TUESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 1, 1861.

TELEGRAPHED TO THE NEW ORLEANS CRESCENT.

THE WAR IN THE WEST.

Further Particulars of the Lexington Affair.

GENERAL FREMONT TAKES THE FIELD.

GOVERNOR JACKSON ADVANCING ON BOONVILLE.

AND GENERAL PRICE APPROACHING GEORGETOWN.

THE HERO OF TERROR IN KENTUCKY.

Breaking up of Union Camps by Gen. Bulker.

MORRIS KENTUCKIANS IN BASTILE LAFAYETTE.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—We are in possession, this morning, of a St. Louis Democrat, of the 25th inst., containing a summary of news both important and interesting.

The Democrat gives the report that Gen. Sigel had attacked Gen. Price, and says that that individual was at St. Louis, while the hostile armies were engaged in the battle of Lexington, Sept. 20.

The number of Confederate forces engaged at Lexington, 10,000 of whom were on a marauding forage into Lexington, was 22,000 (against 20,000 of the Union).

The city of Lexington was obliged to capitulate, as the Federal forces were so exhausted as to be unable to make further resistance to the Confederates.

Official Dispatch of Gen. Fremont.

The following is Gen. Fremont's official dispatch to the Washington Government:

The Missouri has fallen into General Price's hands, the enemy having cut off our supply of water. Reinforcements to the amount of four thousand men, had no means of crossing the river, and were obliged to retreat to the west of the river, leaving the city in the hands of the rebels.

Movements of Jackson and Price.

A dispatch from Jackson City says that Governor Claiborne F. Jackson is advancing on Boonville with 10,000 men, and that General Price is moving towards Georgetown with 20,000 men.

Rescue of the Steamer Clara Bell.

The steamer Clara Bell, which was captured some time since by the Rebels, has been released by the Confederates with merchandise on board amounting in value to $20,000.

Since the recent brilliant victory at Lexington, Missouri has been rallying in large numbers around Gen. Price's standard, and in a few days his force will probably exceed 20,000 men.

Gen. Fremont Wants More Money.

New York, Sept. 26.—Gen. Fremont having made an immediate requisition for $500,000 for military stores, Gen. Ripley replies, denying the necessity of such a large sum.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—The Secretary of War has issued an order forbidding the drafting of troops into the service, and says that the Government will rely on the love of the people for the flag of the Union.

Important from Kentucky.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 30.—A telegraphic message was received in this city yesterday, from Clarksville, stating that the Rebels had captured the steamer Clara Bell, and had taken possession of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad.

Gen. A. S. Johnston's army is moving up the river. "Somebody will be hurt."

Local Intelligence.

ARRIVAL OF THE PRISONERS.—The prisoners arrived yesterday morning by the 10 o'clock train. They were brought down from the depot through the principal streets, escorted by detachments of cavalry and infantry.

They passed through the streets, where they were met by a large number of people, but not the slightest insult was offered or any demonstration of a disgraceful nature made. Our people behaved with their accustomed order and good breeding.

The prisoners were all a hard looking set, and judging from their countenances, of all the nationalities of Europe. There was nothing respectable in their appearance, nor dignified in their carriage.

They were all dressed in military uniforms, and were all of the same rank, viz., privates and privates first class. They were all of the same age, viz., from 18 to 25 years.

MILITARY ORGANIZATION OF THE PRISONERS.—The Secretary of the Pelican Hook and Ladder Company No. 4, notifies all members who are favorable to the organization of a military company, to meet at the truck house of the above-named company to-morrow night.

Press—A house on Howard street, between Calhoun and Clio streets, belonging to a Mr. H. H. H. H., was destroyed by the fire yesterday morning about 2 o'clock.

About 10 o'clock in the day, a lot of cotton stored in the yard of the Jackson Railroad depot, was destroyed by fire. Among the crowd present were several men, who were seen to be working and put the fire out before many bales were destroyed.

Unfortunate Child—A poor little boy was yesterday found in St. Mary's market, lying sick and helpless. The homeless child was sent to the Charity Hospital.
