St. Vincent's Home for Boys. We are indebted to Hon. D. P. Skelton, president of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, for an outline of a benevolent project the society has in hand.

The society is organized of Catholic laymen, who have been engaged for some years in this city for charitable purposes, and who, in the discharge of their duties as members, and in their daily walks as citizens, have had opportunities of observing the multitude of boys of the streets in the city who, in want of proper parental care, or through vicious associations, are growing up a shame to the city and a curse to the country.

The first idea was to purchase an extensive tract of land in the suburbs of the city, so that by employing the inmates of the institution a part of their time each day, in gardening, their labor would largely assist in maintaining the establishment, but it was found that several more years might elapse before the necessary funds would be gathered for so extensive a plan, and it was resolved to go to work immediately on a more moderate scale.

A few days ago, by request of citizens residing in the rear of the city, near the line of the First and Fourth Districts, we drew attention to the very offensive odor, dangerous to public health, from the soap works, situated on the corner of the street between the First and Second Districts, called upon yesterday, and requested to state that since the appearance of our notice, essential oils and soda have been substituted for the fat previously used in the establishment in the manufacture of soap, and as by this means offensive smells are avoided, there can be nothing objectionable to health emanating from the factory.

Arrests. The following arrests were made by the First District police: John Robinson, charged by Henry Winwood with larceny; Fortino Weing, negro, accused of assaulting J. H. Hardin with a hatchet; John Smith, charged with picking the pocket of Capt. Brown of the steamboat Louisiana; an amount of fifty dollars; Mary Ann Bork, charged by Mr. H. B. Bork with larceny; John Canningham, charged by J. W. White with larceny; John O'Brien, accused by W. Corpeau of receiving stolen property; James Jones, colored, accused by William Anderson, colored, of larceny; and Emma Green, colored, accused by M. K. Kowalew, of stealing sugar from his grocery on Baronne street.

Insurgents. Corner Delany yesterday held the following arrests: On the body of Minerva Mason, colored, aged 30 years, at No. 245 Elysian Fields street. Verdict—guilty. And on the body of John Jackson, colored, 24 years old, native of Louisiana, at the corner of Claiborne and St. Anne streets. Verdict—guilty.

Board of Health. There was a regular weekly meeting of the Board of Health last evening. Present: Dr. Smith in the Chair, Dr. Austin, Mr. C. B. B. The minutes of last meeting were read and approved.

Mortality Reports. The subjoined table presents the deaths from cholera and other diseases, together with a classification, with reference to color, reported to the Board of Health, since the existence of cholera in the city became an established fact. This table does not include the interments from the Marine Hospital, which, being under military control, are not reported to the board. From the 5th to the 8th August the board has not returned from the cemeteries. The first daily report was made to the board on the 9th August. That, and all the following daily reports, show the interments up to 5 o'clock of the morning of the day the report may be dated:

Telegraphic Dispatches

Special to the New Orleans Crescent. THE PRESIDENTIAL TOUR. Large Party—Seward, Grant, Randall, Welles, Etc.

Philadelphia, Aug. 28.—The Presidential party left Washington at half past seven o'clock this morning. Secretary Seward, Secretary Welles, Postmaster General Randall, General Grant, Admiral Farragut, Senator Romero, and Senator Patterson accompanied the President.

At all the stations between Washington and Philadelphia enthusiastic assemblages collected to welcome them. At Annapolis Junction Governor Swann and staff met the President's party, and escorted them to Baltimore.

They were received in Baltimore by the city authorities, and drawn through the streets in open carriages. When they arrived a dense mass of sympathetic spectators had collected and caused a delay of the procession. This necessitated a separate visit to Philadelphia.

The State officials of Maryland escorted the party to the frontiers, where the Delaware delegation received them, and they were separately introduced to the President, to Gen. Grant and to Admiral Farragut. The depots on the line of travel were crowded with eager spectators, and in even the smallest municipalities citizens were all anxious to display their respect for the President.

A grand reception was accorded to the President at Philadelphia, General Meade being at the head, and army and navy officers, the Board of Aldermen, and various societies swelling the throng. At half past two the President and Secretary Seward entered the balcony of the Continental Hotel in response to calls of an unprecedentedly dense crowd, by whom they were received with continuous applause.

A procession of cavalry, infantry, merchants, musons and firemen was then formed, and surrounded by the great officials of the republic, President Johnson, in response to the repeated calls of the vast audience extending on all sides for many squares, delivered a brief address.

The enthusiastic cheers evinced the heartiest approbation of the speech of the President, and then he and his party retired. Fatigue prevented President Johnson from receiving the congratulations of army and naval officers, and he retired to his apartments until he dined, at 5 o'clock.

At a later moment the excitement became more tumultuous than ever. The masses of people cover an immense area in the vicinity of the Continental. Berrington has been continued since 9 o'clock. The President acknowledges the compliments in a graceful manner.

Baltimore, Aug. 28.—The President and party left Washington at 7:30 this morning. Each station persons were congregated to pay their respects, and everywhere the President was received with manifestations of delight. At Annapolis Junction Governor Swann, of Maryland, welcomed him to the State, and accompanied the party to Baltimore.

On arriving at Baltimore the executive train was met by a committee of forty citizens, headed by the mayor as their chairman, and escorted in open carriages to the President street depot for Philadelphia. Large crowds gathered both at the railroad stations in Baltimore, and on the line of the procession to get a view of the ex-husband and his wife, with deafening cheers.

Philadelphia, Aug. 28.—The President and party arrived safe this afternoon and was welcomed by Col. Joseph Page in behalf of the merchants and mechanics, irrespective of party, as the chief dignitaries of the republic, the chosen protector of their rights and liberties, that through him the Union of all the States would be restored and peace reign in fact as well as in name.
