MAYORALTY OF NEW ORLEANS, }
City Hall, April 25, 1862. }

To the Honorable Common Council:

Gentlemen—At 10 o'clock P. M. to-day, I was called on by Capt. Bailey, second in command of the Federal fleet now lying in front of the city, bearing a demand from Flag Officer Farragut for the unconditional surrender of the city of New Orleans, and the hoisting of the United States flag on the Custom House, Post-Office and Mint.

I replied that the demand was in command here, and that I was without power to act in the premises. I stated that I was in no manner for and to whom, after the latter should arrive in the city, I should be referred for the action to be had in the premises.

Captain Bailey left for the Louisiana for the purpose stated down from the City Hall.

I received that from Farragut
