with such eagerness, availed himself of the patronage of the Government, that he cannot be induced to take a bold stand in favor of our independence. I have seen enough of the injustice of the North, and I am of opinion you should have dissolved the Union twenty-five years ago. The only reason for your course sufficient then, and you have abundant reasons now. The people on your side are blinded, and the more so the more they are deceived. The more you have of late done, and no reopening of the slave trade, is doing your cause good. It is a stroke of policy you will never regret.

Y. PENNSYLVANIA AND ABRAMS will sell this day at 12 o'clock, at the St. Charles Hotel, valuable property situated in the French District. An elegant two-story residence, with large grounds, on Washington Avenue, corner of Ann Street. A splendid office residence, with all the modern improvements, on Magazine Street, corner of Canal. A good two-story frame dwelling, on Sixth street, between Magazine and Camp streets.

FOR RENT.—An eligible house is to-day advertised for rent, and the fruiting for sale. See advertisement.

R. G. SHAW, Esq.—Messrs. D. C. Lowler & Co., No. 71 Camp street, now advertise a large lot of the article for sale. See advertisement.

We are requested to call attention to the sale of a fine oak, water and iron, by Messrs. Gardner Smith & Co., at 12 o'clock, at the St. Charles Hotel, between the corner of Canal and Magazine streets, corner of Canal.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE CRESCENT:—I will please state that I am a candidate for the Judiciary, and I am a candidate for the Judiciary, and I am a candidate for the Judiciary.

THE HON. H. B. EGGLESTON, the present incumbent of the Sixth District Court, is a candidate for reelection, and will be supported by his MANY FRIENDS.

JUDGE OF THE SIXTH DISTRICT COURT.—We are authorized to announce Judge DONATIE ADGREST as a candidate for Judge of the Sixth District Court of Louisiana. Election, April 1, 1861. See advertisement.

CHARLES A. TAYLOR, Esq., will be supported as an independent candidate for the Judiciary of the Sixth District Court, by MANY CITIZENS.

R. K. HOWELL, Judge of the Sixth District Court of New Orleans, is a candidate for reelection. See advertisement.

JUDGE T. G. HUNT OF THE FIRST DISTRICT COURT of New Orleans, will be supported for reelection by his MANY FRIENDS.

JUDGE OF THE THIRD DISTRICT COURT.—The Hon. J. C. WILKINSON, Esq., is a candidate for reelection to the office of Judge of the Third District Court of Louisiana. Election, April 1, 1861. See advertisement.

WE are authorized to announce the Hon. THOMAS J. COOLEY, of Pointe a la Poudre, as a candidate for Judge of the District Court of the State of Louisiana. Election on the 2nd DAY of April next. See advertisement.

PURIFY YOUR BLOOD.—Brandreth's Pills Warranted to Cure Pimples and Acne. The effect of purging with Brandreth's Pills is to restore the health, to master from what it may be. They take out all impurities from the system, and they have the same power of equalizing the system, and they have the same power of equalizing the system, and they have the same power of equalizing the system.
